Your committee further observe, that the above Compendious View, is by no means an adequate exhibition of the hurches under the care of the General Assembly, either as to the number of ministers, the number of churches, the number of communicants, or the number of baptisms. It will be seen at first sight, that 4 Presbyteries have made no reports on any of these items; 4 have not reported on the number of communicants added last year; 5 have not reported on the whole number of communicants; 5 have not reported on baptisms, either of adults or infants; will also appear that only 627 congregations, not quite half the whole number have reported the communicants added during the last year, and only 721 have reported on the whole number of communicants; that only 450 have reported on the number of adult baptisms, and that only 645 have reported on the number of infants baptized.

Four o'clock P. M. the Assembly met and was constituted by prayer. The nutes of last session were read.

The business left unfinished in the morning, viz: the consideration of the ort of the committee, to which was referred the appeal of Messrs. Lowe- and Kelso from the decision of the Synod of Ohio, affirming the decision the Presbytery of Miami, by which decision the Presbytery had pronoun-d the election of Messrs. Dillingham and Rice to the office of ruling elders the 2nd Presbyterian Church of Cincinnati, a valid election, was resumed d finished; and the report being amended, and fully discussed, was adopt-, and is as follows, viz:

The General Assembly, having gone fully into the consideration of the peal from the decision of the Synod of Ohio, by Messrs. Lowerie and Kelso, d having seen, with deep regret, the appearance of much disorder in the ole business, which they disapprove; believing, as the Assembly do, that e election of elders should be conducted with all due deliberation, according the letter of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church, and in the spirit d temper of the Gospel, and that although the Assembly are of the opinion, at it would be most desirable to have the communicants only, as the elec-rs of ruling elders; yet, as it appears to be the custom in some of the urches in the Presbyterian connexion to allow this privilege to others, ey see no reason why the election should be considered void, nor any rea-n, why the decision of the Synod of Ohio should not be affirmed.

Therefore resolved, that the sentence of the Synod of Ohio be, and it here- is affirmed. And the Assembly gave their opinion, that the Session of a hurch has the authority to convene the congregation for all such purposes; it should the Session neglect or refuse to convene the congregation, the arty feeling aggrieved, has its remedy by application to Presbytery in the rm of a complaint.

The committee appointed to determine the boundaries of the Presbytery of Abingdon reported; and the report being read, was recommitted to same committee.

The committee to which was referred a paper purporting to be a remo strance from John M. Rankin and others, who allege, that they are me bers of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, having had the sa under serious consideration, submitted the following report, which w adopted, viz:

The General Assembly can never hesitate, on any proper occasion, to r commend to those, who, at both their licensure and ordination professed "si cerely to receive and adopt the Confession of Faith of this Church, as contai ing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures," and to all oth members of our Church, steadfastly to adhere to that "form of sound words

But while the General Assembly is invested with the power of deciding all controversies, respecting doctrine and discipline; of reproving, warnin or bearing testimony, against error in doctrine in any Church, Presbyter or Synod; or of suppressing schismatical contentions and disputations, a such matters ought to be brought before the Assembly in a regular and co stitutional way. And it does not appear that the Constitution ever designe that the General Assembly should take up abstract cases, and decide c them, especially when the object appears to be, to bring those decisions bear on particular individuals, not judicially before the Assembly. Neith does it appear, that the Constitution of the Church, intended that any perso or persons, should have the privilege, of presenting for decision, remonstra ces, respecting points of doctrine, on the conduct of individuals, not broug up from the inferior judicatories, by appeal, reference, or complaint; an this especially, when such remonstrances contain no evidence whatsoeve of the facts alleged, but mere statements, of the truth, or justness of whic the Assembly have no means of judging, inasmuch as a contrary course, woul allow of counter and contradictory remonstrances, without end.

Wherefore, on motion resolved, that the committee be discharged fro the further consideration of this remonstrance; and the committee were accordingly discharged.

Adjourned till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. Concluded with prayer.

May 25, 9 o'clock A. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of last session were read.

Messrs. Gildersleeve, Henry, Hollister, Swift and Dorance, obtained leave of absence after this day, during the remaining sessions of this Assembly.

Messrs. Vallandigham, Allen and Crane, obtained leave of absence, afte 12 o'clock, till Monday morning.

Mr. Allen resigned his seat to Mr. James Blair, and Mr. Buchannan resigned his seat to the Rev. Robert Cathcart, D. D. the alternates mentioned in their commissions; and Mr. Blair and Dr. Cathcart took their seats as members.

The committee appointed to report on the subject of the boundary line between the Presbyteries of Abingdon and Union, submitted the following which, being read, was adopted, viz:

"From the minutes of the late Synod of the Carolinas, it appears, that the Presbytery of Abingdon, in the year 1797, petitioned said Synod for a division of that Presbytery;—which petition was granted. The western boundary of Abingdon, by this act, was to be "a line running from the North Carolina boundary, north to the mouth of Big Limestone; up said creek, &c. &c. to the Kentucky line." The members west of this line, were constituted into a Presbytery by the name of Union.

n the petition of several persons in 1799, the boundary line between the sbyteries of Abingdon and Union, was altered, by an act of the same Sy- . This line was to run due north, touching in its course, the mouth of k Creek. By this new partition, the Rev. Hezekiah Balch and John pan, who were before attached to Union Presbytery, became members of ngdon.

n 1800, the Synod formed a new Presbytery, to be known by the name of Presbytery of Greenville, the boundary of which on the East, was to be first established, and on the West, the last established line, between the sbyteries of Abingdon and Union. The territory occupied by this Pres- ery, is the one now in dispute;—and this territory, it should not be for- ten, embraced the Rev. Mr. Balch, and John Copan, who, by the first di- ing line, were members of Union, and by the second, members of Abing- .

n 1804, the Presbytery of Greenville was dissolved by the Synod, and the y information given respecting the destination of this disputed territory, n the following extract from their minutes. "Resolved, that the said sbytery of Greenville be dissolved, and it is hereby dissolved. The Rev. ssrs. Samuel Davis and George Newton, are directed to apply to the sbytery of Concord, for re-admission;—The Rev. Messrs. Hez. Balch John Copan to apply to the Presbytery of Union;—and the Rev. Mr. vall to the Presbytery of West Lexington in the Synod of Kentucky, or ny other Presbytery in whose bounds his lot may be ordered."

rom this minute, it does appear to your committee, that the exclusive isdiction over this territory, once embraced within the bounds of the Pres- ery of Greenville, is not given, either to Abingdon or Union. The Pres- ery of Concord can unquestionably claim, by the authority of this act, t part occupied by the Rev. Messrs. Davis and Newton, and their congre- ions.—The Presbytery of Union, that occupied by the Rev. Messrs. Balch l Copan;—and, as the act is silent as to the acquisition of either ministers territory by the Presbytery of Abingdon, your committee can see no rea- why that Presbytery should not be restricted within the same limits by ich they were bounded when the Presbytery of Greenville was in existence. is is what is denominated the Limestone boundary, and is the same line of ision which was established between Abingdon and Union, when Union esbytery was constituted.

From this view of facts, your committee would recommend to the Assem- , that this line be the boundary between the Presbyteries of Abingdon and ion, leaving any congregations now established within the former bounds the Presbytery of Greenville, the liberty of attaching themselves to the esbytery of Abingdon, if, in their judgment, they shall deem such a mea- e conducive to their edification, and the peace and unity of the Church."

It being the order of the day, the Assembly proceeded to the consideration Mr. Arthur's appeals from the decision of the Presbytery of Miami. Dr. y was nominated by Mr. Arthur to advocate his cause and was according- appointed by the Assembly. Mr. Barr resigned his seat to Dr. Ely, and . Ely took his seat as a member. The documents in the case were read, d the parties were heard till they were satisfied, and withdrew. The mem- rs of the Assembly were called in the order of the roll, and, after consider- le discussion of the subject, the Assembly adjourned till 9 o'clock on Mon- y morning. Concluded with prayer.

A communication from Mr. Zechariah Lewis, Domestic Secretary of United Foreign Missionary Society, was received, and, being read, was cc mitted to Dr. Janeway, Mr. Magraw, and Mr. Lewis.

The business left unfinished on Saturday was resumed, viz: the consi ration of the Rev. William Arthur's appeals from the decision of the Pr bytery of Miami. The members were all called in the order of the roll, the subject being fully discussed, the following motion was made and conded, viz:

That Mr. Arthur's appeal from the decision of the Presbytery of Mia suspending him from the office of the Gospel ministry be sustained. vote was taken, and the motion was carried in the affirmative, and Mr. thur's appeal was accordingly sustained.

It was then moved and seconded, that Mr. Arthur's appeal from the de sion of the Presbytery of Miami, requiring him to submit to a solemn rebu for having slandered, in a pamphlet which he had published, the character the Rev. Joshua L. Wilson, be sustained. The vote was taken, and the tion was carried in the negative, and the appeal accordingly was not sustain

Four o'clock, P. M. the Assembly met and was constituted by pray The minutes of the last session were read.

It being the order of the day to hold an election of Trustees of the Ge ral Assembly, an election was held to fill the vacancy in the Board of Tr tees occasioned by the death of Elias Boudinot, L. L. D.; and Thomas Br ford, jun. Esq. was duly chosen.

Resolved that no further election of Trustees be held this year.

The committee, to which had been referred the letter from the Associ Reformed Synod of the West, reported; and their report being read, w laid on the table.

Dr. Balch obtained leave of absence, after this day, during the remaini sessions of this Assembly.

The business left unfinished in the morning, viz: the consideration of report of the committee to which had been referred the Rev. T. B. Cra head's letter, was resumed, and the report was adopted, and is as f lows, viz:

"In the year 1811, an appeal from a decision of the Synod of Kentucky, T. B. Craighead, accompanied by a letter from the same, was laid before t General Assembly. But Mr. Craighead not appearing in person, to pros cute his appeal, permission was given by the Assembly, on the last day their sessions, to the members of the Synod of Kentucky, who were prese to enter a protest against the prosecution of the aforesaid appeal, at any ture time. This was supposed to be required by a standing rule of the A sembly. The appeal of Mr. Craighead was therefore not heard, and the se tence of the Synod of Kentucky was rendered final.

It moreover appears, that the General Assembly of the year aforesa having adopted the protest of the members of the Synod of Kentucky, their own act, did declare that Mr. Craighead had been deposed, whereas t ecision of the Synod was suspension; and, although the Synod did direct e Presbytery to which Mr. Craighead belonged, to depose him, if he did ot, at their next stated meeting, retract his errors; yet this sentence could ot have been constitutionally inflicted, because Mr. Craighead appealed om the decision of Synod, the effect of which was, to arrest all further oceedings in the case, until the appeal should be tried; therefore the sennce of the Assembly declaring Mr. Craighead deposed, does not accord ith the sentence of the Synod, which was suspension.

From the above history of facts, your committee, while they entirely disnt from many of the opinions contained in Mr. Craighead's letter, and conder its publication before it was presented to the Assembly, indecorous and iproper, are of opinion, that he has just ground of complaint in regard to e proceedings of the General Assembly of 1811, in his case, and that the nstruction put on the standing rule of the Assembly, was not correct; for rsonal attendance on the superior judicatory is not essential to the regur prosecution of an appeal. Moreover, the sentence of the Assembly, being unded in error, ought to be considered null and void, and Mr. Craighead ght to be considered as placed in the same situation as before the decision ok place, and, as possessing the right to prosecute his appeal before this dicatory.

Ordered, that the stated clerk, forward to Mr. Craighead, a copy of the regoing minute.

Resolved, that the Treasurer be directed to report to this Assembly, the ate of the funds for the support of the Theological Seminary;—the receipts to the contingent fund during the last year, and the amount that is applible to the current expenses of the present year.

The committee to which was referred the question, "At what age ought ildren to be considered too old to be baptized on the faith of their parents?" ported the following answer; which, being read, was adopted, viz:

The precise time of life when the state of infancy ceases, is not determinl in the word of God, nor by the standards of our Church, and, from the ture of the case, is incapable of being regulated by any uniform rule, but ould be left to the judgment of ministers and sessions, to be determined cording to the particular circumstances of each case. The Assembly, erefore, deem it inexpedient, to attempt to fix the precise time at which ildren ought to be considered too old to be baptized on the faith of their rents.

The committee appointed to prepare a minute proper to be made respectg Mr. Arthur's appeal, reported the following, which was adopted, viz:

"The Assembly sustained the appeal of Mr. Arthur from the sentence of e Presbytery by which he was suspended from the gospel ministry, on the ound of contumacy, because the Presbytery appeared to have been precipite, and not to have observed the constitutional rules. See Discipline, hapter 4th, Sections 6th, 10th, and 11th. They deem, too, the request of Ir. Arthur, for a copy of the first sentence, to have been reasonable, and, at it ought to have been complied with. But the appeal from the first sennce, by which the charge of slander, preferred against him by the Rev. shua L. Wilson, was declared to be substantiated, and Mr. Arthur required submit to a rebuke, the Assembly could not sustain. For, although the ssembly noticed the omission of Presbytery to assign Mr. Arthur counsel manage his defence; see Discipline, Chapter 4th, Section 13th, yet they id judge the pamphlet, of which Mr. Arthur admitted himself to be the auor, to contain slander against Mr. Wilson, and could not but disapprove of e spirit, under the influence of which, it appeared to have been written.

Having thus delivered their judgment, the Assembly exhort the brethren concerned, to study the things that make for peace, and to exercise mut forbearance.

Messrs. Whelpley, Ford, York and Price, obtained leave of absence, ring the remaining sessions of this Assembly, and Mr. Russel obtair leave of absence after to-morrow morning.

An overture from the commissioner from the Presbytery of Londonder in behalf of the Presbytery on the subject of a difficulty occurring in the dination of their licentiates who settle in remote parts of our country, v submitted to the Assembly, and, being read and discussed, the further c sideration of it was indefinitely postponed.

The committee, to which had been referred the letter from the Associ Reformed Synod of the West, reported, and the following was adopted the answer proper to be given to their letter, viz:

A letter from the Associate Reformed Synod of the West, claiming a p of the Theological Library belonging to the late General Synod of the sociate Reformed Church, was received and read. After considerable de beration on the subject, it was understood that a similar letter had been ceived by the late General Synod from the Synod of the West, to which answer had been given by the General Synod.

Whereupon the Assembly Resolved, That it is unnecessary to give to t Synod of the West any other answer than that which they have already ceived from the General Synod, as that Synod were better acquainted wi all the merits and circumstances of the case than this Assembly are. Ord ed, that the Stated Clerk forward a copy of the above minute to the As ciate Reformed Synod of the West, in answer to their letter written to t Assembly.

Messrs. Platt, Eells, and Samuel Hunter obtained leave of absence duri the remaining sessions of this Assembly.

The Treasurer of the Assembly presented a copy of his annual account settled and approved by the Trustees of the Assembly, and the Treasure Book was laid on the table for the inspection of the members.

Information was received that the condition on which the Professor Oriental and Biblical Literature was elected, was complied with, and t original subscription paper lodged with the Treasurer of the General A sembly.

The committee, to which was referred the letter from the Domestic S cretary of the United Foreign Missionary Society, reported, and their repo being read, was adopted, and is as follows, viz:

That, by turning to the pages of their report referred to in that lette they find there a statement of receipts and expenditure, accompanied wi the following remarks:

" By this summary it will be seen, that the receipts of the managers, du the past year, have fallen far short of their expenditures. At the com-ncement of the year, there was a balance in the Treasury of twelve ndred and fifty-three dollars. Of the stock then on hand, the Board ve sold three thousand three hundred and forty-nine dollars, and there is w due to the Treasury the sum of four hundred and ninety-nine dollars, king altogether a deficiency in the receipts of the year, of more than e thousand dollars.

" Although the managers regret that such should, at any time, be the state their funds, yet they retain entire confidence in the liberality and good th of the three denominations, under whose patronage this Society was ablished. They cannot suspect that their fellow-christians will permit the stitution to languish, or its devoted Missionaries to suffer in the wilder-ss, for want of pecuniary support. So long as their expenditures shall ntinue to be regulated by a due regard to usefulness and economy, they l constrained to believe, that however widely they may, under the guidce of Providence, extend their operations, they will be borne out by the nificence of the religious community, in their work of faith, and their la- ur of love."

This Society, so important in its design and extensive in its operations, ile it claims indeed the assistance of all the churches belonging to the nominations by whom it has been patronised, has a peculiar claim to the eral aid of the churches of this General Assembly, by whom it was orinated.

The committee, therefore, submit the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That it be recommended to our churches to form Auxiliary cieties and Associations, in aid of the United Foreign Missionary Society, erever it may be practicable.

2. Resolved, That it be recommended to our churches to take up collecns at the monthly concert prayer meetings, in aid of the funds of this ciety, that their alms may ascend with their prayers for a memorial bee God, and that their benefactions may prove how sincerely they desire coming of the Redeemer's kingdom and the conversion of the world.

A letter from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was received, d being read, was committed to Dr. Janeway, Messrs. Robert Patterson, yard and Bethune.

The report which had been postponed till to-day, was called up, viz: the port of the committee to which was referred the appeal of the Presbytery Abingdon, from the decision of the Synod of Virginia, in the case of Mr.
enn.

The consideration of the report, which recommended the dismissing of appeal, was postponed, and the appeal was taken up, and the documents ing read, the following resolution was submitted to the Assembly, and opted, viz:

Resolved, That the appeal of the Presbytery of Abingdon, from the deion of the Synod of Virginia, in the case of the Rev. Robert Glenn be dis-ssed, on the ground, that the substantial cause of appeal has been removed the act of that Presbytery, in their receiving Mr. Glenn in conformity th the decision of the Synod. The appeal was accordingly dismissed.

The Treasurer laid before the Assembly a statement of the funds of the eological Seminary, and the statement being read, was committed to Drs.
ce, Janeway and Neill, and Messrs. Bethune and Bayard.

Messrs. Camp and Halsey obtained leave of absence during the remain-sessions of this Assembly.

Resolved, That Drs. Green, Alexander and Miller be a committee to in-ire whether any, and if any, what measures ought to be adopted for the better conducting the business of the General Assembly; and that they port on the subject to the next Assembly.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Assembly be directed to lay bef every Assembly, as soon after its meeting in each year, as possible, a statement of the funds of the Assembly, with an estimate of the expen that must be provided for during the current year. Adjourned till 4 o'clo P. M. Concluded with prayer.

Four o'clock, P. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by pray The minutes of the last session were read.

Dr. Ely, who was appointed by the last Assembly to secure the co right of the constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United Stat reported, that he had attended to the duty assigned him, and that he h in his hands all the requisite certificates of said copy right; and his rep was accepted, and Dr. Ely was directed to deposit the certificates with Treasurer of the Trustees of the Assembly.

The Stated Clerk was directed to procure the binding of 200 copies the 4th volume of the printed Extracts of the minutes of the Assembly; a the Trustees were instructed to issue a warrant for the payment of binding of said Extracts.

The committee, to which had been referred the letter from the Associ Reformed Synod of the South, submitted the following resolutions, wh were adopted, viz:

Resolved, That a union having now taken place between the General sembly of the Presbyterian Church and the General Synod of the Associ Reformed Church; and the library of the Theological Seminary of the l ter, being, by the terms of union, incorporated with that of the form at Princeton, the General Assembly cannot accede to the claim of the As ciate Reformed Synod of the South.

Resolved, That a copy of the above resolution be transmitted by t Stated Clerk to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

The committee, appointed to make a distribution of the Commissione Fund, reported, and their report being read, was accepted; and the Tr tees of the Assembly were instructed to issue a warrant for the payment $1484 86 to the commissioners, according to the report of the committee.

No report was received from the Board of Education. The standi rule on the subject having, for the present, been suspended—it was resolve that the present Board be continued, and they were accordingly continue

Resolved, That a copy of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Chur be presented, by the Stated Clerk, to the General Associations of Connect cut, Massachusetts, New-Hampshire, and the General Convention of Ve mont; and that the Trustees of the Assembly, be instructed to issue a wa rant for the payment of those copies.

Resolved, That all the minutes of this Assembly be published, exce those which the Assembly shall, by a vote, determine are not to be printe and the Stated Clerk was appointed to superintend the printing.

Resolved, That this Assembly view, with concern, the manifest inattenti of many of the Presbyteries to raising and forwarding their reasonable pr portions to the commissioners' fund. In consequence of which the Assemb foresee, that, if this inattention continue, the remoter parts of the churche pressed with an unequal burden, from the circumstance of their distanc will have but a very small representation in the future meetings of the A sembly; and that, thereby the great objects of the Assembly, the preservin the union of the churches, and cherishing their interests in every part, how ever remote, will be greatly impeded, and perhaps, finally defeated.

Resolved, Therefore, that it be enjoined, and it is hereby enjoined on the sbyteries under the care of the Assembly, and especially on those that e been deficient, to pay a particular attention to this duty in future.

Resolved, That Drs. Janeway and Neill be authorized to have reprinted, subscription, Extracts belonging to the first volume of the printed Ex- cts, so as to furnish, at a reasonable price, copies of that volume; that y be authorized to use those which are already in print of that volume, the benefit of the subscribers; and that they endeavour to secure some ies to be put at the disposal of the Assembly.

Mr. Finley presented to the Assembly 20 copies of the History of the eological Seminary at Princeton, to be given to the Western members of Assembly. Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be presented to . Finley.

The committee, to which had been referred the statement of the Treasurer, elation to the funds of the Theological Seminary, submitted the follow- report, which was adopted, viz:

t appears that there is due to the Professors, one quarter's salary, for the year; and that the whole salary for the current year, is to be provided making in the whole, $4750. That one quarter's salary is due to Mr. dge, as assistant Teacher of the Original Languages of the Scriptures; and t the Assembly are pledged to pay him $400, as Professor of Orien- and Biblical Literature, making in the whole to be provided on this ac- nt, the sum of $500. That the contingent fund is chargeable, with in- est, on $9000 for the current year, amounting to $540. And that there on the 15th of May, 1822, due to the Treasurer, for monies advanced by , $315 60. Of the above items, the amount is $6105 60; to cover ch expenses, the only means reported by the Treasurer, are the follow- , viz:

. The amount of collections, donations, &c. estimated at $2000.

. The interest of the permanent fund, &c. $1500.

. Nett proceeds of the rent of the house, late the estate of R. Knox— king the whole amount of means $3870—leaving a deficiency in the ans, for the current year, of $2235 60.

t appears also, that a part of the deficiency here to be provided for, is of h a nature, that immediate measures must be adopted by the Assembly that purpose; otherwise the interests of the Seminary must be most ma- ally injured. But the committee can think of no method, by which the ent wants of the institution can be supplied, but that of a loan.

t is obvious, however, that this ought to be and can be only a temporary edient; and that vigorous measures ought immediately to be adopted for purpose of replenishing the exhausted contingent fund of the Seminary. e Assembly has directed, that the Secretary of the Board of Directors uld write to such congregations as he may think proper, urging them aise collections for the supply of the immediate wants. But in the judg- nt of the committee, it will be entirely unwise to rely on this measure, as relief afforded by it cannot reasonably be expected to be either prompt ffectual. The committee, however, are persuaded, that by employing a table number of intelligent and industrious agents, who shall devote mselves exclusively and zealously to the business of soliciting contribu- ns for the contingent fund of the Seminary, money sufficient to relieve it n its present pressure may, without difficulty, be raised in the course of year. Wherefore, Resolved,

. That the Trustees of the Assembly be authorised and directed, to bor- on the best terms that they can make, a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars, to supply the present deficiency in the contingent Fund of the ological Seminary.

2. That Dr. Green, Dr. Alexander, and Dr. Miller be a committee, full powers to employ suitable persons, as agents, to solicit contribution the Contingent Fund, to prescribe their routs, give them instructions, an whatsoever else, in their judgment be necessary, to ensure success to a sure so important.

The roll having been called agreeably to a standing rule on the subj it appeared, that none of the members had left the Assembly without le

APPENDIX.

A NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION,

Within the bounds of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the Presbyte Church; and of the General Associations of Connecticut and Massa setts, and the General Convention of Vermont, during the last year.

The General Assembly in sending to the churches the annual narra of the state of religion within their bounds, wish them grace, mercy, peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

We have much reason to offer our thanksgivings to the Great Hea the church for the many tokens of his love, with which he has visited portion of it, which is in our land, during the past year. He has gi many convincing proofs, that he has been present with the assemblies of people to bless them, by bestowing upon them the sanctifying influence his Holy Spirit. Him we acknowledge and adore as our Redeemer head, as the foundation of our hopes and the source of all grace, and we cribe glory and dominion to Him that loved us, and washed us from our in his own blood.

But while there are many reasons for thankfulness and rejoicing, ther much also to be deplored.

It is with deep sorrow, that the Assembly have heard numerous co plaints of lukewarmness and conformity to the world, among profess Christians, The neglect of family prayer, the want of zeal for extend the interests of the Redeemer's kingdom, attachment to the world, conf mity to its sinful customs and pleasures, and in some few instances, diss sions and backslidings prove that these complaints are but too well fou ed. Such professors seem to have forgotten the deep obligations wh they are under, from their own voluntary engagements of obedience to G and from the dying love of Him who gave himself for them, to redeem th from all iniquity; that the God whom we serve is "a jealous God;" a that the sins of his professing people are peculiarly hateful to him. affectionately, and yet solemnly call upon them to remember from whe they are fallen, and to repent and do their first works; to be watchful a strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die.

In some parts of our land, attempts are made to propagate the most p nicious errors. With a zeal worthy of a better cause, and under lo pretentions to superior rationality and to deeper discoveries in religi some are endeavouring to take away the crown from the Redeemer's hea egrade Him who is the mighty God and the prince of life, to a level mere men, and to rob us of all our hopes of redemption through his d. Pretending too, a more expanded benevolence to man, and more obled ideas of the goodness and mercy of God, they assiduously propa- the sentiment, that all men will ultimately obtain eternal happiness, ever sinful their present temper and conduct may be, without any re- l to the cleansing of the blood of atonement, or the sanctifying influences he Spirit of God. Believing that these sentiments are utterly subver- of gospel truth and holiness; that they are alike dishonouring to God, destructive to the present and eternal welfare of men, we cannot but tionately warn you against them. Beware brethren, lest ye also being away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. Che- an ardent attachment to the truth which is according to godliness: and to experience in your own souls its sanctifying influence.

he gross vices of intemperance, profane swearing, Sabbath-breaking gambling, still extensively exist. The excessive use of spirituous li- rs continues to produce the most deplorable effects, and threatens still ter injury. That such crimes should any where exist, is matter of as- shment and sorrow, They prove that man has deeply apostatized from ; and that our nature is both degraded and depraved.

ut there is one subject to which the Assembly advert with the most ful feelings. Vast sections of our country, particularly our frontiers, destitute of the stated means of grace, and are loudly calling upon us he words of the man of Macedonia, come over and help us.

the Presbytery of Niagara, which consists of twenty-six congregations, e are but four which have pastors. In the Presbytery of Genessee, ch consists of nineteen congregations, two only have pastors, and of e two, but one enjoys the stated preaching of the gospel more than half time. In the Presbytery of Bath, the churches are few, and most of n feeble, and destitute of the ministry of the word. There are but six isters in nearly as many counties. Multitudes are evidently living hout God in the world, and paying not even an outward respect to the itutions of the gospel. In many families the Scriptures are not to be d, and in too many instances, little or no desire is shown to possess n. In many places no meetings for the public worship of God are held; in many others, such meetings are thinly attended. In the Presbytery Champlain, many towns are destitute of a preached gospel and church ileges; and in the Presbytery of Susquehanna, which spreads over an ensive country, among twenty-six congregations, which are widely scat- d, there are but ten ministers. Of twenty-nine congregations, which ng to the Presbytery of Erie, twenty-one are destitute of a stated minis- , and of thirty-three congregations which belong to the Presbytery of Lou- lle, more than half are in the same destitute condition. In the Presbytery Union, two or three times the present number of ministers are needed, upply the spiritual wants of that portion of our church. In the Presby- y of Grand River, which consists of twenty-nine congregations, there but twelve ministers. The Presbytery of West Tennessee, which spreads r a large tract of country, and embraces within its bounds a population of ,000 inhabitants, has only fourteen ministers belonging to it; and there ot a single licentiate within their bounds. The few missionaries who e passed through this region have been well received, and much solici- e is manifested by the people to obtain the labours of a zealous and en- tened ministry. That section of our church which is contained within bounds of the Presbyteries of Missouri and Mississippi, loudly calls for attention of the Christian public. The Presbytery of Missouri extends over a country nearly 300 miles square, and contains upwards of 120,(inhabitants: and much of it is still a moral waste. Thousands are cry for the bread of life; and there is reason to believe that many new churc might be formed, if there were a sufficient number of faithful and devo ministers. The Presbytery of Mississippi too, covers a vast extent of co try embracing the two states of Mississippi and Louisiana, the populatior which, must considerably exceed 200,000 souls. Though covering suc vast extent of country and embracing so large a population, only eight mir ters belong to it, and only four licentiates are under its care. Several tov of importance which are rapidly increasing in population and wealth, p sent most interesting stations for missionary labours. Among these, N Orleans deserves to be particularly mentioned, as presenting a field for ex tions truly astonishing for magnitude, interest, and difficulty. It conta 46,000 inhabitants, and is annually growing in resources of all kinds. T short ministry of Mr. Larned we have reason to believe was very usef and while we affectionately sympathise with the congregation in that ci on the loss of their late esteemed pastor, we offer our prayers to God, t he would speedily bestow on them another faithful pastor to supply place. The Presbytery of Georgia, which extends over more than half t state of Georgia, and consists of but eight ministers; and the Presbytery Concord, contain within their bounds, extensive tracts of country, where t ordinances and institutions of religion are hardly known.

In most of these destitute parts of our country, pernicious errors are as duously and successfully propagated; and in all of them gross immoralit abound. Removed from the benign influences of the gospel of Jesus, wi out its powerful restraints, destitute of Sabbaths and Sanctuaries, uncheck by the solemn admonitions, and uncheered by the glorious hopes of the g pel, multitudes there, live in sin, and die in impenitence. Seldom does t herald of salvation raise his inviting voice among them, and seldom do t sounds of prayer and praise ascend as grateful offerings to heaven. A these are our brethren; bone of our bones, and flesh of our flesh; many their fathers worshipped with our fathers in the same Sanctuary, and w many of them we have gone up to the house of God. Surely their clai upon our christian liberality are peculiarly strong: and we cannot suf their earnest requests that we would send them the word of life, to refused.

It is truly gratifying to learn, that a very earnest desire is felt, and laudable zeal shown, to obtain the gospel ministry in these destitute pa of our land. Many of the followers of Jesus offer up to him their ferve prayers, that he would send among them faithful labourers; and Sabba day schools, and Missionary, and Education societies, have been in so places established. In some instances, the destitute congregations pers vere in maintaining public worship; and there is an increasing attentio the means of grace. We have heard, too, with pleasure, that in many these destitute parts of our land, ministers have frequently gone forth company, two or three at a time, and preached, and visited, and God h greatly blessed their labours.

But, we turn to contemplate more pleasing subjects. It cannot but gratifying to the friends of the Redeemer's kingdom, to learn that with f exceptions, the statements which we have received from the different Pre byteries, represent the interests of religion to be on the increase.

Infidelity is scarcely any where openly professed. The churches are g nerally walking in peace. There is generally an increased attention to t public ordinances of worship; and many new congregations have been o ganized, and new churches erected throughout our country. Several of the ve been built in regions, where but a short time since was nothing but a ste wilderness, uninhabited by civilized man.

The monthly concert for prayer is generally observed. Bible classes and catechetical instruction of youth, are still continued with the most bene- ial effects. Baptized children with their parents, have in many instances n convened, and reminded of the solemn obligations imposed upon them, the baptismal covenant. Praying societies are very generally established. bbath-day schools are numerous and flourishing, and thousands of youth o probably would otherwise have grown up ignorant and vicious, have, means of these institutions, been instructed, and fitted to make useful mbers of society.

Liberal patronage has generally been extended to the various benevolent l pious institutions, which are established within our bounds, and many ssionary, and Education, and Bible Societies are flourishing. It has gi- n the Assembly unfeigned joy, to hear of the very flourishing condition, l the increasing prosperity of the American Bible Society. During the t year a considerable addition has been made, both to its funds, and to number of auxiliary societies connected with it. We offer our fervent yers that the blessing of the God of heaven may rest upon it. Several ieties for the education of poor and pious youth, who have the gospel istry in view, have been established during the past year; and the rches appear in some degree to be awaking to a sense of the importance this subject.

t is with pleasure that we notice the formation of several Missionary As- iations of young men. The Young Men's Missionary Society at Rich- nd, is entitled to particular notice. During the last year they have em- yed eight missionaries, and have expended in their support, about one usand dollars.

The students in the University of North Carolina, who are members of the lectic Society, have generously engaged to contribute $250, payable in years, towards endowing a professorship in the Theological Seminary at nceton. It deserves also to be mentioned, that several children in the nd of Ceylon and in other places, are clothed, and fed, and instructed by contributions of pious females, residing within our bounds.

rom the report of the Board of Missions, the Assembly are gratified to n, that the missionary concerns of our church, appear to be crowned with blessing of God. The number of missionaries is increasing, though by neans sufficiently to meet the growing demands of a rapidly increasing ulation. Our Seminary at Princeton, is yearly furnishing valuable mis- aries, whose labours are received with gratitude, and accompanied with lessing. Under these circumstances it is hoped that the churches will fail to take up annual contributions for the missionary fund, to the ap- ation of which the Presbyterian interest is so much indebted.

t is also gratifying to learn that God still blesses with the influences of Spirit several of our colleges. Hamilton College has about 100 stu- ts, a majority of whom are pious. Union College has about 240 stu- ts, and of these, about 70 are hopefully pious.

ut we have not only to rejoice in the general increase of the interests of gion, there are also special reasons for thankfulness. On many of our gregations, God has been pleased to pour out his Spirit, and to grant n times of revival and refreshing. The congregations of West Bloomfield, a, Avon, Groveland, Nunda, Richmond, Livonia, and especially Mount rris, in the Presbytery of Ontario—of Phelps, Lyons, and Junius 2d, in Presbytery of Geneva—of Otisco, Onondaga 1st and 2d, Pompey 2d and and Camillus in the Presbytery of Onondaga—of Winfield, Whitesborough, Mexico and New Haven, in the Presbytery of Oneida—of Coope town and Springfield, in the Presbytery of Otsego, while in Cherry Vall there has been a constant ingathering of the fruits of the late revival— Sacketts Harbour, Watertown, 1st and 2d society in Adams, Lorrain, a Rodman in the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, have been visited with the sp cial influences of the Holy Spirit. At the military post at Sacketts Harbo several of the private soldiery have been subjects of the work. In the Pre bytery of Champlain, revivals have been experienced in the congregations Plattsburg, Chazy, Champlain and Constable, and also in the congregati of Windham, in the Presbytery of Londonderry. Though the late power revivals do not continue in the Presbytery of Albany, yet their precio fruits remain. With very few exceptions the subjects of these revivals, co tinue steadfast in the faith, and attentive to the duties of religion.

In the Presbytery of Troy, the congregation of North Pittstown; in t Presbytery of North River, the congregation of Smithfield; and in the Pre bytery of Long Island, the congregations of Union Parish, Sagharbour, Ea hampton, Bridgehampton and Southampton have also been blessed wi revivals.

In the Presbytery of New York, the blessings of divine grace have exten ed to many congregations, and seem to be extending to others. The co gregations of the Brick Church, the Orange street Church, the Spring str Church, and the Church at Corlaer's Hook, have largely partaken of t blessed influences of the Holy Spirit.

In the congregations of Ramapo, Roxbury, Chatham, and Morristown the Presbytery of Jersey, and Gibson, and Silver Lake in the Presbytery Susquehanna, the Lord is making glorious displays of the power of his grac while in the last Presbytery, Westmoreland, Wilkesbarre, Wyalusing, King ton, Bridgewater, and Great Bend have been favoured with less powerf but very encouraging operations of divine grace.

Several of the Presbyteries in the Synod of Pittsburg, have been engag in special efforts for the revival of religion, and in several of the congreg tions of the Presbytery of Redstone, and some others, considerable religio excitements have prevailed, and very encouraging additions have been ma to the churches.

In the Presbytery of Philadelphia, a revival has been mercifully grant to the congregation of the first Presbyterian church, in the Northern Lib ties, and revivals have also been experienced in the congregations of Georges, Charlestown and Newcastle, and especially in the second chur of Wilmington, in the Presbytery of Newcastle.

A number of the congregations in the Presbytery of Portage, amo which, Talmadge, Windham, and Brownhelm are particularly named; a the first Presbyterian church of Richmond, in the Presbytery of Hanov have also shared in the blessings of these revivals.

In the Presbytery of Abingdon, though there has been no special reviv yet there have been, within the last year, larger additions than usual, to t communion of the church, especially in the united congregations of Mou Bethel and Providence.

The congregations of Eno and Little River, the church of Cross Roa of Buffaloe, and Allemance, of Oxford, and other churches of Granvi county, and of Hillsborough in the Presbytery of Orange, of Buffaloe in t Presbytery of Fayetteville; of Bethany, Back Creek, and Unity, in t Presbytery of Concord, have also been blessed with the reviving influenc of the Holy Spirit. In the congregations of the last named Presbytery, it believed, that nearly two hundred persons have experienced the renewi influences of the Spirit of God, and a large proportion of these are the ch en of pious parents, a number of whom are training up for the ministry of e gospel.

The same benign effects which have attended past revivals, have attended ese. Professing Christians have been awakened to zeal and devotedness the cause of Christ. And though the operations of the Holy Spirit, on the nds of sinners, have been diversified, yet, generally they have felt deep d pungent convictions of sin, accompanied with a sense of their undone ndition as transgressors of the divine law, and a discovery that salvation n be found only in Christ. Deep silence has prevailed in the religious semblies.

This blessed work has been confined to no particular age or sex, or class of ciety. Blooming youth and hoary age; the child seven years old, and the ner weighed down with the sins of three score years and ten, the infidel, e profane, and the mere moralist, have all been brought to a sense of their t condition; have been made to bow to the sceptre of the Prince of Life; ve sought salvation from his hands, as his free gift, and we trust, have found liverance to their souls, through his peace speaking blood.

Among the means which God, in his sovereign good pleasure, has blessed, the producing of these blessed effects, special prayer, on the part of his ople, deserves first to be mentioned. In many congregations, particular ys have been set apart for fasting and prayer. Concerts for prayer have en held by private Christians, and they have frequently met in religious cieties at the rising of the sun.

Pastoral visitation from house to house, and, also, visitations by private ristians, with personal conversation on the concerns of eternity, have been eatly blessed.

In the preaching of the word, the spirituality of God's law, and its tre- endous curse denounced on sin, have been explained and pressed on the nsciences of sinners; they have been warned of their inability to work out justifying righteousness of their own, and have been solemnly exhorted to mediate repentance and faith in Christ.

The fruits of these revivals have been exhibited in the moral reformation oduced in the lives of those who have been their subjects; and in an in- ease of the spirit of prayer, and of liberality, in the support of the gospel.

From the General Association ot Connecticut, we learn, that the churches that state, are not only gathering the fruits of the late extensive revivals, t, that the Lord is mercifully extending his work of grace to many other ngregations. A large proportiou of the members of the mission school, at rnwall, give good evidence of piety, and the establishment answers the ost sanguine expectations of its founders and friends. Arrangements are aking for the extension of the Theological department of Yale College, with peful prospects of success.

From the General Association of Massachusetts, we learn, that there is uch reason for thankfulness on account of the manifestations of the divine esence and blessing. There have been, in that part of our country, great vivals of religion in the county of Berkshire. More than 300 young men ve been assisted in obtaining an education, by the American Education ciety, since its commencement. A missionary spirit is much increased, d in Plymouth and Norfolk counties, a Palestine Missionary Society is tablished, which supports a missionary to the Holy Land. The Andover stitution still flourishes, and contains 132 students.

From the General Convention of Vermont, we learn, that the interests of e Redeemer's kingdom are greatly on the increase in that State. It is ue, the want of faithful pastors is felt. Of 171 churches, connected with the Convention, nearly half are vacant. Still the cause of religion is a vancing. Through the past year there have been great and powerful re vals in 50 towns, in each of which, from 15 to 200 persons have been recei ed into the churches. These revivals still continue, in many places. It supposed that about 2500 persons have joined the churches during the pa year. In Middlebury College there has been a revival among the studen and two-thirds of their number are hopefully pious. The spirit of missio is increasing in the state. Education societies, are also formed, and one these societies, in two years, afforded assistance to 40 young men.

We have heard, with pleasure, of the exertions which are made in ma of our cities, to promote the spiritual welfare of Seamen, and of the succe which has attended these exertions. Places of worship for mariners, a opened in several of our sea-port towns, and, both mariners themselves, a their families have received great benefit from attending the public ord nances of the gospel. The Assembly recommends to the ministers and mer bers of our churches, to encourage and promote these useful institutions.

The Theological Seminary at Princeton, continues to enjoy the smiles the great head of the church. A missionary spirit is diffused among the st dents, and a few have already devoted themselves to the labours and priv tions of a foreign mission. The churches are already enjoying the fruits this most important institution. The Theological Seminary at Auburn, u der the care of the Synod of Geneva, is flourishing; and efforts are al making, with encouraging prospects, to establish Theological Seminaries other parts of our country.

The Assembly sincerely congratulates the churches, under its care on th recent union which has been completed between the Presbyterian and th Associate Reformed Churches. We cannot but cherish the hope that th union will be productive of the most beneficial effects, and that the grea Head of the church will bless it to the promotion of the interests of his king dom.

On the whole, the review of the past year is calculated to awaken th most lively sensations of gratitude to the great Head of the church, for th blessings which he has bestowed upon it, and to excite us to more zeal an devotedness in his service. We rejoice in the spread of his gospel. H shall have dominion from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of th earth. Reviewing his mercies to his church in our land, we are constraine to offer to him our devout praises. Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Is rael, who only doeth wondrous things, and blessed be his glorious name foreve and let the whole earth be filled with his glory.—Amen and Amen.

These added to the whole umber, reported last year, make the library now to consist of 2,059 voumes, and 582 pamphlets. Among the donors of the last year, the Board eg leave, particularly to mention the widow of the late Rev. Dr. Robert indley, who has generously given 76 volumes; and also Mrs. Susan V. radford, who has given of the books bequeathed by her late father, Dr.

Boudinot, which books she had a right to retain during her life, 177 volum and 40 pamphlets.

On the subject of building, the Board have to report, that a contract h been made by the building committee for completing the whole of the internal part of the principal edifice. The sum which they have engaged pay for this work, is $1225. This sum is to be paid from the room-re fund. This work will probably be finished before the commencement of th ensuing session.

Out of the $3000 directed by the last General Assembly to be borrowe for the purpose, the debt of $2150 incurred in building the Professor's hous has been discharged. And the further sum of $495 77 has been expende out of the same loan, for digging a well, erecting a stable, enclosing the yar and some minor work on the premises connected with the Professor's hous

The last Assembly appropriated for the general purposes of the Institution, including the unexpended balance of the former year, the sum $4648 44.

This balance the Board have been unable to pay, for want of funds This subject, the Board beg leave respectfully to suggest, claims the mos serious attention of the General Assembly. The receipts into the contingent fund through the last year have not been near sufficient to meet the necessary expenses of the Institution.

The Board reported to the last Assembly that they had resolved to effec an insurance on the principal edifice, to secure it against loss by fire. They have now to report, that $15,000 has been insured for seven years, at the the office of the Eagle Insurance Company, New York, at a premium of 37½ cents per annum, on every $100.

Agreeably to the direction of the last Assembly, the Board applied to the Legislature of New Jersey at their sessions in November last, for an act of incorporation. The proposed act passed the Assembly, but did not pass the upper house, as the Board have understood for want of time duly to consider the subject. The Board at their late meeting have taken measures to renew the application at the next meeting of the Legislature.

The Board with pleasure inform the Assembly, that the first and third classes now in the Seminary, have each resolved to aid in founding a professorship of Oriental and Biblical literature. To effect this object, the Stunts of the first class have bound themselves to raise and pay, if practica- e, in five years, the sums which they have respectively subscribed, amount- g in the whole to about $7000. And the Students of the third class have, similar conditions, individually bound themselves in sums, amounting llectively to about $4000.

The Board would further report, that at their late meeting they received om the executors of the late Dr. Elias Boudinot, an extract from his last ill and Testament, from which it appears, that he has bequeathed to the minary the greater part of his library, and the sum of $5000 in money, er the decease of his daughter ; and that he has also devised a tract of out 4000 acres of land, lying in Luzerne county, Pennsylvania. In con- quence of this communication the Board passed the following resolu- n, viz:

“ Resolved, That it be recommended to the General Assembly to order, at whenever the sum of $5000, shall have been received from the Execu- s of the late Dr. Boudinot, two Scholarships shall be founded with said m, under the names of the Boudinot and Bradford Scholarships ; and that enever the requisite sum for the establishment of one or more Scholarship Scholarships, from the sale or profits of the land devised for the use of s Seminary be received, that the said Scholarship or Scholarships, shall be tablished under such names as Mrs. Susan V. Bradford shall suggest.”

The Board further report, that since the meeting of the last Assembly, the v. Ebenezer Grant, a Director of the Seminary, has departed this life. vo years of the term for which he was elected, yet remain. The Assem- y will of course elect a Director to supply his place.

The late Dr. Elias Boudinot bequeathed three brick houses in Philadelphia, to the Trustees of the General Assembly, "the rents, issues and profits of which, with that of such stock or other securities into which the said Trustees may choose in case of sale to vest them," to be laid out in useful books, and distributed as directed. One of said houses he sold, but forgot to make provision for it; it is therefore a lapsed legacy as to that house. The Treasurer of the Trustees was put into possession of the other two. They have been put into good order and let to reputable tenants; this account, so far as the bills have come in, is as follows, viz:

The business left unfinished yesterday afternoon was resumed, viz. the consideration of the following motion in the case of Newton Hawes' appeal from a decision of the Synod of Gennessee affirming a decision of the church of Warsaw, by which Mr. Hawes was suspended from the ordinances of the church, viz. that in relation to the petition of Newton Hawes, the Assembly order that the Synod of Gennessee be directed at their next session to hear and issue his complaint.

The consideration of this motion was postponed and the following resolution was submitted to the Assembly and adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the General Assembly having heard and considered in detail the circumstances and merits of the appeal of Newton Hawes are of the opinion that in the proceedings of the Synod of Gennessee in the case there appears to be nothing irregular or censurable until they come to their last decision, in which they pass a new and severe censure on the appellant. In this particular, the Assembly judge that the proceedings of the Synod were not regular, inasmuch as they inflicted a new censure, without a new and regular trial. Had the Synod contented themselves with approving the doings of the church of Warsaw, in declining to restore the appellant to their communion, and left him in the condition of a suspended member, they would have acted with entire regularity; but not pausing at this point, the Assembly consider them as acting on matters not regularly brought before them; and therefore resolved, that the sentence of the Synod, requiring the appellant to make a new and second confession, be reversed, and it is hereby reversed, and that the other part of their proceedings and decision be affirmed, and they are hereby affirmed.

The committee to which was referred the overture on the question, Whence does the General Assembly derive the authority to empower the Moderator of a church session to administer an oath? reported, and their report being read, was put on the docket.

Resolved, That the resolution before the Assembly (viz. that the report of the committee be adopted) be recommitted to the same committee with the addition of Drs. Caldwell and Robert Patterson, in the place of two of the committee who had obtained leave of absence, for the purpose of investigating the whole subject of the present claim of the Associate Reformed Synod of New-York,—that this committee invite the commissioner of the Synod to state, in writing, the grounds of their claim—and that the committee collect the facts in relation to this subject from members of the Presbyterian Church, who are acquainted with them and report the result of their inquiries to this Assembly.

The consideration of the motion on the complaint of the Presbytery of Carlisle, against a decision of the Synod of Philadelphia in the case of Mr. William S. M'Dowell, was resumed. The motion was, that the complaint be sustained. After some discussion this motion was postponed, and the following was adopted, viz.

The Assembly having heard the complaint of the Presbytery of Carlisle against the Synod of Philadelphia, in the case of William S. M'Dowell, with the facts and arguments offered both by the Presbytery and the Synod, judged that the Synod had a constitutional right to reverse the decision of the Presbytery in the case, either in whole or in part, as to them might seem proper. But that in the exercise of this right, the Synod have not duly regarded the principles of discipline prescribed in the constitution; inasmuch as it appears by their records, that they have removed all censure from a man whom they declare to be deserving of rebuke, without directing that rebuke to be administered, and without receiving any evidence of his penitence.

The further consideration of the Narrative of the State of Religion, was made the order of the day for Monday morning.

Mr. Aiken and Mr. Post obtained leave of absence during the remaining sessions of this Assembly, and Dr. Balch, Messrs. Van Dyke and Nixon, obtained leave of absence after Monday morning. Adjourned till 9 o'clock on Monday morning. Concluded with prayer.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of Philadelphia, reported, and the book was approved to page 100, except the decision in the case of Mr. William S. M'Dowell, recorded in page 88.

The consideration of the report of the committee to which was referred the report of the Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary, was resumed, and the report being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

1. That the report of the Board of Directors be adopted.
2. That an appropriation of four thousand five hundred dollars be made to meet the current expenses of the Seminary the ensuing year.
3. That the General Assembly respectfully decline for the present, to accept the act of incorporation of the legislature of New-Jersey, entitled "An act for incorporating Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church at Princeton, in the State of New-Jersey." And that the act be referred to the Board of Directors to procure, if practicable, a repeal of the last clause of the act.
4. That the Assembly highly approve of the suggestion in the Report of the Board of Directors, respecting the founding of scholarships by wealthy and liberal congregations, the said congregations vesting in their sessions the right of nominating the several incumbents on the funds thus created. And they recommend the attention of the churches to that part of the report of the Board of Directors.
5. That while the Assembly feel thankful to those liberal associations and individuals who have contributed to the Student's Fund; they regret to find that a number of associations which have given their aid in former years, have discontinued their exertions, in consequence of which, several students of promise have been obliged to withdraw from the Seminary, and others have been discouraged from entering.
6. Whereas the Board of Directors report that the contingent fund is entirely inadequate to meet the current expenses of the ensuing year, Resolved, that the directors be required to write to such congregations as they may think proper, and request that a collection be immediately taken up to assist in meeting the current expenses of the year.

7. Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Assembly be, and he is hereby authorized to borrow for the use of the Contingent Fund of the Theological Seminary, (if the same should be necessary) a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars, on the best terms on which he can effect said loan.

The following question was overtured, and being read was put on the docket, viz.

Is a Presbytery constitutionally censurable at the bar of the Synod for receiving under their care a congregation, which has been dismissed by the Presbytery to which it formerly belonged?

The memorial from the Associate Reformed Synod of New-York, claiming the library and funds that had been transferred by the late General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church to the Theological Seminary at Princeton, was with the leave of the Assembly, withdrawn by one of the commissioners who had presented it, stating that he took upon himself the responsibility of withdrawing it. The other commissioner had left the city several days previous. The memorial having been withdrawn, the following resolutions were adopted, viz.

Resolved, 1. That if any of the Presbyteries under the care of the Associate Reformed Synod of New-York, shall at any future time, send any of their candidates for the Gospel Ministry to our Theological Seminary at Princeton, they shall be received on the same terms as candidates from our own Presbyteries, and entitled to all privileges, both from the library and the funds of the institution, which are enjoyed by other students in the same personal circumstances.

Resolved 2. That Drs. Nott, Blatchford and Chester, be a committee to confer with the Associate Reformed Synod of New-York, or any committee which that Synod may appoint, on the subject of a friendly correspondence with this body, or of the amalgamation of their churches with the Presbyterian church in the United States; and that said committee report to the next Assembly any such measures for adoption as the conferring parties may judge best calculated to promote the spiritual welfare of these two Presbyterian denominations.

After these resolutions were adopted, Dr. Proudfit, the commissioner present, declared that he was much more pleased and gratified by the adoption of these resolutions than he would have been by the Assembly's granting the claims of the memorial in their whole extent.

Mr. Dicky resigned his seat to the Rev. James Arbuckle, the alternate mentioned in their commission, and Mr. Arbuckle took his seat as a member.

Mr. S. P. Williams was appointed a member of the judicial committee in the place of Mr. Van Dyke, who had obtained leave of absence.

Resolved, That Dr. Miller, Dr. Green, Dr. Alexander, Mr. M'Cartee and Dr. Janeway, be appointed a committee to inquire whether any, and if any, what measures ought to be adopted for the better conducting of the business of the General Assembly, and that this committee report to the next Assembly.

The Narrative of the state of religion was read by paragraphs and being amended was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

A NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION,

Within the bounds of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States.

The General Assembly find it, every year, more difficult to exhibit a just view of the state of religion within their bounds. The extension of their limits, the increasing number of their churches and communicants, the variety and importance of their religious institutions render this duty, at once pleasing and arduous. On these subjects, they do not judge it expedient to enter as much into detail as they have done on some former occasions; but they desire to furnish such a statement of the dispensations of Providence, towards the churches under their care, as shall impress their members with right views of their present state and obligations.

The Presbyterian Church, in the United States, embraces thirteen Synods, and more than seventy Presbyteries. One of these Presbyteries is in the eastern part of New-England; all the others lie on the west and south of that region, and stretch from Niagara and Champlain, in the state of New-York, to Missouri and Louisiana on the south west, a distance of more than 1500 miles. No inconsiderable part of the population spread over this extended region is dependent on the Presbyterian Church for the ordinary means of grace. From that church, to a considerable degree, they expect the preaching of the Gospel, and the administration of its ordinances; the patronage of literary and theological seminaries; the religious instruction of the young, and the encouragement and maintenance of charitable institutions. Could we command an adequate supply of labourers for the field which we are invited to occupy, the amount of effort and responsibility devolving on us, would be increasingly great; but an adequate supply of labourers does not exist. The provision which has been made, and is now making, for the religious wants that have awakened our solicitude, will be stated in its proper place. At present, we wish distinctly to announce the fact, that the means of religious instruction are inadequate, in a lamentable degree, to the demand for their employment. From documents which will appear in another form, it is clearly deducible that our population is rapidly gaining on the means of religious improvement. To illustrate this position, in regard to the preaching of the Gospel, the following facts may be stated. In the Presbytery of Niagara, there are thirty-one churches, and only seven ministers and licentiates. The Presbytery of Albany is among those which are best supplied with the ministry of the Gospel; but, in four counties within its bounds, more than 50,000 souls are represented as destitute of adequate means of grace. In the extensive states of Mississippi and Louisiana, there cannot be found more than eight or ten Presbyterian ministers, and very few of any other denomination. The whole territory of Michigan is yet missionary ground; while East and West Florida, with a numerous population, in a very interesting state, have no minister of our communion. In one city, with three or four thousand inhabitants, much anxiety is evinced to obtain a stated Protestant ministry.

These are some of the reasons for asserting that the means of grace are alarmingly inadequate to the exigencies of our population. To render this view more appalling, we are assured that the deficiency is increasing. New settlements, unfurnished with a Christian ministry, are forming in the west; while the demands of the east are not diminished. The wave of emigration rolls farther and farther onward; and, unless God interpose, by some special movements of his people, in their favour, it would, really, seem that our children are likely to settle on the shores of the Pacific Ocean, without the Christian religion.

Let us now contemplate some of the means which are employed for the cultivation of this vast field, and the particular aspects of providence towards it, during the past year. The stated and ordinary means of grace have been afforded as usual; and our ministers and elders, generally, appear to have been engaged with zeal and fidelity, in the various departments of their duty. The spirit of religious exertion is still active; and, in some instances, it has appeared in new and successful modes of operation. In addition to the efforts of Sabbath Schools, Catechetical Instruction, Bible Classes the Concert of Prayer, Bible Societies, Theological Seminaries Education and Missionary Associations, we are happy to learn that more than usual attention has been paid to the religious instruction of seamen; and, that, on many minds, the present condition o the Jews has made a distinct and affecting impression. While, on these subjects, it does not accord with the design of this narrative to descend to particulars; we do not hesitate to invite the attention of our churches to the reports respecting them, which are now before the public; and, particularly, to that of the Society for meliorating the condition of the Jews.

The Theological Seminary, at Princeton, has been unusually ful during the last year. At present, it numbers eighty-five students But the Board have still to detail the embarrassments under which it labours for want of funds.* The Theological Seminary at Auburn is yet in its incipient state, but is represented as rising in prosperity. Its number of students, at present, is thirteen.

The Board of Missions, acting under the direction of the Genera Assembly, have, as usual, made an interesting report. This Board have a few important auxiliaries in different remote sections of th country; and extracts from the journals of their missionaries show that their labours, in many instances, have been suddenly and extensively blest. The Board make an urgent appeal for more libera patronage in behalf of this ancient missionary institution. Ther are many other local societies within our bounds, aiming at th same grand object, among which the Assembly observe with pleasur the United Domestic Missionary Society of New-York.

The proceedings of this Assembly contain a distinct representation on the education of pious and indigent young men for the gospe ministry. We are happy to perceive that this important object i commanding more attention among our churches, and as evidence o this, we refer to the exertions of the various Education Societie with their auxiliaries; and those, in particular, of the Presbytery o Albany, which alone is represented as having expended about $120 for this object, during the past year.

* Will any of our congregations remain unmoved on this subject, when they learn from the Report of the directors, that promising young men are every year prevented from uniting with the Seminary, for the want of pecuniary means?

The United Foreign Missionary Society, though not confined to our denomination, commands, it is believed, throughout our churches, a good and increasing degree of favour. Hitherto, its labours have been confined to our western Indians, among whom it has now five stations with well organized education families. There should be but one sentiment among Christians on the duty of patronizing this noble institution. The directors have, nevertheless, to complain that their resources have been limited to an amount far short of their expenditures: and the Assembly would cordially unite with them in the hope, that the peculiarly imposing claims of this society, will not, much longer, suffer it to languish.

Having alluded to most of the means of religious improvement, enjoyed by our churches, it becomes us now to inquire, what has been the result? On this subject we should speak with great caution. But it is important to exhibit the spiritual state of the churches under our care. From the Presbyterial reports, it appears that the whole number of communicants belonging to our church has been much increased; but it cannot now be ascertained to what precise extent, as many of those reports are imperfect.* Admitting these additions to have been of such as shall be saved, it is of little importance to us, whether they have been gathered into the Christian community, by the gradual distillations of the Holy Spirit, or by that increase of his influences, which constitutes a revival of religion. Still there are many reasons for considering revivals of religion as peculiarly desirable; and the Assembly would disappoint the churches under their care, if they failed to designate those which appear to have been most remarkable. During the last year, the following congregations have been graciously visited, viz. In the Presbytery of Niagara, Fredonia. In the Presbytery of Gennessee, Sheldon, Orangeville and Warsaw. In the Presbytery of Rochester, Riga and Bergen. In the Presbytery of Geneva, Romulus. In the Presbytery of Bath, Naples and Putney. In the Presbytery of Cayuga, Sempronius and Groton. In the Presbytery of Onandaga, Granby. In the Presbytery of Oneida, Utica, Paris, Shenandoah, Herkimer and Little Falls. In the Presbytery of Otsego, Butternutt's and Bowman's Creek. In the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, the continuation of former revivals, in Brownville, Adams and Watertown. In the Presbytery of Champlain, notwithstanding many and great causes of mourning, they speak of a pleasing work of grace in the congregation of Mooers and West Port. It is gratifying to learn that this Presbytery has recently extended its limits by organizing a Presbyterian church in the city of Montreal. In the Presbytery of Londonderry, an extensive revival has taken place in the congregation of Chester. In the Presbytery of Albany, the congregations of Knox, Edinburgh, Kingsborough, Esperanse and Ballston. In the Presbytery of North River, South Salem. In the Presbytery of Long Island, Freshpond. In the Presbytery of New-

* According to a standing order of the General Assembly, the names of the ministers and churches, under their care, will be published next year; and it is hoped that all the Presbyteries, will be careful to send up their reports in the most perfect form.

York, the Rutgers-Street church has been blessed with a special revival; and in the city, generally, there is evidently an increase of the spirit of religion, as appears from the erection of several new churches, and an augmented number of communicants. In the Presbytery of Jersey, Newton, and New-Brunswick, the congregations of Rockaway, Hanover, Patterson, Chatham, Morristown, Baskingridge, Hacketstown, Pleasant Grove, Mansfield, Lamington, German Valley, and Boundbrook. In the Presbytery of Susquehanna, Pike, Silver Lake, Windsor and Athens. In the first Presbytery o Philadelphia, Doylestown, Neshaminy, Newtown, Deerfield and Kensington. These revivals, together with the good order and spirit o religious zeal which prevail in the city of Philadelphia, render this, a highly interesting part of our spiritual vineyard. In the Presbytery of Newcastle, an extensive work of grace seems to have commenced, and the congregations which have principally shared in it are, Fagg's Manor, Upper Octorara, Nottingham, Charleston, Pencador, St. George's, and Doe Run. The Presbytery of Carlisl must be added to this list; and in the interesting revival which has visited both the congregation and the college of Carlisle, we find a occasion for lively gratitude. In the Presbytery of Washington, Penn., Mill Creek and the Flats. In the Presbytery of Hartford, Newcastle, Slippery Rock, Long Run, New-Salem, Mount Pleasant, Hopewell and Nishanok. This revival has been greatly promote by Sabbath schools and a system of visitation by several ministers. In the Presbytery of Grand River, Warren and Geneva have experienced small revivals. In the Presbytery of Winchester, a numbe have been added to the church, in consequence of revivals at Fredericksburgh and Hartwood. In the Presbytery of Lexington, Lexington, New-Monmouth, Oxford, Timberridge, New Providence an Fairfield. In the Presbytery of Hanover, Petersburgh, Norfolk, Cumberland, Cubcreek and Briery. In the Presbytery of Abingdon three congregations. In the Presbytery of Orange, Eno, and Littl River. From the Presbytery of Georgia we have heard with peculiar emotions, not only of the wide and melancholy desolations whic spread around them, but of the reviving showers of divine grac which have descended upon some of their churches. A powerfu work of grace is said to have commenced in the congregation o Medway, and more than ordinary additions have been made to th churches of Augusta, Savannah, Darien and St. Mary's.

We have given a brief enumeration of the places which have bee favoured with the outpourings of the Spirit of God. These revivals bearing as they do, the marks of a genuine work of grace, must b regarded as among the most cheering dispensations of Divine Providence towards our churches during the last year.

We are happy to state that our friendly intercourse with th churches of Connecticut, Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire, continues to be cherished; and that from the annual report furnished by the delegates from those bodies, the impression is favourable in regard to the prevalence of truth and godliness in tha region. Their Colleges, and Theological Seminaries and Missionar institutions are flourishing; and many of their churches have been visited with revivals of religion.

The colleges of Hamilton, Dickinson, Jefferson, Alleghany, and North Carolina, have been represented as in a flourishing state. Many of them embrace a considerable proportion of pious students; nd, in all, it is believed, the cause of morality and religion is decidedly gaining ground. With regard to errors on the subject of religion, it would probably be correct to state that they are not making progress. Still it is deplorable, that in this age of light and revivals, so many teachers of false and destructive systems of religion should exist. They are chiefly to be found among our new and unprotected churches; and such a state of things, calls as well for he watchfulness of those churches, as the sympathies of more highly avoured Christians.

There is another truth which fidelity does not permit us to conceal. n many parts of our country, an unusual degree of opposition to the eligious charities which adorn the present age of the world, has een displayed. The manifestation of this spirit, should be conidered as furnishing an evidence of the power and progress of reigious exertion. It was not until the fire of God's altar was cast nto the earth, that there were voices and thunderings and an earthuake. Still such a state of things should be met by a growing pirit of prayer and circumspection, on the part of the friends of Zion. Calling into action the gentleness and firmness, the humility nd perseverance of the gospel, they shall not fail of success.

The events of the past year give strength to the impression that he church is rapidly approaching an important crisis. There is rief in our hearts, but it is not the grief of consternation. We mourn over our vast and increasing desolations. We lament the ukewarmness of many who profess to be the followers of a self-enying and zealous master. We deplore the false zeal of errorists, nd the fruitless hostility of inconsiderate men to the institutions of eligion. We find cause for humiliation in the fact, that revivals of eligion have not been as extensive, as those which on some former ccasions it has been our privilege to record. Whatever gloom may eem to hang over the church is intended for her admonition.

Every thing admonishes us, that what we do must be done quicky. During the past year, the names of M'Farquhar, Crawford, unter, Blair, Coe, Ogden, Wilson, Weir, Freeman, Hill, Bishop, mith, Blatchford,* have been added from among our number to the list of the worthy dead. While we cannot but feel the admonition, which their memory awakens, the church mourns their removal as a public calamity.

Trials were needful to awaken her to a just sense of her duty. We are imperiously called to demonstrate our faith in the Saviour of men, by our devotedness to his cause and to his glory. Shall we zealously support our Missionary, and Education, and Theological Institutions, assured, as we are, that they will eminently conduce to the prosperity and glory of the church, or shall we suffer them to languish and decline? Let every friend of Zion and of man make his election. We rejoice that the period has arrived when this question must be answered. In the confidence that many, very many, are prepared to act a consistent and faithful part; and cheered by the light which the zeal of Christians and the graces of the Holy Spirit, cast through every interposing cloud, we are prepared to announce, that there is no cause for despondency. Beyond all that is obscure and cheerless, a vision of blessedness, breaks upon our view. Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee, is the voice of the king of Zion to his church. And were the darkest of her seasons yet before her, she should still advance with a steady and increasing light, until her glory struggles into everlasting day.

Resolved, that Mr. Hoge and Dr. Neill be a committee to superintend the printing of the Narrative, and that 1500 copies be printed.

The judicial committee reported that they had before them an appeal of Mr. Benjamin Bell, and requested that they be discharged from any further consideration of this appeal inasmuch as Mr. Bell has presented no documents but his plea, and no notice of this appeal is to be found on the records of the Synod of Geneva, and their request was granted.

The judicial committee reported appeals from Messrs. Gwinn and Lowrey and they were put on the docket.

A communication from the American Colonization society proposing the appointment of a delegate from the Assembly to meet the Board of Managers of that society in the city of Washington the 1st Monday of June next, was read. After some discussion of the subject the Assembly adjourned till half past 3 o'clock, P. M. concluded with prayer.

Half past 3 o'clock, P. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

Messrs. Wilcox, Benedict and Pratt obtained leave of absence during the remaining sessions of this Assembly.

Resolved, that Dr. Ely, Rev. Timothy Alden and the Rev. John M. Duncan be a committee to confer with a committee from the General Synod of the Reformed German Church of North America, if such a committee should be appointed by that body, on the subject of a connexion by correspondence between the two churches, and to make a report to the next General Assembly.

The committee appointed to draft an answer to the following question, overtured from the Presbytery of Georgia, viz. "Whence do the General Assembly derive authority to empower the Moderator of a church session to administer an oath?" reported the following, which was adopted, viz. "An oath for confirmation, (saith the Apostle,) is to men, an end of all strife," Heb. vi. 16. It is a solemn affirmation, wherein we appeal to God, as the witness of the truth of what we say; and with an imprecation of his vengeance if what we affirm is false, or what we promise be not performed. Its force results from a belief that God will punish false swearing with more severity, than a simple lie, or breach of promise; because perjury is a sin of greater deliberation, and violates superior confidence.

That oaths are lawful is evident from the fact that our Lord when interrogated on certain occasions, answered upon oath. See Matt. xxvi. 63, 64. Paul also uses several expressions which contain the nature of an oath. See Rom. i. 9. ix. 1. 1 Cor. xv. 31. 2 Cor. i. 18. Gal. i. 20. They are solemn appeals to God. It is manifest that oaths are not to be used on light or trivial occasions. We are expressly commanded not to take God's name in vain. But as the Bible does not point out the particular occasions when oaths are to be used; nor the persons who are to administer them, these circumstances are left to the discretion of individuals and communities. The necessity of oaths is founded in expediency; and all associations whether civil or ecclesiastical, have a right to use them for confirmation, when, in the exercise of a sound discretion, they are deemed important. It is lawful for every community, in the compact on which their union is founded, to point out the cases in which oaths shall be used, and who shall administer them. The authority of Moderators in the Presbyterian church to administer oaths, is not derived from the General Assembly, but from the constitution, or articles of compact, which our churches have adopted, and by which they have agreed to be governed as a Christian community. It may be proper also to add, that the oaths prescribed by ecclesiastical authority and administered by civil authority, they in no respect interfere with our relations to civil society. Nor can the administering of them if rightly viewed, be considered as a violation of those laws of the state, which prescribe the manner in which civil oaths shall be administered.

The consideration of the subject of appointing a delegate to meet the Board of Managers of the Colonization Society was resumed, and after some discussion, was postponed, and Dr. Richards, Mr. Fisher and Mr. Lewis were appointed a committee to consider the subject and report to the Assembly measures proper to be adopted by them to aid and encourage the important designs of the Colonization Society.

The report of the committee on psalmody was called up, and the same committee was continued, with the addition of Dr. Chester (in the place of Dr. M'Auley who had resigned) and Rev. James Laurie, D. D.

The report of the committee on the records of the Synod of Gennessee was called up and adopted, and the book was approved to page 29, except the minutes in the case of Newton Hawes recorded page 23, on which case this Assembly made a decision.

Mr. Henry Miller obtained leave of absence during the remaining sessions of this Assembly. Adjourned till 9 o'clock to morrow morning. Concluded with prayer.

May 27, 9 o'clock, A. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee, to which had been referred the Synodical and Presbyterial reports reported, and their report being read, it was directed that the Stated Clerk transcribe it into the Compendious View; and it was agreed that the following part be entered on the minutes, viz.

From the Compendious View it appears that at the present time there are under the care of this Assembly 12 Synods and 71 Presbyteries. Reports for the last year have been received from 7 Synods and 51 Presbyteries. 51 Presbyteries have reported on the number of communicants added during the year; on the whole number of communicants and on the baptism of adults and of infants. On collections for Presbyteries, 8 have reported; 33 have reported on the education fund, 40 on the missionary fund, 49 on the commissioners' fund and 14 on the Theological Seminary. From the reports that have been received, the whole number of congregations under the care of this Assembly does not appear; as only 1177, certainly much below the real number, have been reported. Of these 578 have reported on the number of communicants added last year, 679 have reported on the whole number of communicants, 410 have reported on the baptism of adults, and 602 on the number of infants baptized. It is therefore manifest that the Compendious View affords a very imperfect exhibition of the state of the Presbyterian Church, either as to ministers, churches, communicants, baptisms or contributions. Twenty Presbyteries have made no report on any subject. The smallest number of congregations that have reported on any subject is 8, while the largest number is only 679, little more than half the number of congregations that have been reported, and certainly less than half the whole number under the care of the General Assembly.

The undersigned Commissioners, appointed by the last General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church to settle all accounts belonging to the same, and to transfer the library and such funds as may be found in the hands of the Treasurer, after defraying all just claims, to the Theological Seminary at Princeton, reported, and their report was read, and is as follows, viz.

That they had fulfilled their appointment, and that on the 27th of May 1822, the library was delivered by them to the commissioners appointed by the Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary at Princeton—that the amount of funds received from the sale of stocks transferred by the Treasurer of the Theological Seminary of the Associate Reformed Church was eight hundred and forty-nine dollars and eighty cents—and the claims which have been allowed and paid amounted to six hundred and eighty four dollars and six cents, as per statement and vouchers below, and the balance being one hundred and sixty-five dollars, seventy-four cents has been paid over to the Theological Seminary at Princeton, as per receipt accompanying this. There has been transferred one hundred and fifty dollars in the stock of the Manhattan company of the city of New-York to the name of Dr. Ashbel Green, and there remains to be transferred one hundred and twenty five dollars in the stock of Schuylkill Bridge company, which now stands in the name of James R. Smith, the former Treasurer of the Theological Seminary of the Associate Reformed Church together with sixty-two dollars and fifty cents due as dividends on the same. This last will be transferred to the Trustees of the General Assembly as soon as practicable.

The above report was committed to Mr. Rodgers and Mr. Platt to examine the statement and vouchers and report to the Assembly the result of the examination.

It being the order of the day for this morning the appeal of Mr. Andrew Gwinn from a decision of the Synod of Pittsburgh was taken up, and Dr. Ely, at the request of Mr. Gwinn, was appointed his counsel. The documents in the case were read and Dr. Ely was heard for some time. Adjourned till 4 o'clock, P. M. concluded with prayer.

Four o'clock, P. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee, to which had been referred the report of the commissioners appointed by the last General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church reported, that they had examined the statement of accounts and vouchers, and had found them correct, and their report was adopted.

Resolved, that this statement of accounts be put into the hands of the Trustees of the Assembly, that they may act upon them, and take charge of the funds.

The business left unfinished in the morning was resumed, viz. the consideration of the appeal of Mr. Gwinn from a decision of the Synod of Pittsburgh affirming a decision of the Presbytery of Ohio, by which decision Mr. Gwinn was suspended from the Gospel Ministry. The commissioners from the Synod and Dr. Ely, the counsel of the appellant, were heard till they were satisfied. The members having been called in the order of the roll to express their sentiments on the subject, the Assembly adjourned till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. Concluded with prayer.

May 28, 9 o'clock, A. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

Messrs. Bracken and Anderson obtained leave of absence during the remaining sessions of this Assembly, and Messrs. Elias B. Caldwell, Steele, Bradish and Buel obtained leave to be absent after to-morrow morning.

The consideration of Mr. Gwinn's appeal from the decision of the Synod of Pittsburgh was resumed; and after considerable discussion the following decision in the case was adopted.

The Assembly, having carefully heard and considered the appeal of Mr.

Andrew Gwinn from a decision of the Synod of Pittsburgh affirming the judgment of the Presbytery of Ohio, adopted the following resolution, viz. That whereas, in the judgment of this Assembly, it does not appear that the new testimony offered by Mr. Gwinn has in any important point changed the aspect of his case: therefore resolved, that the decision of the Synod in his case be affirmed.

The following recommendation of a day of thanksgiving, humiliation, and prayer, was adopted, viz.

Whereas the dispensations of Divine Providence toward our country, and especially toward the church under the care of the General Assembly, have been, during the past year, of a mixed character, calling, at once, for lively gratitude and for deep humiliation; the Assembly would respectfully call the churches of their communion to public and solemn exercises of a corresponding character.

They would, therefore, earnestly and affectionately recommend to all the churches under their care, to set apart the first Thursday of November next, as a day of thanksgiving, humiliation and prayer—to abstain on that day from all labours and recreations—to assemble in their respective places of worship—to offer their united and fervent thanksgiving to the God of all grace, for his many mercies to our country, and to our beloved Zion, in the course of the year; and to pray, that the Holy Spirit may be poured out upon our churches, and upon all the churches of Christ in our land and throughout the world; that religion may be every where revived; that the progress of error may be arrested; that every thing unfriendly to the reign of righteousness may be destroyed; that Christians of all denominations may be more and more united in affection and effort; that the Missionary cause and the cause of Bible Societies, may be extended and made to triumph in every part of the world; that wars may cease to the ends of the earth; and that the glory of the latter day may be hastened.

Resolved, That the above recommendation of a day of thanksgiving, &c. be printed with the Narrative on the State of Religion.

A nomination was made of persons to be appointed delegates to attend the next meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church; and the election was made the order of the day for this afternoon.

Dr. Green presented to the Assembly a number of copies of a pamphlet containing the conditions on which subscriptions are to be made to the Widows' Fund, and it was agreed that they be distributed amongst the members.

The report of the committee on the communication from the secretary of the United Foreign Missionary Society, was taken up, and being read was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

Resolved, That this Assembly deem it a duty and privilege to make very special exertions for the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom in Pagan lands.

Resolved, That this Assembly very gratefully acknowledge the smiles of a kind Providence, upon the operations of the United Foreign Missionary Society hitherto, and cherish the hope that this union in benevolent exertions, will strengthen the bonds by which the different ecclesiastical bodies composing this society are united.

Resolved, That the congregations within our limits be requested to increase their exertions in aid of the funds of this society, either by annual contributions, or by forming and by rendering more efficient auxiliary societies, or by collections at the Monthly Concert, or in any other method which by them may be deemed expedient.

Resolved, That it is highly important and necessary, that this society should have an official organ of communication to the public, which shall be considered as the property of the society, and as primarily devoted to its interests; and as the American Missionary Register, printed in New-York, and edited by the Secretary of this society, has become this acknowledged organ, it is further resolved, that the Register be recommended to the patronage of the congregations under the care of the Assembly, as the means of increasing the funds of the society, while it spreads necessary and important information.

The judicial committee reported an appeal from Mr. Samuel Lowrey from a decision of the Synod of Ohio. The papers on the subject being read, a motion was made and seconded, that the appeal be sustained. After some discussion, the subject was committed to Dr. Janeway and Mr. Phillips.

The following question was overtured, viz. "Is a Presbytery constitutionally censurable at the bar of a Synod, for receiving under their care a congregation which has been dismissed by the Presbytery to which it formerly belonged?" After some consideration of this overture, the Assembly adjourned till 4 o'clock, P. M. Concluded with prayer.

Four o'clock, P. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

The following resolution was adopted as an answer to the question which was under discussion when the Assembly adjourned in the morning, viz.

Resolved, That it is unconstitutional for a Presbytery to dismiss a congregation under their care, and for any other Presbytery to receive the congregation so dismissed without the approbation of the Synod to which such Presbyteries respectively belong.

The committee to which was referred the motion on the appeal of Mr. Lowrey reported, and their report being read was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

Mr. Lowrey's appeal from the decision of the Synod of Ohio being taken up, and the sentence appealed from, having been read, together with the reasons of his appeal, it appeared on inquiry, that neither the records of the Synod of Ohio, nor the records of the Presbytery of Miami were brought to the Assembly; but as the delegates belonging to that Synod admitted it to be a fact as stated in Mr. Lowrey's appeal, that the Presbytery of Miami did appoint a special session composed of elders belonging to different congregations, for the purpose of trying Mr. Lowrey, and that the decision of such a special session was affirmed by the Synod of Ohio; therefore, resolved, that the appeal of Mr. Lowrey be sustained, and it is hereby sustained, and that all the proceedings in the case be, and they hereby are reversed on the ground that the appointment of such a special session is entirely unconstitutional; and if Mr. Lowrey has done any thing offensive, he ought to be tried by the courts that have been instituted by the constitution of our church.

It being the order of the day for this afternoon, the election was held for delegates to attend the next meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church. The ballots being taken were committed to Mr. Parmelee and Mr. Rodgers to count the votes and report to the Assembly.

This committee reported, and their report being read, the Rev. William Neill, D. D. and Mr. Zechariah Lewis were declared duly chosen delegates to attend the next meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, and Rev. James Richards, D. D. and Mr Gurdon Corning were appointed their alternates.

Resolved, That delegates to the Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church be allowed the same for their travelling expenses and attendance which s allowed to the delegates to the other ecclesiastical bodies connected with this Assembly.

Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Patton were added to the committee on the petition of Mr. Bourne, in the place of members of the committee who had obtained leave of absence.

Dr. Alexander and Mr. Symmes C. Henry, were appointed a committee to dispose of the interest of money in the hands of the Trustees of Prince-ton College subject to the disposal of this Assembly.

Drs. Miller, Green, and Alexander, were appointed a committee with full powers to employ suitable persons as agents to solicit contributions for the Contingent Fund of the Theological Seminary, to prescribe their routes, give them instructions, and do whatsoever else in their judgment be necessary, to ensure success to a measure so important.

The appeal of Mr. Craighead from a decision of the Synod of Kentucky was taken up, and being read, it appeared on inquiry that the Synod of Kentucky was not ready for trial, because Mr. Craighead had failed to give them notice that he intended to avail himself of the privilege granted by he last Assembly, by prosecuting his appeal; therefore, resolved, that the urther consideration of this appeal be postponed, and that Mr. Craighead be informed, that if he wishes to prosecute his appeal before the next Gene-al Assembly, he must give notice of his intention to the Synod of Kentucky. Resolved, that the Synod of Kentucky and the Presbytery of Transylvania, be directed, and they hereby are directed, to send up to the next Assembly a copy of their minutes in Mr. Craighead's case.

The committee to which was referred the communication from the Board of Managers of the American Colonization Society, reported, and heir report being read, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

That the members of this society are zealously and successfully prosecuting the noble object for which they were associated; that they have already planted, at Cape Montserado, a healthy spot on the western coast f Africa, a colony consisting of about one hundred and thirty free perons of colour: and that they have a fair prospect of speedily increasing he colony, and placing it in a safe and advantageous condition, should he friends of humanity and of religion come forward and give it their prompt and cordial support. Believing that the cause of suffering Africa is deeply involved in the success of this society, and that important benefit would result to our own country from conveying to the land of their athers, such of our free people of colour as are willing and prepared to go, your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That the Assembly still cherish toward the objects and abours of this society, the same sentiments of high and honourable regard which they expressed on a former occasion.

2. Resolved, That from the facts laid before the Assembly, they are of opinion that the operations of this society have reached a crisis which oudly demands the attention of the pious and benevolent, and which, if properly regarded, may speedily open the way for relieving the miseries of Africa, by introducing into that oppressed and degraded country, the blessings of civilization and religion.

3. Resolved, That the Assembly cheerfully and earnestly recommend o the individuals and churches under their care, to favour the object and ustain the efforts of the Colonization Society, in such way as to them may be found most practicable and convenient.

The committee to which was referred the petition of Mr. Bourne reorted, and their report being read, was accepted. Whereupon it was reolved, that as it appears to be a fact that Mr. Bourne has not submitted o the judgment of the Assembly in affirming a decision by which he was eposed from the Gospel Ministry, he be permitted to withdraw his peition.

Mr. Coulter and Mr. M‘Farland obtained leave of absence during the emaining sessions of this Assembly.

Resolved, That all the Presbyteries under the care of this Assembly be, nd they hereby are required, as soon as possible, after their several sesions immediately preceding the meeting of the Assembly, to send up to the orresponding secretary of the Board of Education under the care of the Assembly, a report, stating what monies they have collected for the educaion of poor and pious youth in their bounds; and what candidates or students they have on their charitable funds.

Resolved also, That when any Presbytery has no beneficiary on their unds, they be, and they hereby are required to remit their funds to the Treasurer of said Board of Education, that the same may be appropriated according to the constitution of the Board.

Resolved, That the Board of Education be, and they hereby are required to report annually a summary of what has been done in the business of education by the Presbyteries as well as the auxiliary societies, and that hereafter the Assembly will act on the report of the Board of Education and not require the Presbyteries to report immediately to the Assembly.

Resolved, That the Assembly will every year inquire whether the Presbyteries have reported on this subject to the Board of Education.

Resolved, That the usual number of copies of the Printed Minutes be presented to the several Ecclesiastical Bodies connected with this Assembly, and also a proportionate number to the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, with which a correspondence has been formed at the present sessions. Adjourned till half past 8 o'clock to-morrow morning. Concluded with prayer.

May 29, A. M. the Assembly met and was constituted by prayer.

The report of the committee to which the reports of the Presbyteries on the subject of educating poor and pious youth had been referred, was taken up and referred to the Board of Education.

Mr. Horace Hill, in the Synod of Geneva, was chosen in the place of Col. John Linklaen, deceased, and the fourth part of the members of the Board of Education, whose terms, by the constitution of the Board, expire this year, was re-elected.

The committee appointed on the subject of obtaining more full and accurate reports from the Presbyteries, reported, and their report being read, was adopted, viz: Resolved, That the stated clerk of the Assembly be directed to address a printed circular to the Moderator or some other member of each Presbytery, calling their attention to the orders of the Assembly on the subject of Presbyterial reports, and pointing out the deficiences which have occurred in this part of official duty; at the same time urging the Presbyteries to adopt such measures as may secure full and accurate reports to the Assembly; especially as a list of the names of the ministers and congregations and the number of communicants are to be published the ensuing year. If no safe private opportunity presents, the Assembly recommend that reports be forwarded by mail.

The roll having been called, agreeably to a standing rule on the subject, it was resolved that none of the members be reported to the Presbyteries as having left the Assembly without leave.

Resolved, That this Assembly be dissolved, and that another Assembly chosen in the same manner, be required to meet in the First Presbyterian Church in this city, on the third Thursday in May, 1824, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Concluded with prayer.

Shortly after the last Assembly rose, this library, together ith the valuable cases in which it was contained, were delivered by a com-ittee of the late Associate Reformed Synod, to a committee of the Board of irectors. The books and cases were received into the Seminary in the onth of June last. On this subject, the librarian in his report to the Board emarks, "The number of volumes is between 2400 and 2500. They are, ith some exceptions, in very good condition as to binding, &c. generally xcellent editions, and making altogether a collection equally rare and aluable, and fully answering, it is believed, any expectations that may ave been formed respecting it." The whole library now consists of about ,500 volumes, and nearly 600 pamphlets.

On the subject of building, the Board have to report, that through the ear past the two upper entries in the principal edifice have been com-leted, so far as regards the mason's and carpenter's work, and such painting as is needed has been directed. The expense for the work done has een paid from the room rent fund. Some work has also been done on the rofessor's house and its premises.

The last Assembly appropriated for the general purposes of the Institution, including the unexpended balance of the former year, the sum o $5430 23.

The expenditures have been as follows, viz.

One quarter's salary due two of the Professors on the last year,	$950 00
Salaries of the three Professors during the year which has now closed,	4200 00
Boxing the books of the Library of the Theological Seminary of the Associate Reformed Synod, and removing them and the book cases from New-York to Princeton,	85 70
Secretary's account for services, stationary, postage, and printing circulars,	31 30
Printing the last annual report,	17 50
Travelling expenses of one Director,	20 00
Treasurer's account for postage,	1 40
Treasurer's commissions on the above, at 1 per cent.	53 05
	$ 5358 95
Leaving of the appropriation of the last Assembly, unexpended	$ 71 27

Agreeably to the order of the last Assembly, the Board addressed a cir cular letter to a number of congregations, requesting a collection to reliev the Contingent Fund from the embarrassment reported in the last annua report of the Board. In consequence of this request, a number of congregations made collections, and transmitted them to the Treasurer of th General Assembly.

At the late sessions of the Legislature of New Jersey, the application fo an act of incorporation was renewed.—An act has passed that body, whic act the Board beg leave, herewith to lay before the Assembly for thei consideration.

The Board have the pleasure to inform the Assembly, that a Scholarshi in the Theological Seminary has lately been founded, by Mr. Willia Scott, a member of the First Presbyterian Congregation, in Elizabethtown, New Jersey.

The principles on which this generous endowment has been made, th Board beg leave to report to the Assembly, in the words of the writte communication of Mr. Scott.—"The terms on which I found a Scholarship are the following: I retain in my own hands the right of nominatin the scholar as long as I live, and, if I leave a widow, she is to have th same right during her life; and after her decease, the right is to be vested forever, in the session of the First Presbyterian Church, Elizabethtown."

The Board would here respectfully suggest to the Assembly, whether there are not some wealthy and liberal congregations, who would be willing to endow scholarships in the Seminary, vesting in their own sessions the right of nominating the students who from time to time shall receive the benefit of the funds thus created. The raising of sufficient funds for the support of indigent theological students, is an exceedingly important object. Much has been done in years past by the liberality of Female Societies, and the Board fondly hope that these salutary streams of benevolence will continue to flow; but these associations cannot be relied on as affording a permanent aid. Already many have been discontinued, and many promising students cannot receive the important benefits of our Seminary for want of the means of support.

The report of the Professors made to the Board at their meeting the last week, contains, on this subject, the following paragraph, to which the Board beg leave to call the attention of the Assembly.—"Several of the students have been obliged to withdraw from the Seminary, and apply themselves teaching, as a means of support. The Professors fear that other stu- ents, who have been hitherto able to pursue their studies with tolerable mfort, will be obliged, on account of the failure of their funds, to resort the same means. The funds for the aid of indigent students, in the nds of the Professors, are almost entirely exhausted And, in conse- ence of this, they have been under the painful necessity of returning unfavourable answer to a number of applications for aid, which have en presented by young men of hopeful piety and promising talents, and ho are likely, on this account, to be prevented from entering our Semi- ry." The facts in the above paragraph, the Board would remark, loud- call upon the friends of the Seminary and the friends of religion, to ake to renewed exertion to provide the means of support for indigent udents, who may desire to receive the benefit of the instructions of the heological Seminary.

The Board beg leave also to state to the Assembly, that the Contin- nt Fund, they understand, will be entirely inadequate to meet the cur- nt expenses of the Institution for the ensuing year; and that it will be cessary the Assembly should devise some measures to replenish this nd.

The Board would further report, that at their meeting last week, they ade some alterations in the plan of boarding the students. These al- rations will be best understood by the following extracts from the mi- tes.

"Resolved, That for the year ensuing the commencement of the next ll session of the Seminary, the steward be, and hereby is proffered the e of the rooms which he now occupies in the Seminary, and of the gar- en, free of rent, and that he be authorized to board such students as may oose to board with him, at such rate per week as may be mutually reed upon by him and them; provided the said rate be not more than o dollars per week.

Resolved, That for the year ensuing from the same time, any student the Seminary be, and he hereby is allowed to board either with the eward or with any other family in Princeton, which may be deemed itable by the Professors of the Seminary.

Resolved, That each student be, and he hereby is required to lodge and udy in the Seminary, according to the regulations of this Board hereto- re adopted.

Resolved, That for the ensuing session the students shall not be com- elled to board in the Refectory, when, in the opinion of the Faculty, eir pecuniary necessities are urgent, and they can obtain relief by board- g out of the Refectory."

Signed by order of the Board,

ASHBEL GREEN, President.

OHN M'DOWELL, Secretary.

REPORT

Of the Board of Education, established by the General Assembly;

For May, 1823.

Since the organization of this Board, in May 1819, it has received a lonation of fifty dollars from the Philadelphia Education Society; and of leven dollars eighteen cents from the Education Society of South Salem, West Chester county, New-York. These small sums constitute the whole und which has ever been at the disposal of the Board; so that it has been itherto impossible to assist any Presbyteries or Auxiliary Societies in any ther way than by the publication of an Address to the Presbyterian Church, which was widely diffused in 1819, and has contributed, as we rust, in some degree, to produce the general excitement now experienced n this subject.

It is with pleasure that we reflect, that the General Assembly was the irst ecclesiastical body in this country which paid any efficient attention o the important duty of educating, at the expense of the church, poor and ious youth of promising talents, who wish to devote themselves to the ninistry of reconciliation. It is with unfeigned gratitude to the Head of he church, that we remember what has been done since the first overture written by our venerable father, the Rev. Dr. Green) was sent down to he Presbyteries in 1805, but still we realize that much more remains to e done; and our prayer to God is, that every portion of the Presbyterian hurch may awake to the noble enterprize of supplying the world with able nd faithful preachers of the truth as it is in Jesus.

We should view it as an omen for good, if all our Presbyteries were careul to obey the injunctions of the General Assembly to report annually, in vriting, what they have done in this business, what funds they have raised, ow many they have assisted, through what channels their beneficence has lowed, or, if that should be the case, why they have done nothing.

This year no reports have been received from the Presbyteries of Northumberland, Grand River, West Lexington, Transylvania, Muhlenurgh, Athens, Richland, Union, West Tennessee, Shiloh, Missouri, Fayetteville, Concord, Alabama, Harmony and Hopewell. No doubt exists, however, but that more han 7000 dollars have been both raised and expended in our Presbyteries uring the last year on promising, pious, indigent youth, who will hereafer become blessings to the church of God.

The Board of Education has the pleasure of announcing the names of wo powerful Auxiliaries; the one of which is styled the Philadelphia, nd the other the Presbyterian Education Society. Each of these embraces number of auxiliaries to itself, all engaged in the same good work.

The Philadelphia Education Society, auxiliary to this Board, report, hat since their organization in December 1818, they have assisted forty-our beneficiaries. Several of these have been wholly dependent from he commencement of their academical studies, and have been furnished ith clothing, board and tuition while preparing for college, while in colege, and while engaged in theological researches, but the greater part of hem have, by their friends' and their own exertions, been carried through he largest portion of their course. Persons of this last description the maagers design specially to regard in future, because it seems reasonable to elp those who have made all proper efforts to help themselves, and because t is more safe to calculate on the future usefulness of these students, than n any young men, however promising for piety and talents, whose powrs of acquiring knowledge, and whose Christian experience have not been o well tested. This society feels especially desirous of aiding theological students, who have already obtained a good classical education, and who, in a few years, may be expected, by their active labours, to bring much gain to the benevolent associations of our day, and to the church, in her need. Several of this description in the Assembly's Seminary at Princeton, who must desert their proper studies for a time to earn food and clothing, or receive assistance from pious donations, are well known to the managers, and they would most gladly take them under their patronage if their funds were adequate. They refer it to the Christian public to decide, whether, in future, they may cherish hopes of more extended usefulness, or must withhold assistance from such promising youth.

The beneficiaries of the Philadelphia Education Society have been selected from New-England and Kentucky, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania and the Carolinas; in short, from the north and south, from the east and west, without any predilection for one part of our country above another: they have been educated in different academies and colleges, as was most convenient to the pupils and their relatives, and the managers hope, therefore, that their resources will not be confined to one small circle, to the vicinity of Philadelphia.

"The operations of the year have ft them in debt about fifty dollars. The case of this committee is ne of peculiar interest. Providence has thrown in their way a number f promising young men, who have an ardent desire to become preachers f the gospel, and who are willing to submit to any course, however self- enying, to accomplish their object. But the committee, with all their xertions, are unable to meet the necessities of these youth. At best, they an do but little for them, hardly enough to keep them from sinking into tter despondency."

Their receipt and expenditures amounted last year to $ 819 75.

20. The Rochester Education Society, of which Josiah Bissel Jun. is President, Fredrick F. Backus, Vice-President, Rev. J. F. Penny, Corresponding Secretary, J. A. Cathcart, Treasurer, and Moses Chapin, Recording Secretary. "During the year past the female contributors to this Society have formed themselves into an auxiliary Branch. Their cash fund amount to $35," and it is expected that they will provide future beneficiaries with necessary articles of clothing and bedding.

21. The Education Society of Grand River, of which Ephraim T. Woodruff is President; and Joseph Curtis, Secretary.

The Presbyterian Education Society has purchased the Academy at Bloomfield, N. J. which is occupied by the Rev. Dr. Armstrong, and in which there are usually ten or twelve pious young men, in a course of preparation for the gospel ministry. For the rent of this Academy the Society received last year $ 400, and from other resources $ 551 27. It is estimated that the Society and its branches has received and expended last year not less than $ 5000.

Of this Society the following persons have become members for life, viz. William Wallace. Esq. by paying $ 100; Hon. Elias Boudinot, Col. Richard Varick and M. Allen, Esq. by paying each $ 50: Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, Messrs. Thomas Fitch, Joseph H. Dulles, Joseph Montgomery, John Hanson, Nicodemus Lloyd, Thomas B. Darrach, Jonathan Little, Hon. B. Livingston, and Mrs. Mary Ann Bunce, by paying each $ 30; Miss Julia Lynch by paying $ 25; and each of the following persons by paying $20,—to wit, Hon. Elisha Boudinot, Theodore Frelinghuysen, Esq. Rev. Dr. Griffin, Rev. Cyrus Gildersleeve, Rev. Burr Baldwin, Messrs.

n Adams, Joseph Congar, James Brener, William Tuttle, Moses
th, Rensselaer Havens, Robert Oliver, Alexander Fridge, John Milles, ah Taylor, Jesse Scofield, Benjamin Strong, Zechariah Lewis, Peter
ves, Anson G. Phelps, Joel Post, Samuel Baldwin, John Morrison, hur Tappan, Rev. Thomas Jackson, Mrs. Burr Baldwin, Mrs. Abigail dit, Miss E. Ivers, Miss Boquet Ivers, Mrs. Jane B. Patten, Miss Mary ten, Miss Frances Davenport, and Rev. Jacob Tuttle. The Rev. Dr.
hards was constituted a member for life by the ladies of the First Pres-erian church in Newark; the Rev. Dr. Griffin, by the ladies of the ond Presbyterian church in Newark; the Rev. William M'Dowell by ladies of Morristown; the Rev. Aaron Condit by the Association of nover; the Rev. Alexander G. Fraser by the Associations of Westfield; Rev. Stephen Thompson by the Female Charitable Society of Connecit Farms; and the Rev. Philip M. Whelpley by four ladies of Wall-eet church, N. Y.

n concluding their report the Managers of the Presbyterian Education iety remark, "that the present aspect of this institution is, in a high ree, encouraging. Scarcely five years have elapsed since the Society nmenced its operations,—and yet, such has been its increasing pros-ity, that notwithstanding the depressed state of the country, and em-rassments arising from other causes, it has seen under its patronage the t year, one hundred young men, in different grades of improvement, ssing forward in their preparations for the work of the gospel ministry."
is is indeed an animating sight, and the Board hope that many will be used to activity in the good work of training up labourers for Christ, finding so many of their fellow Christians conspiring to promote the nd design of furnishing every town and village on earth with a faithful stor. In our different auxiliaries, and their co-operating associations, usands of Presbyterians are now uniting their hearts and hands, as well their voices, that the kingdom of the Redeemer may come. We shall not intimidated by the false accusations, and scurrilous pamphlets, of those o would make the world believe, that in educating pious youth, who sire to be heralds of the cross, we are fitting men, from worldly motives,
"the trade of preaching," and that we disregard, or deem unessential, criptural call to the ministry, by the Holy Ghost. Nor have we fellow-p with any who deem ignorance, stupidity, and fanaticism the best alifications for a public teacher. We discern without the spirit of prophe-
, that those whom God calls labourers together with himself in the regene-ion of the world, have begun to employ, in dependence on the Spirit of all ice, such means as will, if persevered in, render the faithful preaching the gospel, and the influence of evangelical religion, universal. We il all pious individuals, who by their personal exertions are bringing ward candidates as our friends; and we rejoice to know, that the nerican Education Society, established in New-England, has excelled by aiding about one hundred more beneficiaries than ourselves.* Still eater exertions must be made by them and ourselves, or else vacant ngregations within the bounds of the United States will multiply faster an well educated and pious preachers of the risen Saviour. But let on awake to a full sense and a faithful discharge of her duty on this bject, and it will not be long before the knowledge of the Lord shall l the earth, and the salvation of our God be experienced by all people.

The committee to which had been referred the Synodical and Presbyterial reports, reported, and their report being read, it was directed that he Stated Clerk transcribe it into the Compendious View; and it was greed that the following part be entered on the minutes, viz.

From the Compendious View, it appears, that there are, under the care f the General Assembly, thirteen Synods, comprising seventy-seven resbyteries. Eight of the Synods, and all of the Presbyteries, have sent p to this Assembly reports, more or less complete. All the Presbyteries ave reported the names and number of ministers and congregations; and early all have reported the number of licentiates and candidates. Seveny-four Presbyteries, and 1092 congregations, have reported the number of ommunicants; and 73 Presbyteries, and 902 congregations, have reportd the number of baptisms. Deducting the number of Presbyteries and ongregations who have reported upon these subjects respectively, from e whole number under the care of the Assembly, there remain three resbyteries and 587 congregations who have made no report on the number of communicants, and four Presbyteries, and 777 congregations, who ve not reported the number of baptisms. Generally, however, the ongregations delinquent in these particulars, are those which are small, d without pastors.

Forty-six Presbyteries have reported collections for the Missionary und; leaving 31 which have made no report on this subject. Sixty-three esbyteries report on the Commissioners' Fund; 13 on the Presbyterial und; 47 on the Education Fund; and 21 have reported collections for e Theological Seminary.

Upon the whole, though many of the reports are, in some respects, considerably deficient, yet it is believed that the reports of the present year are more complete than those of any former year. And the Assembly are gratified to find, that the Presbyteries and congregations under their care, are paying an increasing attention to this subject.

The Stated Clerk was directed to add to the report, any further particulars which he may receive from the Presbyteries, to supply the deficiencies there are in several of the Presbyterial reports.

The committee to which was referred the petition of certain individuals, members of the congregation in Tammany Street, Baltimore, reported, and their report being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows; viz.

That while it is unquestionably the privilege of individuals and members of the Presbyterian Church, when they think they see the peace, purity, or prosperity of the church in danger, either from an individual, or from an inferior court, to apply to the General Assembly, in an orderly manner, for redress or direction, yet, in such cases, unless they mean to come forward as prosecutors, with the necessary testimony, they should most carefully avoid mentioning names connected with charges of the most serious kind; in support of which no evidence has been orderly adduced. Nor have the individuals thus accused, had an opportunity of replying to those charges, or of making any defence of themselves:—The Assembly, therefore, cannot witness a procedure of this kind, without expressing their disapprobation of it. But, inasmuch as this step may have arisen from inadvertency, or a want of information respecting the course proper to be taken in such a case; and as the petitioners declared, that it was not their design or intention to exhibit charges against the persons whose names were mentioned in the petition, but that their only object was to bring the subject of this petition before the Assembly, that they might obtain an expression of the sentiments of the Assembly on the importance and binding character of the Confession of Faith, as recognized by the Presbyterian Church; the committee beg leave to report the following: viz.

1. That, in the opinion of this Assembly, confessions of faith, containing formulas of doctrine, and rules for conducting the discipline and worship proper to be maintained in the house of God, are not only recognized as necessary and expedient, but as the character of human nature is continually aiming at innovation, absolutely requisite to the settled peace of the church, and to the happy and orderly existence of Christian communion. Within the limits of Christendom, few are to be found in the attitude of avowed hostility to Christianity. The name of Christian is claimed by all, and all are ready to profess their belief in the Holy Scriptures; too many reserving to themselves the right of putting upon them what construction they please. In such a state of things, without the aid of Confessions, Christian fellowship can exist only in a very limited degree, and the disorder of the Corinthian church, condemned by the Apostle, would be realized: "I am of Paul, and I of Apollos."

2. That though the Confessions of Faith, and standards of our church, are of no original authority, independent of the Scriptures, yet we regard them as a summary of those divine truths which are diffused throughout the sacred volume.

They, as a system of doctrines, therefore, cannot be abandoned in our opinion, without an abandonment of the word of God. They form a bond of fellowship in the faith of the gospel, and the General Assembly cannot but believe the precious immortals under their care, to be more safe in receiving the truth of God's holy word, as exhibited in the standards of our church, than in being subject to the guidance of any instructer, who-ever he may be, who may have confidence enough to set up his own opinions in opposition to the system of doctrines, which men of sound learning, full of the Holy Ghost, and mighty in the Scriptures, have devise from the oracles of the living God. It should never be forgotten, that th church is solemnly cautioned against the danger of being carried abou by every wind of doctrine.

3. This Confession of Faith, adopted by our church, contains a system of doctrines professedly believed by the people and the pastors under th care of the General Assembly, nor can it be traduced by any in the communion of our church, without subjecting the erring parties to that salutary discipline, which hath for its object the maintenance of the peac and purity of the church, under the government of her great Master.

Finally, The General Assembly recommend to all who are under thei care, steadfastly to resist every temptation, however presented, which may have for its object the relaxation of those bonds of Christian fellowship, which have hitherto been so eminently blessed of God, for the order edification, and extension of the Presbyterian church, and conclude with the words of the holy Apostle:—“ Now we beseech you, brethren, by th name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and tha there be no divisions among you, but that ye be perfectly joined together i the same mind and in the same judgment.”

The committee appointed on the report of the Board of Missions, reported, and their report being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

1. That the report of the Board be approved.

2. That the Trustees be directed, and they hereby are directed, to issue a warrant, for the payment of the sum now due to the Missionaries which have been employed by the Board, and the committee recommend that the Assembly pass the following resolution.

Resolved, That it be recommended, and it hereby is most earnestly recommended to all the churches under our care, most seriously to consider the thousands of families in our new states and territories, growing up, and forming constituent parts of this great Republic, almost wholly without the preached word: and in order more efficiently to aid the operations of the Board, that the annual Missionary collection be not divided, and that one whole collection be taken up once a year for this purpose.

The committee appointed to draw up a minute expressive of the mind of the Assembly on the memorial of the Synod of Ohio, submitted the following, which was adopted, viz.

The General Assembly having heard the memorial of the Synod of Ohio, complaining of the decision of the last General Assembly, on the appeal of Samuel Lowry, against the judgment of said Synod; and having heard also the memorial of the appellant, in opposition to that of the Synod, and various other documents intended to furnish information on the subject, after mature deliberation, adopted the following resolutions, viz.

1. This Assembly has no authority to reverse the judicial acts of a former General Assembly, except in cases of such palpable error, as would manifestly tend to interfere with the substantial administration of justice.

2. This Assembly are of opinion, that Mr. Lowry complied with the rule of the book of discipline, respecting the notice given, in the case of his appeal; but as this notice appears not to have been received by the Synod, they were not censurable for not sending up the records.

3. This Assembly are of opinion that the correct mode of proceeding for the last General Assembly, would have been, to have suspended a decision on the appeal, until the records of the inferior judicatories should have been present, because the rules in our form of government prescribe, that before a judgment is given, all the proceedings of the inferior judicatories in the case should be read, and it is a sound maxim, generally admitted in courts of justice, that the best evidence which the case admits of should be required, which in all trials, is undoubtedly the record of the judicatory. But while they entertain this opinion of the mode of proceeding, they believe that the decision of the last General Assembly was substantially correct, and was not different from what it would have been if they had had all the proceedings of the inferior judicatories before them: for the fact on which they founded their judgment, has been fully confirmed to this Assembly, by the records which have been read in the discussion of the case. And this Assembly concur in opinion with the last General Assembly, that the special Session, appointed by the Presbytery of Miami, for the trial of S. Lowry, was an unconstitutional court; and that all the proceedings of that body in this case, and of the Presbytery of Miami and of the Synod of Ohio, sanctioning the acts of that body, are irregular. And the allegation of the Synod, in their memorial, that this body, though called a Session, was in reality no more than a committee of Presbytery, is incorrect; for they are not only denominated a Session, but they performed the acts which belong peculiarly to a church Session; they sat in judgment upon a member of the church and an elder, and condemned and suspended him; but no Presbytery has authority, according to the constitution of our church, to delegate to a committee a power to perform such acts as those. Now as this court which tried S. Lowry, and from which the appeal was originally taken, had no authority to condemn him, his appeal ought on that ground to have been sustained.

4. But the decision of the last General Assembly did not preclude a new trial in the constitutional way, but provided for it in the following words, "if Mr. Lowry has done any thing offensive, he ought to be tried by the courts that have been instituted by the constitution of our church."

Neither have the merits of the cause been at all prejudged by the decision of the last Assembly, nor by the opinion expressed by the present Assembly.

5. Finally, the Assembly cannot but express their disapprobation, of the concluding paragraph of the memorial of the Synod of Ohio, in which they say, "the Synod consider the judgments entered upon their records against Samuel Lowry in October 1822, as remaining in full force, &c."

This declaration, notwithstanding the respectful expressions of the Synod, is apparently wanting in the respect due from an inferior to a superior judicatory; and is repugnant to the radical principles of the government of the Presbyterian church. If an inferior court has authority to declare that its own decisions are in force, after they have been reversed by a superior court, then all appeals are nugatory, and our system, as it relates to judicial proceedings, is utterly subverted. The Assembly are willing to believe, however, that the Synod of Ohio did not mean to set themselves in opposition to the highest judicatory of the church, and that when they have reconsidered the matter, they will rescind what is so manifestly inconsistent with the principles of the Constitution, which they have bound themselves to support.

Mr. Timlow and Mr. Gould obtained leave of absence during the remaining sessions of this Assembly.

The committee appointed to prepare a minute on the appeal of Mr. Donald M'Crimmon, from a decision of the session of Ottary's church, suspending him from the office of Ruling Elder, and from the privileges of the church, reported, and their report being read, was accepted. After some discussion, the further consideration of it, was postponed and the subject of the appeal was committed to Drs. Blatchford, Richards, Chester, Romeyn, M'Dowell, Miller and Janeway, maturely to consider the subject, and report on it to the next Assembly. Mr. M'Crimmon was suspended on account of marrying the sister of his deceased wife.

The committee appointed to appropriate the avails of monies in the hands of the Trustees of the College of New Jersey, reported that they had paid attention to the business. Their report was accepted, and Rev. Charles Hodge and Rev. Eli F. Cooley, were appointed a committee to make an appropriation of the monies for the current year.

2. Resolved, That the Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church, be directed to hold their first meeting at Princeton, on Tuesday preceding the next annual commencement of New-Jersey College, and the present temporary clerk of this Assembly, is hereby directed to give notice to each member, at least ten days previous to said meeting.

3. Resolved, That the individual Trustees, who hold in trust the real estate at Princeton, transfer said property to the incorporated Trustees of the Seminary.

4. Resolved, That in voting for Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church, the Assembly adopt the rules which exist in relation to voting for Trustees of the General Assembly, found in the Digest, pages 198 and 199.

Resolved, That there be appropriated to meet the current expenses of the Theological Seminary for the ensuing year, the sum of $4,200, in addition to the unexpended balance of the appropriation of the last Assembly.

The committee to which was referred the memorial of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, on the subject of the library transferred to the General Assembly, by the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, reported, and their report being read, was adopted, and is as follows: viz.

The General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, in May, 1821; previous to the formation of the connexion between the General Synod and the General Assembly, received a petition from the Synod of the South, praying permission to form themselves into a sister co-ordinate Synod, dated 4th of April, 1821; with which petition the General Synod did comply. The Assembly's right to the library under the surrender of the General Associate Reformed Synod, on this, as well as on other justifiable grounds, your committee think ought not therefore to be questioned. And your committee beg leave to recommend this report, as a proper answer to the memorial presented by their brethren of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

The committee appointed to prepare a minute on the subject of an appeal to this Assembly by Elijah Mason, from the decision of the Synod of Geneva, reported, and the report being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz. That the decision of the Synod of Geneva, sustaining the appeal of the session of Preble, from the decision of the Presbytery of Onondaga, be, and it is hereby reversed.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of Ohio, reported. The report was adopted, and is as follows: viz.

That the minutes be approved to page 191, with the exception of the minutes on page 169, where a select Session was appointed by the Presbytery of Miami, which in the judgment of the Assembly was unconstitutional, and of which the Synod has taken no notice.

The Presbytery of Carlisle requested of the Assembly an explanation of the 7th section of the 13th chapter of the book of discipline, which has reference to an elder laying aside the exercise of his office.

Resolved, That it is inexpedient for the General Assembly to give an interpretation of the article of the Form of Government, requested by the Presbytery of Carlisle, until a particular case under that article shall regularly come before them.

The following extract from the minutes of the Second Presbyterian Church of Alexandria, D. C. was overtured: viz.

At a special meeting on the 19th of May, 1824. As it was resolved unanimously at a meeting of the congregation, on the 1st of January last, that a petition be presented to the Presbytery of Winchester, for a dismission to join the Presbytery of the District of Columbia, this request having been preferred to that body at their last meeting, and they deeming themselves incompetent to decide on this application, directed it to be made to the General Assembly:

It was therefore on motion, resolved, that the General Assembly be requested at their approaching sessions, to annex the Second Presbyterian Congregation of Alexandria, to the Presbytery of the District of Columbia.

It appearing that all the parties concerned had acquiesced, it was resolved, that the request of the congregation of Alexandria be granted, and it is hereby granted, and the congregation is attached to the Presbytery of the District of Columbia.

Dr. Green, the editor of the Christian Advocate, made the following communication, which having been overtured, was read: viz.

That when he commenced his editorship, January, 1823; he gave a pledge that a tythe of the profits should be devoted to Christian charities —that no profit accrued to him the first year; but that there is a prospect there will be a profit this year, which will be worthy the attention of the Assembly, and he therefore requested that a committee be appointed to make a distribution of the tythe of any profit which may accrue.

Whereupon it was resolved, that Drs. Janeway and Brodhead, and Mr. John M'Mullin, be appointed a committee for this purpose.

A communication was received from the American Colonization Society, requesting the Assembly to recommend to their churches, to take up, on the 4th of July next, being the Sabbath; a collection for said society. After considering this communication, the Assembly adopted the following resolution, viz.

Resolved, That whilst the Assembly still highly approve the object of the Colonization Society, they deem it most expedient to leave the churches and individuals under their care, to the exercise of their own discretion on this subject.

From the above resolution, so far as it approves of the objects of the Colonization Society, the Rev. Dyer Burgess and Mr. Robert Patterson, dissented.

Four o'clock, P. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

The Trustees of the General Assembly reported that they were unable to raise the sum of $2000 directed by the vote of the last Assembly, for the purposes of the Seminary, in any other manner than by pledging $2000 of 6 per cent stock, which they directed to be done on February 9th, 1824, at which time the salaries of the Professors, were in arrear for several weeks. The money was obtained at 5 per cent. per annum.

Resolved, That the Assembly approve of the conduct of the Trustees, in the foregoing case.

Dr. Blatchford and Mr. Stafford, obtained leave of absence from the sessions of the Assembly, after to day.

Whereas many members of the General Assembly, are from year to year in the habit of asking leave of absence long before its sessions are closed.—And, whereas, in receiving and acting upon these applications, much of the time of the Assembly is consumed, and much of the most important business has to be transacted by few members :—Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the Presbyteries be directed to pay particular attention to the following minute, found in vol. 1. page 308, of Printed Extracts, and also in Digest, page 76, viz. "The Presbyteries are informed that their commissioners should attend, with the expectation that the sessions will be of two weeks continuance, and that arrangements should be made accordingly."

2. That it be recommended to the Presbyteries to inform their commissioners when they axcept an appointment, that it is expected they will continue in the Assembly until the close of its sessions; unless some unforeseen and imperious reason should require them to ask leave of absence.

3. That each Presbytery require their commissioners to report whether they attended the sessions of the Assembly the whole time; and that the report of the commissioners on this subject be recorded on the minutes of the Presbytery.

The case of Mr. Craighead was resumed and the parties having been heard at full length, the roll was called and the members expressed their opinions on the subject, after which Dr. Alexander, Dr. Hill and Mr. Gray, were appointed a committee to prepare a minute proper to be adopted by the Assembly on the subject.

Mr. Rennie and Mr. Mellen, obtained leave of absence during the remaining sessions of this Assembly. Adjourned till 8 o'clock to-morrow morning. Concluded with prayer.

June 5, 8 o'clock, A. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

Mr. Wood obtained leave of absence during the remaining sessions of this Assembly.

The Trustees of the Assembly to whom had been referred an application from the agents of the Synod of Kentucky, relative to instituting a seminary of learning, within its bounds, reported, and their report being read, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

That, on due examination of the papers containing this application, a feeling was produced peculiarly favourable to the wishes of the highly respectable source from which it emanated; and to have acquiesced in the proposition consistently with a sense of duty, would have been a personal gratification to the Trustees. They, however, are constrained, (without entering into the constitutional powers vested in the Trustees, to meet this object, or considering the effects of precedent on future cases of a similar nature,) that, in their opinion, the funds of the General Assembly, might be involved by the authority necessarily required from a principal to its agents, so as to endanger the sphere of usefulness to which those funds are so applicable; and further, that the power asked for, being irrevocable, except in the event of the Legislature of Kentucky granting a satisfactory act of incorporation, exposes the Trustees to the continuance of a connexion, after experience had demonstrated that it operated unfavourably to the general interests of the Assembly, though in a degree favourable to the establishment in Kentucky. The following resolution is, therefore, respectfully submitted to the consideration of the Assembly.

Resolved, That whilst the Trustees of the General Assembly entertain the most cordial feelings in favour of the design of the Synod of Kentucky, and highly approve of their endeavours to establish "a school, in which literature and science, blended with the doctrines of the word of God, shall be taught;" they are of opinion, and respectfully report to the Assembly, that it is not expedient to concur in the request of the Synod of Kentucky, inasmuch as it is inconsistent with the design of the Act of Assembly by which the Trustees are incorporated, and might be attended with results injurious to the sphere of usefulness to which the funds of the General Assembly are now applicable.

The Assembly entered on the consideration of the two appeals of the Rev. Robert B. Dobbins, from the decision of the Synod of Kentucky, in he cases of the Rev. William L. Maccalla, and the session of the church of Augusta. The Rev. Dr. E. S. Ely appeared in behalf of Mr. Dobbins. The parties were heard until they declared themselves satisfied, (the acts having been admitted by them, and the reading of the documents by consent dispensed with.) The roll was then called, that the members of the Assembly might express their opinions on the subject; after which Drs. Wylie, M'Dowell, and Leland, were appointed a committee o prepare a minute on the subject.

Resolved, That the Board of Education be, and hereby are authorized o select and educate such young men as are contemplated by the Contitution of that Board.

The committee appointed to draft a minute proper to be adopted by the ssembly in relation to the appeal of the Rev. Thomas B. Craighead, rom a decision of the Synod of Kentucky, reported, and their report was ead. Adjourned till 4 o'clock, P. M. Concluded with prayer.

Four o'clock, P. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. he minutes of the last session were read.

The consideration of the report of the committee appointed to prepare minute on the subject of Mr. Craighead's appeal from a decision of the ynod of Kentucky, suspending him from the gospel ministry on certain harges of heresy, founded on a sermon preached before the Synod, was esumed, and after some discussion, the report was adopted, and is as llows: viz.

"1. The General Assembly are of opinion, that the conduct of Mr. raighead in preaching such a sermon, and in such circumstances, before e Synod of Kentucky; especially as he had been suspected by his rethren of holding erroneous opinions, was highly reprehensible.

2. The General Assembly approve the conduct of the Synod in relation this matter. While they were firm and zealous in maintaining what ey believed to be truth, they were, to an uncommon degree, respectful nd affectionate in their manner of dealing with Mr. Craighead. As the ermon was delivered in their hearing, believing as they did, that it conined dangerous error, they were bound to take notice of it, and express eir opinion, to the preacher.

3. But they cannot approve the conduct of Mr. Craighead when before e Synod. He indeed manifested a lofty and independent spirit, that ould not be controlled by authority, and there was not exhibited a due espect for the Synod, as an acknowledged judicatory of the church of hrist. His conduct was not respectful and conciliatory; which certainly as a return that their tenderness to him called for; but it was that of a old and confident controvertist, who sets his opponents at defiance.

4. The publication of this sermon and defence, by Mr Craighead, after had been so earnestly entreated by the Synod, "not to offend against e doctrines of the Confession and the feelings of his Christian brethren," was even more reprehensible, as far as evidence is before us, than the first preaching of it.

5. The Presbytery of Transylvania, to which Mr. Craighead belonged, in the faithful discharge of their duty, could not have connived at such conduct. They acted properly, therefore, in calling upon Mr. Craighead, to answer for this publication. Indeed, they deserve much commendation for their watchfulness, zeal, and firmness, in promptly meeting an evil which threatened greatly to injure the welfare of the church. And when it is considered, that the man with whom they had to deal, was distinguished for his learning and eloquence, reputable in his character and standing in society, and venerable for his age, it was a duty of no small difficulty and self-denial, which they were called to perform. But they did not shrink from it. Therefore, whatever may have been their errors in the manner of conducting this business, or the errors of the Synod, it is the opinion of the General Assembly, that they performed their duty in difficult circumstances; and that their whole proceedings were prompted by pure and conscientious motives.

6. It is not surprising, that in a case so new and difficult, some considerable errors in point of form should have occurred; the principal of these, the General Assembly will now briefly point out.

There was a great deficiency in the charges preferred against Mr. Craighead as it relates to precision. All charges for heresy should be as definite as possible. The article, or articles of faith impugned, should be specified, and the words supposed to be heretical, shown to be in repugnance to these articles; whether the reference is made directly to the Scriptures, as a standard of orthodoxy; or to the Confession of Faith, which our church holds to be a summary of the doctrines of Scripture. But in none of the charges against Mr. Craighead is this done; and in two of them, (third and fourth,) it would be very difficult to say, what articles of faith are supposed to be contravened in the errors charged on Mr. Craighead. And the last two charges, appear to be so vague and indefinite, as to be incapable of proof. In the fifth, Mr. Craighead is charged with perverting, &c. the sentiments of the preachers and writers in our connexion. Now, in our connexion, there are a multitude of preachers and writers differing by many shades of opinion from each other. How then can this be a just ground of accusation? In the sixth, he is charged with the false colouring of facts, &c. But no facts are established by evidence; none are specified in the charge; and to make it a just ground of accusation, it ought to have been a designed and malicious discolouring of the facts, &c.

In the progress of this case, the Presbytery proceeded regularly to cite the accused, once and again, and upon his not appearing, they proceeded to the trial, and having gone through the evidence, they referred the whole to the Synod to adjudicate upon it, with the expression of their own opinion, that Mr. Craighead ought to be suspended. The Synod met immediately after Presbytery, and took up the case, and in concurrence with the opinion of the Presbytery, suspended Mr. Craighead from the gospel ministry.

In this proceeding, the General Assembly are of opinion, that there was too much haste. Mr. Craighead was not guilty of contumacy, for he wrote two letters to the Presbytery, excusing himself for non-attendance; and if he had been guilty of contumacy, he ought to have been suspended on that ground. Perhaps no man ought to be tried on charges preferred, and to be supported by evidence, who is not present, without his own consent. A trial, in the nature of things, cannot be impartial, when there is but one party heard. And in this case, no injury would have been sustained by delay, for the Synod might have proceeded instantly to condemn the errors of Mr. Craighead's book, as the General Assembly did in the case of The Gospel Plan of W. C. Davis; the process against the author, however, did not commence, till some time afterwards. But, however this may be, the General Assembly think, that the Synod were in too much haste. It was reasonable, that Mr. Craighead should have been informed of this transfer of the cause, to a higher tribunal.

There is only one other thing in the proceedings on which the General Assembly will remark; which is, that statements were given as evidence, by the members of Presbytery, which are not recorded, and which do not appear to have been given under the usual solemnity of an oath.

But from matters of form, the General Assembly will now pass to the merits of the case; and for the sake of brevity, the first and second charges only shall be brought into view.

Charge 1. "We charge him with denying and vilifying the real agency of the Spirit in regeneration, and in the production of faith and sanctification in general."

And first, they would observe, that there can be no doubt, that the denial of the real agency of the Spirit, is a dangerous and fundamental error; and if Mr. Craighead taught such an error, he ought to have been suspended.

The question then is, do the passages of Mr. Craighead's sermon, referred to in the charge, prove that he did deny the reality of the operations of the Spirit?

Here, it will be important to remark, that a man cannot fairly be convicted of heresy, for using expressions which may be so interpreted as to involve heretical doctrines, if they may also admit of a more favourable construction:—Because, no one can tell in what sense an ambiguous expression is used, but the speaker or writer, and he has a right to explain himself; and in such cases, candour requires, that a court should favour the accused, by putting on his words the more favourable, rather than the less favourable construction.

Another principle is, that no man can rightly be convicted of heresy by inference or implication; that is, we must not charge an accused person with holding those consequences which may legitimately flow from his assertions. Many men are grossly inconsistent with themselves; and while it is right, in argument, to overthrow false opinions, by tracing them in their connexions and consequences, it is not right to charge any man with an opinion which he disavows.

With these principles in view, the General Assembly proceed to observe, that there is abundant evidence, that Mr. Craighead did deny the immediate agency of the Spirit, but no clear evidence that he denied the real agency of the Spirit. These are very different things, and the proo of the one, does by no means establish the other. Immediate agency o operation, is opposed to mediate. This is a well known distinction in theology; and a point which has been greatly controverted. The Reformed Church, of which ours is a part, in all their purest times, maintained the doctrine of the immediate operation of the Spirit, not without th word, but distinct from it, and in the order of nature preceding it. Othe Protestant Churches, never charged with fundamental error, have as uniformly maintained the doctrine of a mediate agency; and those commonly believe, that this operation is not occasional, but uniform, and diversified in its effects, by the difference of resistance with which it meets. Neithe the Presbytery nor the Synod appear to have attended sufficiently t this distinction. They appear to have thought, that a denial of immediate agency, was a denial of all real agency. It deserves special regard here, that our Confession takes no notice of these nice distinctions, about the mode in which the Holy Spirit operates. It usually mentions the word and the Spirit together, and the former as the instrument of the latter. And they who believe in the immediate agency of the Spirit, do not exclude the instrumentality of the word; they however explain it in a different way from those who hold, that there is no agency of the Spirit, distinct from the word. But this is the more favourable construction; there is another, which if not more probable, is more obvious. Mr. Craighead may be understood as teaching, that the only real agency of the Spirit was in inspiring the Scriptures, and confirming them by signs and miracles. There is much in his discourse, that has this bearing; and undoubtedly this is the common impression, among the people where it is best known. This was the idea of the Synod of Kentucky, when they condemned him; and this is, in fact, denying the reality of the operation of the Spirit, in our days: and whether his expressions have been fairly interpreted or not, they are dangerous, and ought to be condemned. In justice to Mr. Craighead, however, it ought to be remembered, that he utterly disclaims this meaning, in his defence sent up to this Assembly. And would it be fair to continue to charge upon him opinions which he solemnly disavows? Of the sincerity of his disavowal, God is the judge. The conclusion is, that the first charge, though supported by strong probabilities, is not so conclusively established as to remove all doubt, because the words adduced in proof, will bear a different construction from that put on them by the Presbytery and Synod.

The evidence in support of the second charge is still less clear and conclusive. The charge is,

"We charge him with denying, vilifying and misrepresenting the doctrine of divine foreordination, and sovereignty, and election."

It might, perhaps, be shown by argument, that Mr. Craighead uses many expressions not consistent with these doctrines; but agreeably to the principle laid down above, he must not be charged with holding these consequences unless he has avowed them. These passages of his discourse, it is true, contain erroneous and offensive things, but they do not establish the charge of denying, vilifying, &c. In one single instance, he seems to deny, that every thing should be referred to the sovereignty of God's will; but the words in their connexion, may have an innocent meaning. Here again it must be observed, that Mr. Craighead solemnly declares his belief in the doctrine of decrees and election, as expressed in our standards.

But whilst the General Assembly are of opinion that the charges against Mr. Craighead are not clearly and fully supported by the references, they feel it to be their duty to say, that the impression which they have received from hearing extracts from this discourse, are very unfavourable; and they do believe, that Mr. Craighead by preaching and printing this sermon, did subject himself justly to censure.

Moreover, the Assembly are of opinion, that the doctrines of this sermon, in the most favourable construction, are different from those of the Reformed Churches, and of our church, and are erroneous; although the error is not of fundamental importance. They have observed also, that this discourse contains many unjust and illiberal reflections on the doctrines which has been the common and uniform belief of the great majority of the preachers and writers of the Reformed Churches. He mentions the names of a few persons as favouring the doctrine which he opposes;

but he might have put into the list almost every standard writer of our own and sister churches, since the Reformation.

This sermon also contains much declamation which confounds fanaticism and piety; and representations of opinions which are true and important, so associated with error and absurdity, as to exhibit them in a ridiculous and odious light.

Finally, the General Assembly are deeply impressed with the evidences of an improper spirit, and an evil tendency in this sermon, and are of opinion that Mr. Craighead ought so to retract or explain his sentiments as to afford reasonable satisfaction to his brethren.

Whereupon, Resolved, That as the proceedings in the case of Mr. Craighead, have been, in many respects, irregular, and he has suffered much injury from the delay produced by these irregularities: And whereas also, the charges are not so conclusively established as to remove all doubt the General Assembly cannot see their way clear finally to confirm the sentence of the Synod of Kentucky, although they are of opinion, tha Mr. Craighead has subjected himself, by preaching and printing this sermon, to just censure. But as Mr. Craighead has had no fair opportunity o vindicating himself, or of making satisfactory explanations or retractions therefore,

Resolved, That the whole cause be transmitted to the Presbytery o West Tennessee, in the bounds of which Mr. Craighead resides; an that they be directed to give him an early opportunity of offering tha satisfaction which the church expects, for the offence received: and tha upon receiving such explanations or retractions as to them shall be satisfactory, Mr. Craighead be restored to the gospel ministry from which h had been suspended."

Petitions from the churches at Mount Pleasant and Greensburg, i New-York, and from five ministers of the gospel residing in the vicinit of Mr. George Bourne, requesting that Mr. Bourne might be restored t the office of the gospel ministry, was overtured, and application on behal of Mr. Bourne was made by Dr. Ely, that on the profession of his penitenc he may be restored:—Whereupon it was Resolved, That the case of Mr. George Bourne be referred to the Presbytery of New-York, in whose bounds he now resides; and it is hereb ordered, that the Presbytery of New-York be furnished by the Presbytery of Lexington, with all the documents relative to the deposition of M Bourne;—that they receive testimony as to the character and deportmen of Mr. Bourne since his deposition, and also the evidences of repentanc which Mr. Bourne may furnish. June 7; 8 o'clock, A. M. the Assembly met, and was constituted b prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee to which was referred the appeals of the Rev. R. I Dobbins from the decisions of the Synod of Kentucky, affirming decision of the Presbytery of Ebenezer in the cases of the Rev. William L. Maccalla, and the Session of the church of Augusta, reported, and the repor being read, was adopted and is as follows, viz.

1. While the Assembly, as a general principle, disapprove of the ad ministration of the sacraments, by one of their ministers, within the bounds of a congregation with which he is not connected, without the consent of the minister and session of said congregation; yet under the peculiar local circumstances of the people among which Mr. Maccalla occasionally administered ordinances, the Assembly cannot decide that he deserves censure. Therefore resolved, that the decision of the Synod of Kentucky, affirming a decision of the Presbytery of Ebenezer in regard to the complaint of the Rev. Mr. Dobbins, against the Rev. Mr. Maccalla, be, and it hereby is affirmed.

2. In regard to the complaint of Mr. Dobbins, against the session of the church of Augusta, for receiving members suspended by the session of the church of Smyrna; the Assembly are of opinion that both sessions acted unconstitutionally, the session of Smyrna, in suspending said members, and the session of Augusta in receiving them when suspended.—Therefore,

Resolved, That the appeal on this complaint be and it is hereby sustained; and the members in question are hereby declared to be still members in good standing in the church of Smyrna, and the session of the church of Smyrna are hereby directed, to dismiss said members, if they still desire it, that they may regularly connect themselves with the church of Augusta.

A Narrative of the State of Religion

Within the bounds of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Churc and its Corresponding Churches, in the United States of America.

Nothing is more interesting to the friends of Zion, than to learn it prosperity. That our churches should look with solicitude to the perio when information is collected from all parts of the church, is expecte by the General Assembly. It would give them the most heartfelt satisfaction, to be able on this occasion, to afford, to the friends of Jesus, a animating account of the prevalence of truth, the triumphs of grace, an the enlargement of his kingdom. Although we can state many thing which will give joy to the churches, and animation to all who love th glory of the Redeemer, it is not to be disguised that there is very much t excite our deepest humiliation, and awaken the most solemn fear. With in our extensive bounds, there is a vast wilderness, filled with immort souls who are destitute of religious instruction and hope. There are regions, just beginning to enjoy the " day spring from on high," still dar in error and ignorance, and cold in indifference and sin. Where th Gospel is preached, it is met with powerful opposition by error of ever form, and it is assailed by enemies of every name. Amid many of ou churches are to be found cold and worldly professors, and many wh having a name to live are dead, and the enemies of Jesus are sometime established in the house of his friends. We do not recollect to have hear more deep and afflicting representations from the Presbyteries of the war of zeal and the life giving energies of the Spirit. On every side there ar complaints of prevailing error, of licentious practice, of gross intemperance, and disregard of the Lord's day. In many parts of our widel extended and extending church, the want of ministers is still most painfully felt, and even those who can support them cannot obtain them.

Since these evils do exist, the Assembly feel it to be their duty to publish them to the churches. We have too long shut our eyes to facts whe they have been discouraging or afflictive. We have dwelt on the gree spots that here and there, and sometimes to a great extent, meet our eye and we have forgotten the desert by which they are surrounded. W have been reposing by the fountains which refresh us and reflect the heavens to our sight, as we stoop to drink them, and we too often forget " th dry and thirsty land in which there is no water." That our Presbyteries have turned their attention to these evils, that they should state them, is evidence to the Assembly, that they are more justly appreciated, more earnestly deplored, and that more devoted prayer and more zealous efforts will be made for their removal. We think that the tone of our reports indicates greater sensibility to the cause of religion—deeper solicitude for its honour and success—more enlightened humility, and promises to produce more powerful and united exertions to spread that truth and promote that cause which alone are to bring salvation to men, joy to angels, and glory to God.

The evils to which we allude, and which are most conspicuous, do not exist in the same degree in all parts of the church. Some of the Presbyteries complain of the want of ministers and missionaries, a want of zeal and devotedness in some instances in ministers and professors, great coldness and worldliness. From almost every direction we learn that the Lord's day is most shamefully profaned, and that even professors sanction this destructive and most offensive sin by the looseness of their own example, or their open conformity to the world, in some of the most popular modes by which its sanctity is invaded. Even ministers, in some instances, have been known to travel in public conveyances on this "day of rest." The Assembly have learned this fact with pain; and while they deplore, they wholly disapprove it.

In many parts of our country the odious and destructive sin of intemperance is, we fear, increasing to an alarming degree; producing blasting and destruction to individuals, families, and churches. The Assembly, while they record this fact with shame and sorrow, and real alarm, will not cease to publish it, until those who profess to love the Lord Jesus, shall awake to the dangers of our country and the church. We will warn our beloved people until they shall all rouse to duty and to self-denial, to watchfulness and prayer.

Among the errors which are prevailing in some parts of our bounds, we have discovered none that may be considered new. Infidelity is the same in its principles, and as destructive in its effects, when it assumes a new form, as it was in its more usual and familiar garb; and it is to be opposed with the divine panoply and unwearied courage, as well when it appears in the form of an angel of light, as when it is manifested in its original shape of deformity. It is to be avoided as sedulously when it assails us in specious accents of philosophy, the tone of affected liberality and refinement, as when its "false tongue vociferates in the corners of the streets," and utters open defiance in the hiss of derision, or the clamour of infidelity and blasphemy.

In the general survey of churches under our care, it is surprising, and in some cases alarming, to observe the want of united and concentrated efforts in promoting many of the objects of benevolence which occupy the friends of Religion. The funds raised are divided and subdivided, until no single object is well patronised. There is a spirit of christian enterprise that marks the day in which we live, and in which the Assembly do rejoice. Every thing that promises to advance the knowledge of the Lord, and the salvation of man, will not only be viewed with approbation by a religious community, but will be assisted and patronised. It has, however, sometimes happened, that a new mode of well doing has diverted the attention from well established exertions, and the funds by which they were supported, have been changed, so that while a new form of mercy appeared, there are no new means for its support.

We turn now to present some things in the present state of the church, which are more delightful, and which encourage us to believe that the Lord God is in the midst of us for good. Though there are many evils in the church, much error and sin, much apathy and indifference; there are also, many powerful and counteracting operations. We believe, that the cause of truth is advancing; that it is gaining victories over error; that knowledge is increasing; that the church is more engaged, steadfast and prayerful; there is more zeal, more liberality, and more self-denial.

There are many evidences that the ordinary means of grace have been faithfully employed; that the plans of well doing, recommended by the Assembly in former years, have been useful in their operations. When they shall be more extensively adopted, and more vigorously pursued, it is believed that they will fully accomplish the benevolent designs which prompted their recommendation. We learn from almost all our Presbyteries, that the word of God has been faithfully preached; that the people have attended with punctuality upon the stated worship of God, and in many instances, have given earnest heed to the word spoken.

Among the efforts which the Assembly regard with peculiar interest, and which have been very useful the past year, we mention the following:

Exertions in behalf of children and youth. In all parts of the church, Sunday schools are established, and there is but one sentiment respecting them. The Assembly consider them as among the most useful and blessed institutions of the present day. They have a most extensive reforming influence. They apply a powerful corrective to the most inaccessible portions of the community. They begin moral education at the right time—in the best manner—and under the most promising circumstances. They act indirectly, but most powerfully, upon teachers and parents, and frequently become the means of bringing them to the church, and to the knowledge and love of the truth. Sunday schools are highly useful every where; but, they are peculiarly adapted to new and destitute regions of the church. The plan is simple, and easily accomplished. It requires comparatively little knowledge and experience to conduct them with ability. Very much good has been accomplished by the instrumentality of young ladies and gentlemen. The pleasing scene is often witnessed in some of our new settlements, of large meetings of children on the Lord's day, in school-houses, or beneath the shade of the original forest. The voice of praise and prayer is heard, and the word of the living God is proclaimed, amid the most beautiful works of his hand.

Bible and Tract Societies are established in most parts of our church, and we are happy to learn, that very many of our people are dutifully and zealously engaged in promoting the great benevolent institutions which distinguish and honour our age and country. It would be pleasing to be able to add, that our churches were more engaged in giving efficient patronage to the United Foreign Missionary Society, which is under the peculiar protection of the Assembly, and which has been repeatedly presented to our churches for their prayers and liberality.

The United Domestic Missionary Society, the concerns of which are principally conducted in the city of New-York, is considered as one of the most interesting and important institutions of the day, and meets our cordial approbation and recommendation.

The state of Missionary regions and Missionary operations, which are under the entire control of the Assembly, present many subjects of attention, which awaken deep and solemn interest. The Board of Missions, which directs the missionary concerns of the Assembly, has the past year employed more than eighty ministers, to proclaim among the destitute the unsearchable riches of Christ. The Assembly regard these efforts with intense interest, as they are persuaded that God has honoured them with his special blessing. There is not an object of deeper concern to the prosperity of the Church, so far as human agency is concerned, than to furnish to our wide-spread and destitute population, good Missionaries; men full of the Holy Ghost, and burning with love and zeal for the salvation of men. In years past the Assembly has been able to send forth many labourers into the harvest, to occupy and maintain important stations, to explore the country, to gain information; and some parts of our church, now flourishing, it has been the instrument of planting and watering. The church at large is not sufficiently aware of the importance of our Missionary operations. We earnestly hope, that our means of usefulness will be greatly increased.

During the past year, there have been some very special revivals. Many of our churches have been greatly refreshed. Seasons of peculiar sweetness have been enjoyed by some churches, who are not included in the list of those who have been distinguished as the "highly favoured of the Lord," and whose blessings have been so peculiar as to become subjects of general interest to the church.

The special influences of the Spirit of the Lord have been poured out upon the congregations of Augusta, Schenandoa and Oneida, in the Presbytery of Oneida,—Upon the first church in Lenox, in the second church in Sullivan, in the first Church in Pompey, in the Presbytery of Onondaga,—Upon the church of Ellisburgh in the Presbytery of St. Lawrence,—Upon Esperance, the church at Saratoga Springs, Mayfield, Ballston and Moreau, in the Presbytery of Albany.—One of the most extensive works of the Spirit that has been known in our country, has occurred in Moreau, and has spread with astonishing power through the surrounding country. In its vicinity several hundred persons, it is believed, have been brought to a saving knowledge of the truth. The Lord has turned again and revived his work in the churches of Salem, West Granville, in Kingsbury and Queensbury, in the Presbytery of Troy,—In Middletown and Forrestburgh, in the Presbytery of Hudson,—In the church in Rutger's street, in the Presbytery of New-York,—In the second church in Newark, Elizabethtown, and Patterson in the Presbytery of Jersey,—In Flemington in the Presbytery of Newton,—In one of the churches of Baltimore,—In Jefferson College in the Presbytery of Ohio,—In Mount Pleasant, New Salem, in the Presbytery of Hartford. Bethel in the Presbytery of Lexington,—In Fredricksburgh in the Presbytery of Winchester,—In Ripley, in the Presbytery of Chilicothe. It is with peculiar pleasure that we have been informed of a powerful revival in Natchez, in the Presbytery of Mississippi, and in Washington, in the Presbytery of Orange, and in Mahoning, Derry and Buffaloe, in the Presbytery of Northumberland. From those parts of the church where revivals were enjoyed in previous years, we learn that their subjects are generally steadfast, and are walking worthy of their profession. The Monthly Concert for Prayer is generally maintained.

We are happy to learn that increasing interest is felt and that vigorous exertions are made in behalf of seamen. The society in New York is flourishing, and a new and commodious church is now erecting in Philadelphia, for their accommodation. Pleasing evidence has been presented of the great benefit with which the efforts in their favour have been followed, many of them have been hopefully converted, and give good evidence that a work of effectual grace has been wrought in their hearts. The Bethel flag is a new and blessed sign of the times. It floats over the decks of many of our vessels as they go forth on the bosom of the deep.

It is seen in every part of the world, and is the pledge of the season when our merchandize and hire shall be holiness unto the Lord.

Most of our Presbyteries are paying attention to the education of youth for the ministry. Many pious young men are in train, in various stages of their education. Notwithstanding the church is every year rousing to greater exertions, much more must be done before her duty is accomplished, or her wants supplied.

The Board of Education is earnestly engaged, and it is well supported by several auxiliary societies.

The pious females in our communion, are still devoting themselves to the promotion of all the charities of the day. The exertions of women who thus labour in the gospel, are among the most blessed and efficient that the church enjoys.

The Theological Seminary at Princeton, is every year becoming more and more important. Its present condition is flourishing. The number of its pupils is greater than at any former period; and it promises to be a favoured and powerful instrument of disseminating the gospel through the earth.

The Theological Seminary at Auburn is rising into importance. It is enjoying the patronage of the church, and will soon be endowed and extend its blessings throughout the interesting country in which it is located.

The new, but most promising Institution at Hampden Sydney, is advancing. The friends of religion are anticipating great benefits from it, especially to the southern country.

May the God of knowledge own and bless all the means of instruction, that the earth may be full of his truth and his praise.

The Assembly have heard with pleasure of the state of the churches in Associations of New-England. The Lord is in the midst of them for good; they are going forward in the order and peace of the gospel, and with that zeal that should ever distinguish the favoured of the Lord. We are happy to hear, also, that the Theological Seminary at Andover, is in a flourishing and prosperous condition. Its numbers are annually increasing, and its friends are cheered with the belief that its usefulness is continually extending.

From our brethren of the Dutch Reformed Church, we have pleasing information of the prosperous state of religion within their bounds; and particularly that their Theological Seminary at New-Brunswick is in a flourishing state. [This paragraph was unintentionally omitted in the first impression of the Narrative.]

We record with feelings of painful solemnity, the names of many of our dear brethren, who have been called from their labours the past year.* While we view these bereavements as a solemn warning to us all; they admonish the churches to improve the messages of grace, which are falling from dying lips, and to honour God for the treasure which is contained in earthen vessels.

We live in a most interesting period of the world. This is an age of great activity. To the church in this day are committed great and precarious interests.

How careful should we be to stand with our loins girded with truth. In an age of such wonders, of such energy and enterprise, the church has the delicate and difficult duty of avoiding on the one hand, the spirit of bold innovation, which is sometimes allied to zealous and generous efforts, and on the other, to prompt and cherish the ardour which promises to promote the highest good of the world.

Let us be up and doing. If we study diligently the holy oracles, which are our only infallible guide; if we rely upon the direction of the Spirit; if we possess a holy desire to bless the world and exalt God; then our liberty will not sink into licentiousness—our zeal will not destroy—the spirit of inquiry will not become a spirit of speculation and philosophy, falsely so called. But truth shall triumph—charity shall fill every bosom and bless every object—and the Lord alone shall be exalted.

Agreeably to the order of the last Assembly, the Board at an early period, addressed a circular letter to a number of congregations, requesting a collection for the Contingent Fund; in consequence of which a few collections were made, and transmitted to the treasurer of the General Assembly.

Agreeably to the directions of the last Assembly, the Board applied to the Legislature of New-Jersey, at their last session, for a repeal or modification of the last section of the Act passed at the preceding session, entitled, " An Act for Incorporating Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church, at Princeton, New Jersey." The Board are happy to inform the Assembly, that they have succeeded in procuring a supplement to said Act. In consequence of this they have adopted the following resolution; viz. Resolved, That the Board recommend to the General Assembly to accept of the aforesaid charter, with the supplement.*

The Board have the pleasure to inform the Assembly, that since the meeting of the last Assembly, an individual in the First Presbyterian Congregation in Elizabethtown, whose name is concealed, has transmitted to the treasurer of the Assembly, through the hands of the Rev. Dr. John M'Dowell, for the Students' Permanent Fnnd, the sum of $1,280. Dr. M'Dowell informed the Board, that the same individual had, at different times, given sums to the Seminary which amount in the whole, with the sum just mentioned, to $2,500. Of this sum $1,930 were specially given to the Students' Permanent Fund; nothing but the interest to be used. In consequence of these donations, the Board recommend to the Assembly, to order that the sum of $2,500 be appropriated out of the Students' Permanent Fund, to endow a Scholarship, to bear such name as the generous individual above-mentioned may give it. And that the said individual have the right to point out by whom the scholar to be from time to time received on this scholarship shall be named.†

Signed by order of the Board,

THE REPORT

Of the Board of Education to the General Assembly; for May, 1824.

From communications made to this Board, it appears,

1. That in April last the Londonderry Presbytery organized themselves into a Society, to be denominated The Londonderry Presbyterian Education Society; and made it "the duty of all the ministers of this Presbytery having charges, to take up a collection annually for the funds of this Society."

2. The Presbytery of St. Lawrence have collected last year $28 11, and having no beneficiaries, have agreed to transmit that sum to the Board of Education.

3. The Presbytery of Ogdensburg have one beneficiary, and pay $40 a year toward his support.

4. The Presbytery of Buffaloe have two beneficiaries, and have expended on them during the last year $100. One of these is supported in College by the congregation at Buffaloe, and the other by the rest of the Presbytery.

5. The Presbytery of Otsego are sorry to say they are doing so little in this work, "but three years since formed several small Education Societies; and last year in some measure aided two beneficiaries."

6. The Presbytery of Oswego have contributed to the Western Education Society of the State of New-York, $270 since the last report; and $230 to the Auburn Theological Seminary.

7. The Presbytery of Oneida have raised and expended during the last year, for the education of poor and pious youth, $2779 79; and have under their care nine beneficiaries; four of whom are pursuing their theological studies, and five are members of Hamilton College. This report is included in the report of the Western Education Society, to the Presbyterian Education Society, located in New-York.

8. The Presbytery of Geneva have under their care seven beneficiaries.

9. The Presbytery of Troy have directed an annual collection to be taken up in each of their congregations, or in lieu thereof, a Cent Society to be organized in each, in aid of their Education Fund. They collected last year $271 30 in money, besides receiving from pious females many valuable articles of clothing; and have supported either in whole or in part, four young men.

10. The Presbytery of Albany have aided twenty-two beneficiaries, and have collected last year about $1500.

11. The Presbytery of North River have done something in this business, as we learn from a member of that body, but the Board cannot ascertain what.

12. The Presbytery of Hudson require each of their congregations to contribute annually to their Education Fund; and at present are liquidating a debt incurred by them in aiding beneficiaries. After accomplishing this object they purpose to take up other young men, who need, and who are waiting for such assistance.

13. The Presbytery of Long Island have in their Education Fund $78 14, and have aided one beneficiary.

14. The Presbytery of New-York have collected for the Education Fund, last year, $120 36; but their operations are chiefly through the Executive Committee, which reports to the Presbyterian Education Society.

15. The Second Presbytery of New-York take up collections for the Education Fund, and have aided one beneficiary.

16. The Presbytery of Jersey have received during the past year $162 60, and aided four young men.

17. The Presbytery of Newton take up collections in all their churches; received last year $170, and have aided two beneficiaries.

18. The Presbytery of Philadelphia have collected during the last year, $155 06; and have under their care two beneficiaries. The Presbytery deem it but justice to themselves and the churches under their care, to state, that the funds which would have been at the disposal of this Presbytery, had not the Philadelphia Education Society been formed, are now collected by auxiliary Education Societies in many of their congregations, and transmitted to the parent Society, which reports to the Board of Education:—So that the people under their care "are really doing more than they formerly did in this important business, while they would appear from the Presbyterial reports, to be doing less."

19. The Presbytery of New-Castle have collected for their Education Fund, last year, $480, and have under their care four beneficiaries. Within their bounds there are two Female Education Societies, one at Wilmington, and one at Lancaster, auxiliary to the Philadelphia Education Society, which are in active operation.

20. The Presbytery of Carlisle have one beneficiary, and have expended last year, $168 75.

21. The Presbytery of Huntingdon conducts its Education concerns by a committee, and have aided one beneficiary the last year.

22. The Presbytery of Baltimore have one beneficiary, and take annual collections for the Education Fund.

23. The Presbytery of the District of Columbia immediately after their separation, in October last, from Baltimore, organized themselves into an auxiliary to this Board; and have directed each congregation under their care to take up collections for this object. During the last year their congregations paid $40 25, to the Education Fund of the Presbytery of Baltimore.

24. The Presbytery of Winchester have received during the last year, for the purpose of aiding indigent young men in preparing for the ministry, $688 36. Of this sum $100 is a legacy left by the late John Kearsley, Esq. of Shepherdstown, Virginia; and $300 is the commencement of a Scholarship, which they have determined to raise for the purpose of Education. They have wholly supported last year, three beneficiaries, and expended $392.

25. The Presbytery of Hanover, through the agency of their Education Society, have, during the last year, expended $700 in aiding nine beneficiaries.

26. The Presbytery of Lexington have within the year collected $346 05; and have on their charitable fund three young men.

27. The Presbytery of Susquehanna take up collections, and aid one beneficiary.

28. The Presbytery of Huron have lately been organized, and therefore have done nothing on this subject.

29. The Presbytery of Erie have collected last year $68; of which sum they transmitted $18 to the Seminary at Princeton, and expended $50 in aid of three beneficiaries.

30. The Presbytery of Alleghany in 1822, formed itself into an Education Society, auxiliary to this Board, and since that time have collected $56 80; which has been devoted to the aid of one beneficiary in Jefferson College.

31. The Presbytery of Richland have contributed $2 37½ to this Board; but have no beneficiaries.

32. The Presbytery of Lancaster have one beneficiary: expended last year $47, and furnished various articles of clothing.

33. The Presbytery of Grand River are now supporting wholly at their own expense, one beneficiary; and in connexion with the Presbytery of Portage, last year assisted two others, on whom they expended about $90. These two Presbyteries have taken incipient measures to establish a Classical and Theological Seminary in Ohio.

34. The Presbytery of Portage collected last year $43 30, besides some clothing; expended $57, and have one beneficiary.

35. The Presbytery of Columbus has collected last year $16 44; and aided one beneficiary.

36. The Presbytery of Athens report, that no one of their congregations is able, alone, to support a pastor, and therefore as a Presbytery they have done nothing on this subject; but "several in the progress of their studies are receiving some boarding and clothing," from a few of their congregations.

37. The Presbytery of Chillicothe, (formerly called Washington,) have collected last year $169 21, towards discharging a debt incurred by them in the education of three beneficiaries, who no longer require their assistance. They are still indebted about $250.

38. The Presbytery of Steubenville have one beneficiary, and have collected last year, $73 77.

39. The Presbytery of Washington, (Pennsylvania,) have collected last year $129 35, and aided six young men. Besides this, the Presbytery has several auxiliary Education Societies within its bounds, "a considerable part of whose funds have been appropriated by themselves" in aid of the above mentioned beneficiaries.

40. The Presbytery of Hartford has one beneficiary, and about $200 in their Education Fund; but during the last year has collected nothing. The Board cannot but hope the Presbyteries will make annual collections and transmit their surplus funds to the Assembly for distribution to the more needy, who have many beneficiaries. In turn they might then receive aid when their exigencies should require.

41. The Presbytery of Cincinnati have collected during the last year $52 39, and have one beneficiary. "Besides this, one of their churches are aiding two other young men, who have the ministry in view." This "Presbytery regret that they are doing so little," while they are sensible "they ought to be thankful that they are enabled to participate in any measure in so good a work."

42. The Presbytery of Miami have collected for their Education Fund $48 78, last year; and aided two beneficiaries.

43. The Presbytery of Fayetteville have collected $135 last year, and aided one young man.

44. The Presbytery of Ohio, have about $4000 in funds, the interest of which is applied for the education of poor and pious young men in Jefferson College. There are also one or two Female Education Societies within the bounds of this Presbytery, which apply their own funds; besides the Education Society of Pittsburgh.

45. The Presbytery of Transylvania have aided last year two beneficiaries.

46. The Presbytery of Union have nineteen beneficiaries, supported partly by contributions from their own congregations, and partly by aid from the Presbyterian Education Society. They pray for aid from this Board, which as yet, we are wholly unable to afford any Presbytery. The Board presume, that this Presbytery has reported to the Presbyterian Education Society, as the Executive Committee of East Tennessee.

47. The Presbytery of West Tennessee, acting as an Executive Committee of the Presbyterian Education Society, have aided three beneficiaries, and collected $206 50.

48. The Presbytery of Muhlenburg, as an Education Society, have collected last year $87 31; and aided one beneficiary.

49. The Presbytery of Ebenezer have aided three young men during the last year, and collected $551 44.

50. The Presbytery of Orange have during the past year obtained $116 47; and aided two young men.

51. The Presbytery of Concord have $100 in fund, and expect soon to aid several young men.

52. The Presbytery of Missouri have raised within the last three years $128 75, but have at present no beneficiary.

53. The Presbytery of Mississippi have enjoined it on all the ministers of their body, to bring the subject of educating poor and pious youth before their respective congregations, that they may learn the importance of it, and be prepared to act in this business with energy. They have also resolved to seek within their own bounds, and elsewhere, for young men of promising piety and talents, to be made beneficiaries, and reside under the care of this Presbytery, that they may become acquainted with the people and customs of that state, and thus be better prepared to enter on the important work of the ministry in that destitute region.

54. The Presbytery of Bath have obtained subscriptions for their Education Fund, and for the Auburn Seminary, but have at present no beneficiary.

55. Within the bounds of the Presbytery of Concord, several pious young men are assisted in obtaining an education, with a view to the Christian ministry, either by benevolent individuals or by particular congregations. The Presbytery is beginning to awake to this important subject; and our prayer is that the Presbyteries may all become the guardians and supporters of those who covet earnestly the best gifts, and appear to be consecrated in all the powers of their souls to the ministry of reconciliation.

56. The Presbytery of Harmony at its sessions in April last, resolved itself into an Education Society auxiliary to this Board; but at present has no beneficiary, and only $20 in fund.

57. The Presbytery of Alabama has so few ministers, and those few so imperfectly supported, that it has hitherto felt it to be its duty to bend all its forces towards missionary exertions.

59. The Charleston Union Presbytery have aided last year five beneficiaries, and collected $600.

The Female Education Society of Geneva, auxiliary to the Executive ommittee of Geneva, have aided one young man.

The Executive Committee of Ontario have aided four students, and obined in cash and clothing, books and board, about $105. On account of e low state of their funds, two of their former beneficiaries have been bliged to withdraw.

The Executive Committee of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, have obined in money and produce $98; but have no beneficiary.

The Executive Committee of East Tennessee have received in provisions, boarding and tuition, $792; which have been expended on fifteen young men now in the South Western Theological Seminary at Maryville. The whole number of their beneficiaries is nineteen.

The Education Society of Catskill has formerly aided six young men, and holds notes of their beneficiaries, amounting to $336.

The Western Education Society have aided twenty-four beneficiaries last year; and have purchased fifteen acres of land, on which they have erected a boarding house for the accommodation of the students whom they support in Hamilton College. The building is capable of accommodating fifty students; and in its erection the Society has already expended $2192 33, and $850 for the board of their beneficiaries. To complete this establishment will require $3000, which the Directors hope to obtain during the coming year.

The Rochester Education Society has two beneficiaries.

The Education Society of Grand River, Ohio, has received $100, and aided one beneficiary.

The whole number of beneficiaries reported to the Presbyterian Education Society as aided last year is eighty-six; but from the Executive Committees of Philadelphia, Genessee, Cayuga, Bath, and West Tennessee, which by their former reports had seventeen beneficiaries, no returns have been made. Since the last annual report, the Rev. William Patton, Rev. Elisha W. Baldwin, Rev. William W. Philips, and the Rev. Thomas M'Auley, L.L. D. all of the city of New-York, have been made life subscribers by the ladies of their respective congregations; and Mr. Ephraim Holbrook, Miss Alma Hicks, Elisha Parish, Esq. Rev. This Society has received from an unknown donor $50; from the Fragment Society of Wall Street, New-York, $46; from a collection in Orange $14; from a friend to Evangelical principles, $18; from collections in the Brick Church, New-York, $151 57; besides many smaller donations. The whole income of the Presbyterian Education Society and its auxiliaries is estimated at $7000 for the last year.

63. No reports have been received from the Presbyteries of Niagara, Genessee, Rochester, Ontario, Cayuga, Onondaga, Champlain, New-Brunswick. Second Philadelphia, Northumberland, Red Stone, Abingdon, West Lexington, Louisville, Salem, Shiloh, Georgia, and Hopewell; which must be considered as not having done their duty, in making a written report to this Board, agreeably to the orders of the General Assembly.

64. The whole number of beneficiaries reported to this board by Presbyteries and other auxiliaries, as having been aided since May, 1823, is about 250; and the whole amount of funds reported to have been raised since that time, or to be now in hand for that purpose, exceeds $20,000.

That we may in future be able to report the precise number of beneficiaries, and the exact amount of Education Funds raised, those Presbyteries which have reported to the Presbyterian Education Society, through the Western Education Society, or any other channel, are requested to state the fact in their communications to this Board. We have endeavoured to avoid error, and have in our summary view given a less number, and a less sum than have been reported to us; but it is possible after all, that some few beneficiaries, and some small sums have been unavoidably reckoned twice.

65. The Theological Seminaries, within our bounds, belonging to the Presbyterian church, are,

1. One at Princeton, New Jersey, under the care of the General Assembly;
2. One at Auburn, New York, under the care of the Synod of Geneva;
3. One at Hampden Sidney College, in Virginia, under the care of the Presbytery of Hanover; and
4. One at Maryville, Tennessee, under the care of the Synod of Tennessee. Besides these, funds are collecting for one in Ohio, and one in South Carolina.

The Assembly proceeded to the choice of a Stated Clerk, in the room the Rev. Dr. Neill, resigned, when the Rev. Ezra Stiles Ely, D. D. was osen.

The committee appointed on the Overture from the Synod of New Jersey, inquiring what a Church Session ought to do with members in communion, who have been absent for years without having taken a certificate of mission, and whose place of residence is unknown, made a report, which, ing read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

That although this particular case is not provided for by a specific regulation in our Book of Discipline, yet it is embraced by certain general principles, which are recognized in that book, and interwoven with many of its ovisions. These principles, together with the result, bearing on the se in question, the committee beg leave most respectfully to state,

1. Every church member is amenable to some appropriate tribunal, by the wisdom and fidelity of which, in case of his falling into any error, immorality, or negligence, he may be dealt with according to the word of God.

2. No member of a church can properly ever cease to be such but by death, exclusion, a regular dismission, or an orderly withdrawing to join some other Christian denomination; and must of necessity, continue to be amenable to that church until he becomes regularly connected with another.

3. For a church member to withdraw from a use of his privileges as a member, either by irregularly connecting himself with another denomination, or by going to a distant part of the world, to reside for a number of years, without making known his removal to the church session, and asking a certificate either of good standing, for the purpose of enjoying occasional communion elsewhere; or of dismission, to join some other church is itself a censurable violation of the principles of church fellowship, and may infer suspension from its privileges.

4. Church members, therefore, who have been absent for a number of years in unknown places, are by no means to have their names erased from the churches to which they respectively belong; but are to be held responsible to their respective churches; and if they should ever return, or be heard from, are to be regularly dealt with according to the word of God and the principles of our church; and although great caution and tenderness ought to be exercised toward those whose withdrawing from Christian privileges may be occasioned by the unavoidable dispensations of Providence without any material fault of their own, yet in all cases in which a church session has good reason to believe that any of the church under their care have absented themselves with design, either from a disregard of Christian privilege, or from a wish to escape from the inspection and discipline of the church, they ought without unnecessary delay to declare such persons suspended from the privileges of the church, until they give evidence of repentance and reformation: and, of course, in making their statistical reports, ought to enumerate such among the members under suspension.

A number of copies of the Minutes of the last General Association of Connecticut; of the last General Association of Massachusetts; and of the last meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, were received from those bodies respectively; which were committed to Mr. G. B. Perry and Dr. Cathcart, to distribute among the members.

A communication was received from the Trustees of the General Assembly, relative to the Wheelock estate, which was committed to Dr. Chester, Mr. Weed, and Mr. Hawes.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of New York, reported, and the book was approved to page 53.

The committee appointed to examine the Records of the Synod of Pittsburgh, reported, and the book was approved to page 248.

The committee to whom was referred the memorial and petition of the gents of the Synod of Kentucky, made the following report, which was dopted, viz:—

That they consider the statement and request contained in the said memorial, as worthy of the favourable notice of the Assembly. The plan which the Synod have formed of establishing a College in a central situaon within their bounds, under their own management, and at the same me upon principles which shall effectually guard it against all illiberal nd sectarian restrictions, appears to the committee well devised, and, if arried into successful operation, well adapted to produce effect of the most alutary kind, on the interests of sound learning, and genuine religion in the Western Country. And although they think it would not be prudent for the General Assembly, in ordinary cases, to pledge its influence in behalf of any articular Literary Institutions, yet, in the present case, when an enterprise f this nature is undertaken by one of our own Synods, upon a plan so truly worthy of universal patronage, and which, while it is calculated to promote nowledge and piety among all denominations, cannot fail, under the divine lessing, of benefitting our own communion, the committee are of the opinin that the Assembly would not be justifiable in withholding its countenance.

The committee, therefore, respectfully recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolution, viz:—

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Assembly, the plan of the Synod of Kentucky for establishing a College under their own immediate management, is enlightened and judicious;—that, if carried into execution upon the liberal principles embraced in the plan, and to which the Synod have bound themselves faithfully to adhere, it cannot fail of exerting a benign influence on the interests of literature and genuine religion in the West;—and that they consider it as worthy of the patronage of the pious and wealthy of all denominations, who wish well to the advancement of the great cause of enlightened education, and a learned christian ministry.

The History of the Presbyterian Church, in these United States, appears to your Committee to be a subject too important to be abandoned, and well worthy all the attention which can be bestowed upon it by this Assembly. Its importance will at once appear, when it is considered, how nearly it is connected with the propagation of the pure doctrines of the Bible, the progress of vital godliness, the spread of the gospel, and the rapid advancement of the interests of Science.

Your Committee, therefore, are of opinion, that such measures ought o be adopted as will be calculated to ensure the continuation and compleion of the History of the Presbyterian Church, with the least possible deay. The difficulties which must be encountered in the execution of this ndertaking will not be diminished, but increased with time. And your ommittee are moreover happy to have it in their power to inform this ssembly, that they have received information of the existence, in different nd distant parts of our country, of several important documents and Presyterial records, which it is hoped, may in a good degree, supply that lack f information, that has heretofore existed.

Your Committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following reolution, viz:—

Resolved, That the request made by the Rev. Drs. Green and Miller, to e released from their appointment to write the History of the Presbyteian Church in the United States, is received with unfeigned regret. But his Assembly viewing the request under existing circumstances, to be both easonable and proper, do further resolve that the same be granted.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly be, and they hereby are, iven to the Rev. Dr. Green, for his gratuitous offer of the whole result nd fruits of his arduous labour bestowed in writing, in part, the desired istory, as well as in collecting documents and various information, and in orming annals in relation to that part of the same, which yet remains to e executed.

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed, whose duty it shall e, to receive from the Rev. Dr. Green, the documents, and annals, and nformation, prepared by him to be furnished, and to collect such other ocuments as may be in their power, and may be necessary to the compleon of the History of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, with s little delay as possible; and whose further duty shall be to report from me to time their progress in the proposed undertaking to this Assembly.

The Rev. Ashbel Green, D. D. Rev. Jacob J. Janeway, D. D. and Rev. zra S. Ely, D. D. were appointed a Committee for the purposes menoned in the last resolution.

Resolved, That all the Presbyteries under the care of this Assembly, hich have been formed since the year 1797, be earnestly requested, with ll convenient expedition, to compile the histories respectively, of their everal Presbyteries, and transmit the same to the Committee above-menoned, resident in the City of Philadelphia; and that any Presbyteries hich were formed anterior to the year 1797, and which have not as yet orwarded their histories severally, be careful to prepare and forward them ith as little delay as possible.

Resolved, That an Agent be appointed by this Assembly, in each Synod ithin our bounds, whose duty it shall be to collect and transmit to the aid Committee, all such documents, printed and manuscript, as may tend, n their opinion, to throw any light on the History of any part of the Presyterian Church.

3. Therefore resolved,

4. That it be most earnestly recommended to all our congregations to send up annual and liberal contributions to the Board, in order to their doing this more efficiently: it being always understood, however, that this recommendation shall not involve in censure, any Presbytery, in any of the Synods, which have the permission of the General Assembly to manage their own missionary concerns.

The committee appointed to consider the Overture sent up by the Presbytery of Baltimore, respecting the course proper to be pursued by a Presbytery, when a minister with a certificate of good standing, from a Presbytery which has no longer any existence, applies for admisson, but is supposed to be chargeable with some offence subsequently to the date of that certificate, made the following report, which was adopted, viz:—

That after the most attentive consideration of the question presented in said Overture, it appears to them that the proper answer is embraced in the following particulars, viz:—

1. It is well known, that the book of discipline of our church expressly provides, that when a minister shall be dismissed by one Presbytery, with a view to his joining another, he shall always be considered as remaining under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery which dismissed him, until he actually becomes a member of another. In the case stated in the Overture, however, as the dismissing Presbytery had become extinct, it was physially impossible to act according to the letter of this rule. In these cir- umstances, every principle of sound interpretation seems to direct, that, ı ordinary cases, the Presbytery into which admission is sought, should eceive the applicant; and, if he be charged with any offence, conduct the rocess against him.

2. Nevertheless, it is the privilege of every Presbytery to judge of the haracter and situation of those who apply to be admitted into their own ody, and unless they are satisfied, to decline receiving the same. A Pres- ytery, it is true, may make an improper use of this privilege; in which ase, the rejected applicant may appeal to the Synod or the General As- embly.

3. When any minister dismissed in good standing by an extinct Presby- ery, is charged with an offence subsequently to the date of his dismission, ıe Presbytery to which he applies for admission, not only may, if they ee cause, decline receiving him, but, if their own situation be such that ıere is no prospect of their being able to conduct process against him in n impartial and efficient manner, OUGHT to decline admitting him into their ody.

4. In this case, ministers dismissed by an extinct Presbytery, and not eceived into any other, are to be considered as under the direction of ıeir proper Synod, and ought to be disposed of as the Synod may order.

Whereas great inconvenience has been found to arise from the method f determining the mileage of delegates to the General Assembly as here- ofore pursued—therefore, resolved, that it be made the duty of the seve- al Presbyteries, at the time of making out commissions, for their Commis- ioners, to ascertain and fix the distance which their Commissioners, seve- ılly, would have to travel in coming to the General Assembly, if they hould travel by the nearest practicable rout; and to append an amount of ıe same in writing, to the commissions respectively.

That a suitable number of agents be appointed by the present Assem- y to solicit donations in behalf of the Western Seminary; and report ereon to the Board of Directors of said Seminary; and that said Board of irectors take such measures as they shall think most proper for the safe eeping of the monies or other property which the agents shall obtain.

7. That it shall be considered as a principle fully understood in the esta- ishment of the Western Seminary, and to be regarded as fundamental in all time to come, that no part of the funds already obtained, or which shall hereafter be obtained for the Seminary at Princeton, shall, on any consideration whatever, be appropriated or employed, or loaned, in aid of the Western Seminary; and, in like manner, that no part of the funds obtained for the Western Seminary, shall ever be employed or loaned in aid of the Seminary at Princeton.

---

That after the most diligent inquiry they could make on the subject, it appears that the causes of the delay and deficiency in question, have been such as are not likely to recur.

They would therefore submit the following resolution, viz:—

That it be made the duty of the stated clerk, as heretofore, to procure the publication and distribution of the Minutes by the Printer and Agent of the Assembly, and that he be directed to take special care to have them published and distributed as soon as possible after the rising of the Assembly. Adjourned till to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock. Concluded with prayer.

May 28, 9 o'clock, A. M.—The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer. The Minutes of the last Session were read.

Rev. Joseph Badger was appointed an Agent in the Western Reserve Synod, to collect and transmit to the Committee in Philadelphia, all documents which may tend to throw light on the History of the Presbyterian Church.

The Prayer Meeting appointed for last evening was duly attended.

The Committee appointed to receive and examine the Synodical and Presbyterial reports, and read to the Assembly such parts as they might judge necessary to be read for the information of the Assembly, and also to prepare a statement to be transcribed into the compendious view, reported; and their report being read, it was directed that the stated clerk transcribe it into the compendious view. It was agreed that the following part be entered on the Minutes, viz:—

From the compendious view, it appears, that there are under the care of the General Assembly, 13 Synods, comprising 82 Presbyteries—8 of the Synods and 75 Presbyteries have sent up to this Assembly, reports, more or less complete. Those 75 Presbyteries which have sent up their reports, have reported the number and names of Ministers and Congregations, and almost all have reported the number and names of licentiates, and the number of candidates. 75 Presbyteries, and 982 congregations have reported the number of communicants, and 74 Presbyteries, and 818 congregations have reported the number of baptisms. Deducting the number of Presbyteries and congregations, which have reported upon these subjects respectively, from the whole number under the care of the Assembly, there remain 7 Presbyteries and 655 congregations which have not reported the number of communicants, and 8 Presbyteries and 819 congregations, which have not reported the number of baptisms. Generally, however, the congregations delinquent in these particulars are vacant. Fourteen Presbyteries have reported collections for the Presbyterial fund, leaving 68 which have not reported; 51 Presbyteries for the Education fund, leaving 31 which have not reported; 53 Presbyteries for the Missionary fund, leaving 29 which have not reported; 65 Presbyteries for the Commissioners' fund, leaving 17 which have not reported; 17 Presbyteries for the Theological Seminary, leaving 65 which have not reported.

Sixteen Presbyteries pay their own Commissioners. The number of ministers reported is 1021; the number of licentiates 173; the number of candidates 193; and the number of congregations 1637. The number of communicants added last year in 761 congregations, has been 8666, and the whole number of communicants in 982 congregations is 103,531. The number of adult baptisms in 439 congregations has been 1709, and the number of infant baptisms in 818 congregations has been 9730. On comparing these reports with those of last year, it appears that the number of congregations from which reports on the number of communicants have been transmitted to the Assembly is 110 less than last year.

On the recommendation of the committee, the Assembly adopted the following resolution, viz:—The General Assembly again direct the attention of the Presbyteries to the importance of great care in sending up their Presbyterial reports annually, as perfect as possible, and according to the form some time since sent down to them by the Assembly.

The committee appointed to make an apportionment of the Commissioners' fund, made a report, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly pay to the Commissioners, severally, the sums apportioned to them b the committee.

The committee to which was referred the report of the Directors o the Theological Seminary, submitted a report which being read and amended was adopted, and is as follows, viz:—

In the first place, they are compelled to notice with regret, the prevalence of what they deem a serious evil, not only to the Seminary, but t the Church at large, in the number of Students who annually leave th Institution, before the prescribed course of studies is completed. By a reference to the report of the Directors, it will be seen, that a large majorit of the last class is included in this delinquency. The unhappy consequence of this practice are too obvious to require a minute statement from you Committee. It is to be hoped however that some adequate remedy ma be applied.

Another item which claims the attention of the Assembly, is the insuff ciency of the Contingent Fund to meet the current expenses of the Inst tution. On this point the report exhibits a deficiency of $2,000; to rais which sum, your committee after a careful consideration, would recon mend as the most eligible plan, the appointment of a special agent, whos instructions, if it is thought proper, might also extend to the completing of the unfinished Professorships.

The Rev. Isaac W. Platt, was appointed an Agent agreeably to the above recommendation. Resolved, that he be allowed for his services and expenses, at the rate of $50 per month, while engaged in this business.

Resolved, That in case of necessity, the Directors of the Theological Seminary, be, and they are hereby authorized to address a circular letter to such churches as they may judge proper, soliciting a collection for the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Agents be, and they are hereby directed, in their solicitations, to pay particular attention to the increase of the Permanent Fund, and when they solicit for the Permanent Fund within the bounds of the Synods which have resolved to endow Professorships in the Seminary, the Agents are hereby directed to solicit for the endowment of said Professorships.

Resolved, That there be appropriated for the payment of Professors' salaries in the Theological Seminary, for the ensuing year, the sum of $4,800.

The General Assembly having witnessed with high gratification the progress of the American Colonization Society, in a great work of humanity and religion, and believing that the temporal prosperity and moral interests of an extensive section of our country, of a numerous, degraded and miserable class of men in the midst of us, and of the vast continent of Africa, now uncivilized and unchristian, are intimately connected with the success of this Institution,—Therefore,

Resolved, That this Assembly recommend to the churches under their care, to patronize the objects of the American Colonization Society, and particularly that they take up collections in aid of its funds, on the 4th of July next, or on the Sabbath immediately preceding or succeeding that day; and whenever such course may be thought expedient, to give their assistance, in such manner as may be most conducive to the interests of the general cause.

Samuel F. M'Cracken, of Lancaster, Ohio.
Thomas P. Smith, of Paris, Ky.

Ordered that the Stated Clerk, give timely information, of their appointment to the Directors, Commissioners and Agents of the Western Theological Seminary.

The committee appointed to prepare a minute to be adopted on the subject of the appeal of David Price from the decision of the Synod of Geneva, made a report, which, being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The Assembly sustain the appeal of David Price from the decision of the Synod of Geneva, on the ground that the charge of intoxication was not sufficiently supported by the testimony; although it does appear, principally from his own confession, that he had made an unbecoming use of ardent spirits: and that an admonition was, in the view of the Assembly, deserved, and would have been sufficient.

The judicial committee reported the appeals and complaints of Newton Hawes and Harvey Chapin; from which report it appeared, that the Records of the Presbytery of Genessee are not present: Therefore resolved, that this Assembly cannot proceed to try and issue said appeals and complaints.

Mr. Calvin Colton had leave of absence from the remaining sessions of the Assembly.

The committee appointed on an overture respecting the consistency of admitting into this church ministers who manifest a decided hostility to Ecclesiastical creeds, confessions and formularies, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

1. That the Constitution, as is well known, expressly requires, of all candidates for admission, a solemn declaration that they sincerely receive and adopt the Confession of Faith of this Church, as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures.

2. That the last Assembly, in a report of their committee, to be seen on the minutes, have so explicitly and fully declared the sentiments of this church in regard to her Ecclesiastical standards, and all within her communion who may traduce them, that no further expression of our views on this subject is deemed necessary.

The committee to whom was referred the overture respecting the Cumberland Presbyterians, made a report, which was discussed at some length, when the Assembly adjourned till to-morrow morning at half past 8 o'clock. Concluded with prayer.

May 31, half past 8 o'clock, A. M. The Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

Col. Robert G. Johnson, and Mr. Nixon had leave of absence from the remaining sessions of the Assembly.

Resolved, That in future the Presbyteries in making up their reports, designate stated supplies, presidents, professors, and officers in theological and literary institutions, from ministers, without charge.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the report of the committee on the overture respecting the Cumberland Presbyterians. After considerable discussion, the report of the committee was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

1. That in the opinion of this Assembly, ministers of the Presbyterian church, when regularly suspended, by the competent judicatories, have no right to exercise the functions of a minister during that suspension.

2. That while those persons styling themselves the Cumberland Presbytery were under suspension, their administrations are to be considered as invalid; but after the General Assembly have declared them as no longer connected with our church, their administrations are to be viewed in the same light with those of other denominations, not connected with our body. This decision is grounded on the opinion, that the act of the Assembly of 1814, precluded the propriety of DEPOSITION, or any other process in the case.

The committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1824 to receive from the Editor of the Christian Advocate, the tythe of the nett profits of that work, which is devoted to Christian charities, and to make a distribution of the same, made the following report, which was accepted, viz.

That according to a statement presented to your committee by the Editor of the Christian Advocate, it appears that the profits hitherto received on the 1st volume of that work have been - - -	$200
Profits on 2d volume do. - - - - -	264
Amount, - - - - - - -	$464

It is expected that further profits will yet accrue on volume II.

The tythe of this sum is $46.44, which is now to be distributed by your committee, according to the resolution under which they act. In addition to this, Mr. E. Littell, the publisher of the 1st volume of the Christian Advocate, has given two copies of Horne's Introduction to the Bible, valued at $15 a copy. This added to the former sum, makes $76. 44.

In conformity with the wishes of the Editor of the Christian Advocate, which the committee thought it right in this case to consult, and according to their own judgment on the subject, it is believed that the best application which can be made of the avails of this charity, will be, not that they should be distributed annually to several purposes, or even spent in any way within the year; but that they should go to the formation of an accumulating fund, which may ultimately be of permanent utility. The committee have therefore given it as their opinion that one copy of Horne's Introduction to the Bible be given to the Theological Seminary at Princeton, and the other copy to the Western Theological Seminary; and that the $46.44, now in hand, and the tythe of the Christian Advocate in each succeeding year, go to the founding of a scholarship in the Western Theological Seminary, to be called "The Christian Advocate Scholarship." The annual interest of the several sums as they shall be received, may be either spent or added to the principal, as the Directors of the Seminary may determine. If these sums shall eventually reach an amount sufficient to endow a Scholarship, it shall be called by the name that has been mentioned, and the Directors of the Seminary shall always choose the incumbent. If the several sums received shall not at the death of the present Editor of the Advocate, or at the discontinuance of that work, amount to a sum sufficient to found a Scholarship, the amount that shall have been received, shall be disposed of in any manner that the Directors of the Western Theological Seminary shall determine.

Resolved, That there be no election of Trustees of the General Assembly this year.

The committee appointed by the last Assembly to take into consideration the propriety of making certain alterations in the existing rules which govern the proceedings of the General Assembly, and if necessary, alterations in the Constitution of our church, reported that they had not fulfilled their appointment.

Resolved, That they be continued; and that they report to the next General Assembly. Adjourned till this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Concluded with prayer.

4 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met, and was constituted by prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

Resolved, That the Board of Education may appoint any person whom they deem suitable, to be their Treasurer, to continue in office during their pleasure; and that he shall be ex officio, a member of said Board.

Resolved, That hereafter, five instead of seven, shall constitute a quorum of the Board of Education.

Resolved, That the Clerks of this Assembly be directed to make such arrangements, and procure such conveniences for the use of the Moderator, and other officers of the next Assembly, as may assist them to perform their duties in the Assembly with comfort and expedition.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed to publish in the appendix to the minutes of the present year, the names of Synods, Presbyteries, Ministers, and Congregations; annexing to each congregation the whole number of communicants in the same. And where the reports of the present year are in any of these respects deficient, he is hereby directed to supply the deficiency from the reports of the previous year.

The following resolution was presented through the committee of overtures, and adopted, viz.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by this General Assembly to confer with a similar committee to be appointed by the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, should they deem it expedient to appoint such a committee, and to prepare a plan of correspondence between the two bodies.

The Rev. Stephen N. Rowan, D. D. the Rev. Elihu Baldwin, and the Rev. Robert M'Cartee, were appointed a committee, agreeably to the above resolution.

The following persons were chosen and appointed a Board of Missions for the ensuing year, viz:—

Philadelphia, the Rev. Robert Cathcart D. D.
Pittsburgh, the Rev. Elisha Macurdy.
Virginia, the Rev. John H. Rice, D. D.

Ohio, the Rev. Robert G. Wilson, D. D.
North Carolina, the Rev. John M. Wilson.

Resolved, That the Assembly will make no change this year, in the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary, at Princeton.

The Board of Education reported, and their report was accepted. Ordered that it be printed in the Appendix to the minutes.

The roll was called agreeably to a standing rule, to ascertain whether any members had left the Assembly without leave, and it appeared that Mr. Robert Porter, of Newcastle Presbytery, was absent without leave.

Resolved, That this Assembly be dissolved, and that another Assembly chosen in the same manner be required to meet in the First Presbyterian Church in this City, on the third Thursday in May, 1826, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Concluded with singing, prayer, and the Apostolical benediction.

APPENDIX.

A NARRATIVE of the state of Religion within the bounds of the Presbyterian Church, and its corresponding Churches in the United States.

IN furnishing a summary of our ecclesiastical history for another year, the General Assembly affectionately greet the people of the churches committed to their care, wishing them grace, mercy and peace from God, our father, and the Lord Jesus Christ, through the eternal Spirit; and they render unfeigned thanksgivings and praises to the King of Zion, for the auspicious circumstances under which they meet.

In the brief sketch, which we are enabled to give of the events of the year that has closed, many details of interest are of necessity omitted; and it is delightful to reflect that of the blessings of heaven on the church of Christ—the "half" is not only "untold," but in our present condition, and world, unknown. The influences of the holy Spirit upon the heart are often, "as the dew of Hermon, as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion," silent and unperceived, though refreshing and diffusive. That power which restrains the passions and the crimes of men, which convinces them of sin, and converts them to the Saviour's love, which comforts, sanctifies and nurtures the believer, is but dimly seen, and imperfectly apprehended in our efforts at tracing the progress of the truth. These effects we shall only adequately know in the results which the morning of the resurrection shall unfold.

But of that which is known, and can be told, there is much in the state of our churches which affords the occasion both to rejoice and to mourn.

As a people, we have been blessed with a singular exemption from pestilence and famine; and the voice of war has not been heard in our borders.

In the more immediate concerns of the kingdom of Christ, the people of God among us, seem lately to have received increasing lessons of instruction on the importance of union to produce extensive, and very useful efforts for the conversion of the world. They have learned that consolidation is the strength even of weakness itself; and while they righteously refuse to "say a confederacy to every one that saith a confederacy," they have, at the same time, combined their numbers and labours, in adding new and National Institutions to those which they had upon the same principle already erected.

The American Bible Society, we regard under God, as "the glory and defence of our Land." We share in its blessings, and in our measure in its support. As will be seen from the report of its operations for the last year, its sphere of influence has been constantly enlarging.

The nature of the service in which it is employed, and the multiplied testimonies which are from day to day afforded of its vast benefit to our country and our continent, bespeak a presence in it, which no created power can safely resist.

To oppose this institution is to fight against God, and yet we have seen infidels and half reformed Protestants, uniting with the Papal Hierarchy, in opposing the circulation of the word of life, as though the volume which Jehovah has adapted to the constitution of man, and sent down from above for his use, and made efficient in his redemption, and commanded to be given unto him, could not with safety be committed to his hands!

The United Foreign Missionary Society is extending its influence among our savage tribes in the west, and, from year to year as its resources enlarge, and as its plan of operation improves, confirms the high hopes of the church concerning it.

We desire to see the cause of domestic and foreign missions, as being one cause, advancing in sacred sisterhood; and while we rejoice in the gradual development of the influence of the above named institution, we would mention with gratitude to God, the early maturity and infant greatness of the United Domestic Missionary Society. It has sprung into life with such sudden and wonderful power, with such peculiar adaptedness to its important field of enterprise, and has so successfully, upon a plan unpracticed in the churches before, reared up the multitude of feeble congregations, now by its generous bounty upplied with the bread of life, that it resembles the granary of Jo-eph, to the famishing population of the land of Egypt.

The American Sunday School Union, rising up in the bosom of the Christian Church in our land, is also a blessed institution. In its imple and noiseless service, the best spirit and powers of the church re brought into the most delightful exercise. Gratuitous instruction, y the first classes of society, of the poor and ignorant—a beginning of ospel impressions, and bible knowledge, with the beginning of life— breaking away of the connecting curse which binds ungodly parents nd children together—its happy tendency to meliorate the condition f the slaves, and free people of colour in our country, and the direct in-uence which it exerts upon the salvation of souls, discover an extra-rdinary value in this institution, and should recommend it to every hurch and people in the nation.

The American Society for meliorating the condition of the Jews, is still active operation. It ascends to the first and most powerful elements success, in the great work of converting the world—when it attempts e restoration of the lost tribes of Israel. They are a peculiar people peculiar circumstances—and call for peculiar methods of doing em service. Among the methods devised for their recovery, some e must soon and mightily triumph. God speed that day!

The American Colonization Society is deservedly exciting increasing terest, and assuming additional importance, from year to year. heir colony on the coast of Africa, has been prosperous beyond what usual with infant establishments of that kind, and has lately been essed with a cheering revival of religion. While this society must come a most important agent in giving the gospel to Africa, it pro-ses to exert a benignant influence, not only on the condition of the e people of colour in this country, but perhaps upon slavery itself; e of the most dreadful of national calamities.

The cause of Seamen excites, every day, increasing interest in the blic mind. The Bethel Flag, as a "banner of love," floats in every portant seaport, on our Atlantic coast; and pious sailors go forth m these outlets of our country into all the world, as the specimens our Christianity at home, and as pledges to the heathen nations of hat the Gospel yet will do for their redemption.

The Board of Missions, the organ by which this body acts on the des-ute regions of our church and country, has been doing much the t year for our Frontier Territory and Western Settlements. It has ployed 52 Missionaries in different States. In New York eight; New Jersey one; in Pennsylvania fourteen; on the Peninsula two; Virginia one; in Ohio five; in Kentucky one; in Indiana four; in nois three; in Michigan Territory one; in Missouri four; in Missis-pi and Louisiana one; in Alabama three; in West Florida one; in st Florida one; in South Carolina one; in North Carolina one.

The all important cause of Education appears from the Report of the esbyteries to have received during the last year a greater amount systematic and successful attention, than at any previous stage of Church's history. In addition to the institutions already established, colleges have been planted in the South and West, and are beginning to impart the blessings of a liberal and christian education, to th crowds of youth committed to their care.

And with a more special reference to the service of the Church female cent societies, most of the Presbyteries, and especially ou Board of Education have been engaged with efficiency in trainin pious and intelligent young men for the Gospel Ministry. Greate energies, however, are still to be employed in this important work It is yet but just begun. The whole broad frontier of our churc from Lake Michigan to the extreme South West of Louisiana, is ye to be supplied with Gospel Labourers. The loud and melting cr for "help" has reached us from a thousand desolate places in th land. It is time that Christians should awake at the call of their perishing fellow men, to new ardour of zeal and energy of effort, in thi benevolent and urgent enterprise.

The Theological Seminary at Princeton, N. J. which is the child an common property of the Presbyterian Church in the United State continues to meet, and even to exceed in its extensive usefulness, th most sanguine expectations of its friends and patrons. By the distinguished liberality of several important sections of the Church, th foundations of its professorships begin to assume a stability, whic puts the permanent existence of the institution beyond the reach danger. The praises of its worthy and valued professors, are in a the churches. It is entitled to the unqualified approbation, patronag and prayers of all our people.

The Theological Seminaries in New York and Virginia are expandin into important institutions in their respective regions of country. B the liberality of the citizens of New York, the Seminary at Aubur has received a most important addition to its funds, within a fe months; and its number of students has increased to forty.

From the report of the Presbytery of Hanover, by which bod the institution in Virginia is conducted, we learn with pleasure, that tw regular classes have been organized, and that the efforts making this time to endow it, are successful to a considerable extent.

Such is a brief survey of what the church has been doing, eithe alone or in union with sister churches, by its public institutions, f the Redeemer's glory. We have dwelt on these objects of our pec liar regard, not only because they are instruments of extensive goo but because they are the palpable results of christian union, and God's blessing on it.

In reference to the more personal labours of the ministry, we a happy to say, that in the administration of church ordinances, th preaching of the word, pastoral visitations, and catechetical an Bible-class instructions, a pleasing fidelity and effect have in gener been discernible during the last year. Many of the presbyteri have, in a greater or less degree, been visited by the Spirit of Go The presbyteries of Buffaloe, Niagara, Cayuga, Onondaga, Londo derry, Troy, Columbia, North River, Hudson, New Brunswick, Re Stone, Grand River, Portage, Abingdon, Lexington, (Va.) New Yor nd Albany, have, in some of their congregations, shared the special nfluences of the Holy Spirit. The presbyteries of St. Lawrence, Geneva, Newark and Elizabeth Town, have in whole or in part, felt he mighty power of God, put forth in an unusual measure: the day-pring from on high has visited the people, and redeemed sinners have eturned in rejoicing throngs to their Father's house.

We notice with pleasure the enlightened attention which has been aid to the religious instruction and evangelizing of the unhappy slaves nd free people of colour of our country in some regions of our church. Ve would especially commend the prudence and zeal combined in his work of mercy by the presbyteries of Charleston Union, Geor- ia, Concord, South Alabama and Mississippi. The millions of this nhappy people in our country, from their singular condition as rought to the Gospel by a peculiar providence, constitute at home a ission field of infinite importance, and of most inviting character. o more honoured name can be conferred on a minister of Jesus hrist, than that of Apostle to the American Slaves, and no service can e more pleasing to the God of Heaven, or more useful to our beloved ountry, than that which this title designates.

Many particulars worthy of record and full of interest, rise to our iew as we proceed; but the general and brief nature of this narra- ve compels us reluctantly to pass them by unnoticed.

We should be doing injustice to our own feelings, as well as to an miable and important class of our fellow-labourers in the cause of hrist, did we not here acknowledge how much our churches owe the piety and active benevolence of females. In the Bible Society, unday School, Missionary and Education Societies, and most emi- ently in those associations which have for their object the relief of oor and suffering females and children, the influence of christian omen has been sensibly felt among us. In these appropriate and in- eresting fields, we rejoice to meet them, and cordially bid them God eed.

After this brief sketch of God's mercies towards us, we turn with pain, a survey of the evils which are brought to view in a history of the st year. We would first notice the fearful extent and unanswered lls of our vacant territory in the south and west. "A famine, not of read, nor of water, but of the words of life," presses them down to ernal death.

As specimens of this wide and melancholy waste, the population of issouri and Illinois amounts to 160,000, and covers a region of coun- y 500 miles square. We have within those limits already 18 urches, and yet only seven ordained ministers and one licentiate. Mississippi and Louisiana are 230,000 inhabitants, scattered over ,000 square miles. The great body of these belong to no church, d enjoy no ministrations of the gospel from any christian denomi- ation; and in all this vast territory, we have only eleven ministers of e gospel established.

The migratory spirit of our people, is another great evil in the urches. It sometimes uproots at a step a whole congregation; and then, as they scatter through the trackless deserts of the west, they remove their children and slaves to regions where perhaps the gospe is never heard. We would be very far from indiscriminately condemning all removals. It is by them our vacant national territory i yet to be occupied; and the diffusion of our population, for the cultivation of the soil, is to be esteemed friendly in some respects to th good morals and freedom of our country. But repeated removal from place to place, for the purposes of gain merely, especially whe by these acts, the ordinances of the gospel are entirely deserted, an with them the means of a good education, by which thousands of families are reduced to partial heathenism, is surely an abuse of God' mercies to us, and to be esteemed a national as well as a church calamity.

The often repeated complaints of sabbath breaking, profane swearing and intemperance, within our limits, have been again laid before th Assembly. We have not words to express our abhorrence of thes crimes, when practised by those calling themselves christians; an though we do not learn that there is an increasing prevalence of thes vices, yet it becomes us all to resist the beginnings, and to avoid th appearance of evil.

Perhaps there is little hope that is well founded of reforming confirmed habits of intemperance; and no extensive exemption of a community from the profane use of God's name and day, may be looke for, until the Gospel, which makes a man a law unto himself, shall hav had free course and deep effect among a people. Christian exampl may do much however, and the system of Sunday Schools, if wel applied, may be expected to affect extensively the rising generation Within our territorial limits, fatal errors in religious doctrine ar found in extensive circulation. The cause of infidelity, whether openl avowed, or disguised in the mask of rational religion, as it has, in it different stages of heresy, misnamed itself, must yield at last, and w believe is yielding now, to the "discerning" power of that trut "which bringeth to light" and destroys "the hidden things of darkness." Christians should strive as much as possible to live down thes ruinous systems of religious opinion, with all their consequent evils i society. And the ministry will most effectually destroy them by th influence of a pure and Godly example, and a faithful exhibition o the Cross of Christ.

It is with tears of grief and bitterness, that we record the death o several of our dear brethren in the Lord, since we last met in thi Assembly. As did "the devout men who carried Stephen to his burial,' so we would "make great lamentation over them." Yet blessed be Go their works and their memory live after them. "They being dead yet speak." From their recent graves there comes forth a voice o warning, saying, "Be ye also ready!!"*

* Names of Ministers of the Gospel who have died during the last year within our bounds :—

From the churches corresponding with this Assembly we have received cheering accounts of the state of religion in those regions of the nation which they occupy.

The Delegation from the General Association of Massachusetts, report, that the cause of the Redeemer is making progress in their churches; that extensive revivals of religion have been enjoyed by several congregations; that the Theological Seminary established at Andover, continues to be a most prosperous and useful institution, and that it grows daily in reputation, and in the affections of the people. It numbers at this time, about 130 students of Theology.

The American Board of Commissioners, for foreign Missions, holds a distinguished rank among the benevolent institutions of the present day, and deservedly receives a liberal share of patronage from the christian public.

The American Education Society, one of the largest and most efficient institutions of the kind in the world, is now in successful operation, and with the expansive benevolence of the gospel, extending its assistance to a great number of promising beneficiaries.

From the General Association of Connecticut, we learn that they also have been visited by the reviving spirit of the Lord, in many of their congregations, and in the great literary institution of the state, Yale College. The foreign mission school at Cornwall has at this time under its care 35 youths, most of whom are hopefully pious, from 10 or 12 different heathen tribes and nations.

From the Reformed Dutch Church, we have received the gratifying intelligence, that the cause of Domestic and Foreign Missions is increasingly prosperous among them; that their Theological Seminary at New Brunswick, N. J. notwithstanding its late bereavement,† continues to flourish; and that the Redeemer's Kingdom is advancing among their people.

By a correspondence opened this year for the first time, with the German Reformed Church of the United States, we are informed, that this body is paying a growing and hopeful attention to discipline, order, and the education of its youth, for the Gospel Ministry. A Theological School has recently been established by its general synod in Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Thus have we very briefly narrated the principal events, connected with the history of our own church, and of our sister churches corresponding with us, for the past year.

In closing this concise account, we would call upon the people of God among us, to bless and praise his holy name; to take courage and go forward.

† Death of Dr. J. H. Livingston.

While we spread sackcloth over us, for our own unworthiness, a deplore the evils which still appear in our history, we would at t same time, renew our vows and our strength, at the Cross of Chri and enter afresh upon our solemn work.

Though much has been done already, and much is doing now, y vastly more still remains to be done, both at home and abroad. L us then expand our views to the wide limits of our field of actio The soldiery of Jesus have yet almost a world to win. The powers darkness are yet to be met and vanquished, and the gospel standard yet to be planted on a hundred shores before we can lay our armo by, and comfort ourselves with the full extent of the assurance th our warfare is accomplished, and our service done. Then be eve man at his own standard throughout your hosts. "Say to the peop that they go forward." "Be not afraid, nor be dismayed by reas of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's."

ON the 28th of June last, the Education Society of Philadelphi transferred to the Board of Education under the care of the General Assembly, all their beneficiaries, books, papers, and funds, subject to th payment of their debts, and to the fulfilment of their engagements. Thi transfer was accepted, and the Board thereby became possessed of $577.8 in cash, and of $1050 in the six per cent. stock of the United States.

John Burtt Markii Medulla, worth $1.25.

The whole mixed income of the Board for the last year has bee $2716.36; and its expenditures in cash, clothing, and books, $1634.00.

Since the last meeting of the Assembly, the Board has directly aide twenty four young men; of whom the greater part are students of theology. They were pupils from twelve different literary institutions. Two o them were Jews by birth; two of them were natives of Ireland; two wer from Delaware; one from Virginia; one from South Carolina; one fron the State of New-York; four from New England; one from Germany; an the rest from Pennsylvania.

The Board have resolved not to appropriate more than one hundre dollars annually to any beneficiary who may hereafter apply for assistance under the conviction that it is best to help those who have helped themselves, or shall obtain a part of their subsistence from other sources. It is moreover, the design of the Board to give those young men the preference in the appropriation of our small funds, who have already evinced their aptitude to learn, and have advanced considerably in their academical course of learning.

* This Society not long since paid $20 to constitute the Rev. Isaac Kellar a member for life, of the late Philadelphia Education Society, which by mistake has neve before been publicly acknowledged.

The plans of the Board are more fully disclosed in the Address of a Committee of the Board, lately published, which has been distributed among the Members of the Assembly. From several of our Auxiliary Societies we present the following abstract.

1. THE WILMINGTON FEMALE EDUCATION SOCIETY remark, "Through the smiles of our merciful Heavenly Father, we still continue to prosper, and, from our recent arrangement in becoming more entirely engaged for a second beneficiary, we hope the members will feel a renewed spring to active zeal. Since the commencement of this society in 1820, we have collected upwards of $800, which has nearly all been paid into the treasury of the Philadelphia Society. The proposition to the Newark Society to unite with us in aiding another beneficiary, met their cordial approbation and co-operation. Our communication to the parent society, was also favourably received, and from them we have received a propitious answer to our designs and desires. We have great reason to 'thank God and take courage,' and pursue our way with renewed zeal and bright hopes; for heretofore we have been blessed, abundantly, above all we could ask or think. When we reflect on the fair characters and high attainments our beneficiaries exhibit, it is neither presumption nor enthusiasm to anticipate the day when some benighted portion of the Redeemer's heritage shall salute them with the glowing language of prophetic eloquence, and say, 'how beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that saith unto Zion, thy God reigneth.'"

2. THE FEMALE EDUCATION SOCIETY OF CARLISLE, PA. was organized in 1818, since which time, they have carried one pious youth through his academical and college course, and at present support him in the Theological Seminary at Princeton. They have expended in his education already $600; and feel able to continue their aid to him until he shall obtain licensure. This Society became auxiliary to this Board in the autumn of last year, and that they may take a second promising youth under their care, this Board has agreed to make them a donation of $50, for the present year. The officers of this Society are Mrs. Sarah Gibson, Miss Jane Chambers, Secretary, and Miss J. Douglass, Treasurer. The generous offer of Dickinson College, to receive twenty young men well recommended for piety and talents, without charge for tuition, initiation, and the use of their library, presents this society with peculiarly favourable opportunities for attempting great usefulness. A youth, thus aided by the liberality of that literary institution, will find $100 sufficient for his support for a year.

3. THE BETHANY EDUCATION SOCIETY OF JEFFERSON COUNTY, VA. have reported their organization to this Board. They have appointed the Rev. John Matthews, D. D. the Rev. Messrs. Welles Andrews, Alonzo Welton, Septimus Tuston, Dr. John H. Lewis, and Dr. Samuel C. Snyder, to be the Directors of their association; which designs principally to aid the Bethany Institution, located in Jefferson County. This institution was commenced by the Rev. W. C. Walton, who has now under his care five beneficiaries, pursuing their studies with a view to the ministry. These students contribute to their own support by labouring, some portion of their time, on a farm of 30 acres, which has been devoted to this benevolent object, and which is to be held in trust, for raising bread, meat and vegetables, for tl pupils. The funds, books, furniture, clothing, and agricultural instrumen obtained by the Bethany Institution since October last, is estimated $760; and the Bethany Society has received from subscription, $100, ai from a collection in the Second Church in Alexandria, $22.

4. THE PRESBYTERIAN EDUCATION SOCIETY, auxiliary to this Board, hav transmitted to us no report, which has come to hand; but we learn from public paper, that said society has, by its executive committees, and oth auxiliaries, collected the last year, $4611.87½, and have aided 94 ben ficiaries.

In the city of Pittsburg there are two societies, which contribute nnually about $90 each, for the support of two beneficiaries. A Female Education Society, in Canonsburgh, supports one beneficiary. A society in Williamsport contribute annually about $30. In Jefferson College there s a fund, derived from bequests chiefly, consisting of about $6000, the interest of which is regularly applied to the aid of pious students. Some congregations within the bounds of this Presbytery, have taken up contributions for the education fund; and from all these sources nine young men eceive pecuniary aid, so far as to meet the expenses of boarding and uition.

21. The Presbytery of Steubenville, acting as an Education Society, auxiliary to this Board, have collected last year $71.25, and aided one beneficiary. 31. The Education Society of Chillicothe Presbytery, during the last year, collected $146 towards the extinction of their debt reported last year; and remark, "During the last year we have accomplished so little, that were it not that we feel ourselves bound to obey the orders of the Assembly, you would probably have heard nothing from us this spring."

38. The Presbytery of Alabama, report that, in the important matter of educating poor and pious youth for the Gospel Ministry, they have as yet done nothing, because their region of country has been but lately settled, their Churches are small and weak—few of them are able to obtain the ordinary means of grace, and the Presbytery feel bound to appropriate all the funds which they can at present command, in furnishing their vacant Churches with the preaching of the Gospel.

39. The Presbytery of Winchester, have, during the past year, supported three young men, who are members of the Seminary at Princeton; and on whom they have expended $460 37½. They have in their hands no spare funds.

iciary at Princeton; and a Female Education Society, in Paris, Ky. have aided two young men to the amount of $35.

46. The Presbytery of Oneida, have raised and expended last year a very considerable sum on *twenty-three beneficiaries, who are pursuing their studies in Hamilton College.

The whole sum known to have been collected by this Board and its auxiliaries last year, for the education of poor and pious youth, who have n view the Christian Ministry, exceeds $14,000; and the whole number of beneficiaries aided, so far as they have been ascertained, is 234. The Board have to report with regret, that only 46 out of 81 Presbyteries have ent up reports, and that 35 must be considered as not having done their duty. They are so numerous that it would be painful to record their names.—We wish them to reflect, that the Assembly has repeatedly ENJOINED on all he Presbyteries, to report WHAT they have done, if any thing in this busiess—and if nothing, WHY? which, surely, is a very reasonable requisition.—f any Presbyteries act as Education Societies, or as Executive Committees, uxiliary to the Presbyterian Education Society, or any other similar In-titution, and report what they have done in this connexion, they will be onsidered as complying with the rules of the Assembly. This Board de-ire to present annually a full exhibition of what has been done by the whole Presbyterian Church in the United States, in educating her sons of vident piety and promising talents, for the service of the sanctuary, that we may rejoice together in our co-operation; and may know what should e our hope concerning the future supply of our destitute congregations, with well educated and pious teachers; or, what are our reasonable grounds, or fear that the widely spreading population of the South and West, will ve and die by thousands of thousands, without having enjoyed the ordinances of the gospel. It remains with the Presbyteries to grant, or with-old the requisite information. May we not anticipate more complete re-urns in future?

By order of the Board.

Extracts from the Report of the BOARD OF MISSIONS to the General Assembly, for 1825.

FOR the missionary appointments of the last year, the Board refer the General Assembly to the Appendix to the Printed Minutes of the last Assembly. As some changes in these appointments occurred, after the publication, and some additional appointments were made, it is proper to subjoin the following information.

In consequence of the resignation of Mr. Moses C. Searle's commission, Mr. John Young, of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, wa appointed to perform missionary labour, three months, in Indiana, and three in Illinois.

Mr. Nathaniel Pratt was appointed for three months, in Shrewsberry and vicinity, New Jersey.

Mr. Robert Lee, for two months, in Richland County, Ohio.

Mr. William J. Bradford, for two months and a half, in Bradford County, Penn. to labour particularly among the inhabitants of Wyalusing and Pike; and to receive part of his compensation from th Wyalusing Creek Missionary Society, auxiliary to this Board.

Mr. David M'Kinney, for three months, to the congregation of Erie and to receive his compensation from that people.

The Rev. Andrew Rawson, for three months, on missionary ground within the bounds of the Presbytery of Niagara.

Mr. James Wood, for two months, to Luzerne County, Penn. under the direction of the Rev. Cyrus Gildersleeve.

Mr. Sylvester Scovel, for six weeks, along the Delaware from Yardleyville to Bristol.

The Rev. James Ward, for one month, to the people of colour i Reading, Penn.

Mr. Eleazer Lathrop, for four months, in St. Augustine, and for two in Pensacola.

Mr. Oren Hyde, for five months and a half, at Potts Town and adjacent places, Penn. and afterwards for six weeks to the same places

The Rev. M. Miner York, for one month and a half, under the direcion of the Wyalusing Creek Missionary Society.

Mr. Alvin H. Parker, for six weeks, in Orwigsburgh and vicinity; and o receive $20 for his labours.

As it appeared for particular reasons desirable to have the gospel preached every Sabbath in the region lying along the Delaware from Yardleyville to Morrisville, and it was ascertained that this important object could be obtained at a very small expense, by employing he licensed students in the Theological Seminary; Drs. Alexander nd Miller were appointed a committee to send missionaries to that egion; and the Board agreed to allow them two dollars and fifty ents per week, to defray their travelling expenses.

From a review of the missionary appointments for the last year, it ppears that they amounted to fifty-four, embracing 168 months; exclusive of the stated supply on the Sabbath in the region along the Delaware; and exclusive of what has been done by auxiliary socieies.

Reports have been received from 46 missionaries.

The result of Missionary labour has been encouraging. Your Missionaries have organized nine or ten new churches; they have ormed Sunday Schools, Bible Classes, and praying meetings. They ave aroused professing christians from their slumbers, and excited hem to greater activity, in the service of their Lord and Master. They have been instrumental in awakening and converting a number f careless sinners, and have admitted many to the communion of the hurch.

In consequence of their missions, four of your missionaries have een settled as Pastors over congregations living in their respective missionary fields.

The Presbytery of Niagara have organized a Missionary Society, uxiliary to this Board; and have reported that they intend to raise heir funds by contributions taken up in each of their congregations, which they will forward to the General Assembly by their commisoners.

The Presbytery of Oswego report, that they have appropriated to domestic missions, during the past year, $132; and that other moies have been raised for missionary purposes.

The Presbytery of Oneida report, that they, as a Presbytery auxiary to this Board, "have done nothing, but that the congregations nder their care, have during the past year contributed very liberally domestic missions."

The Presbytery of Hudson report, that a missionary was employed y them one month, agreeably to the authority granted last year.

The Presbytery of the District of Columbia report, that they have rmed a Missionary Society auxiliary to this Board; that they take collections at each stated meeting of Presbytery, for missionary urposes; and that they have employed a missionary for three months nd a half during the last year, whose labours have, they believe, een useful.

The Presbytery of Hanover report, that the Missionary Society under their direction, have had in their employment, during the pas year, three missionaries; and that there have been about an equa number employed by the auxiliaries of that Society. Missionary service has been rendered for nearly 24 months, at an expense o nearly $900. At three of the stations occupied by the missionaries churches have been organized under encouraging circumstances.

The Presbytery of Columbus report, that within their bounds, the calls for missionary labour are loud and impressive. In almost every direction are places that do not and cannot have the stated means o grace. Many within the limits have never heard a Gospel Preacher.

The Presbytery of Winchester report, that they are in the habit o making annual collections in their congregations for missionary service; that they have employed during the last year, two missionaries one for five weeks, and one for three months; and that they have expended $138,50.

The applications for Missionary appointments are so numerous, tha the funds of the Assembly will be very inadequate to meet them It is to be regretted, that the funds are so small, and that so few congregations take up collections to aid them. The stream which ough to flow into your treasury, is diverted from it, in too many cases Local Missions are important. But, in supporting these, the congregations should not forget the extensive fields which this Assembly have to cultivate. While churches are maintained in the settled parts of our country, by Missionary aid, the inhabitants of the destitute regions in which churches are yet to be formed, and the attention to religion kept up by occasional preaching, are not to be neglected The Board are desirous of contracting the limits prescribed to thei Missionaries; and they have been in the habit of aiding feeble congregations, who have stated pastors, by employing their pastors a Missionaries on Missionary ground for a part of their time. In thi manner not a few have been assisted. But the Board cannot resis the calls for relief that are directed to them from these infant settlements where the people are poor and widely scattered. There th inhabitants are in danger of falling into a state of heathenism. B occasional preaching, the people are taught to remember that the gospel is desirable, and its ordinances to be sought. Germs of churche are discovered; and, in the course of a few years, as the populatio increases, churches may be formed, and the way prepared for th regular settlement of the gospel ministry.

It is all important that the Missionary funds of this Assembly shoul be increased.

In concluding this report, the Board would state that very few Presbyteries have reported on Missionary subjects.

VIII. The Synod of Ohio, contains the Presbyteries of 1. Chillicothe, 2. Lancaster, 3. Miami, 4. Columbus, 5. Richland, 6. Cincinnati, and 7. Athens.

IX. The Synod of the Western Reserve contains the Presbyteries of 1. Grand River, 2. Portage, and 3. Huron.

X. The Synod of Virginia contains the Presbyteries of 1. Hanover, 2. Lexington, and 3. Winchester.

XI. The Synod of Kentucky contains the Presbyteries of 1. Transylvania, 2. West-Lexington, 3. Muhlenburg, 4. Louisville, 5. Ebenezer, and 6. Salem.

XII. The Synod of Tennessee contains the Presbyteries of 1. Abingdon, 2. Union, 3. West Tennessee, 4. Shiloh, 5. Mississippi, and 6. Missouri.

XIII. The Synod of North Carolina contains the Presbyteries of 1. Orange, 2. Fayetteville, 3. Concord, 4. Mecklenburg, and 5. Bethel.

XIV. The Synod of South Carolina and Georgia contains the Presbyteries of 1. South Carolina, 2. Hopewell, 3. Charleston Union; 4. Harmony, 5. Georgia, 6. Alabama, and 7. North Alabama.

The Presbyteries above enumerated amount to EIGHTY-ONE, and from the reports of 1824 and 1825, they have under their care 1772 Congregations, 1080 Ministers, 176 Licentiates, and 196 Candidates for licensure. In 1121 Congregations which have reported on th subject, there are 122,382 Communicants, of whom 10,431 wer added in the year preceding May 1824, and 9098 in the last year.— Of course, the accessions of communicants were less the last year than the year preceding, by 1,333. How many communicants ther are in the 667 Congregations which have not reported their members in full communion, the Stated Clerk is unable to say; but the would doubtless average at 70 each, which would give 46,690, an make a grand total of 169,072.

During the two last years in 902 Congregations 22,672 person were baptized, of whom 3926 were adults, and 18,746 infants. I we suppose that the Ministers in the 886 Congregations which hav not reported on baptism, have baptized only half so many, on an average, in each congregation, as have been baptized in those congreg tions which have reported, then we must add 12,246 to the cases c baptism for the two last years, making a grand total for that perioc of 34,918 adults and infants.

From the Reports of Synods and Presbyteries for May, 1824, an May, 1825, the following Statistical Tables have been compiled. Th numbers for the two past years, which have been returned, are co lated into one amount, under the several heads; and those Presbyt ries and Congregations which have sent up only one report on an item within the two years, are distinguished by an asterisk affixed the same. The churches which are returned as vacant are marked wi a V. following their names, but in numerous instances the Presbyt ries have not designated them as such.

Annual Report of the Church of from April 1825, to April 1826.

NOTE.

It is intended that the Sessional Report should exhibit, at one view, the state ar exertions in the general cause of the Redeemer, of a particular church. If the Pa tor, or one of the Elders of each church, will carefully prepare, in April of eve year, or at some convenient time before the Spring session of the Presbytery und whose care the congregation may be, a full Report after the preceding form, w shall no longer have to lament that the actual numbers and condition of the Presb terian church cannot be known; nor will the publication of our statistical tabl hereafter delay the circulation of the Minutes of the Assembly for months after the are completed. It is desired that each church may set down, under the head of Mi sions, all monies collected by them, during the year, for domestic and foreign mission whether by subscription or other contribution, and not merely the amount forwarde for the Board of Missions; that thus the whole pecuniary aid, brought by the Pre byterian church to the cause of missions, may appear.

In like manner, it is expected that the churches will report all funds collected t them for any one of the Theological Seminaries under the care of the General Asser bly, or under the care of any of her inferior judicatures.

The Treasurer of the Trustees of the Assembly will, of course, be answerable f none of these monies, excepting those for which he shall give his receipt. Indee the greater part of the funds, heretofore reported in the Minutes, were never designe to reach his hands.

The transcript of the Sessional Reports, with the addition of a column for th names of ministers, and another for congregations; will make the Presbyterial Repo to a Synod, or the General Assembly.

Article II.

In order to bring about this desirable object on the basis of the proper unity of the visible church, it is mutually covenanted, that the ministers, members, and judicatories of these churches, treating each other with christian respect, shall always recognize the validity of each other's acts, and ordinances, consonant to the scriptures; and yet that any church judicatory belonging to either body, may examine persons or review cases of discipline, on points at present peculiar or distinctive to themselves.

Article III.

Article IV.

In order to carry this last article into effect, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church will at their sessions, in May, 1826, appoint commissioners who shall attend the succeeding meeting of the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, provided the said Synod shall have concurred in the above plan of correspondence.

After considerable discussion the Assembly adjourned till to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Concluded with prayer.

May 26, 9 o'clock, A. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

Mr. Poor and Mr. Brown had leave of absence from the remaining sessions of the Assembly.

The committee to which was referred the Synodical and Presbyterial reports, made the following report, which was accepted and adopted, viz.

It appears that there are under the care of the General Assembly, 14 Synods, comprising 85 Presbyteries; and that 68 Presbyteries have sent up to this Assembly reports more or less complete. Those Presbyteries which have sent up reports, have given the number and names of ministers, congregations, and licentiates, and the number of candidates. They also report the number and names of those ministers who are settled pastors; and of those who are stated supplies or without charges. They report also the number of congregations supplied, and the number vacant; and of the vacancies, those which are able to support pastors. They report also the number of communicants, and of baptisms. Eighteen Presbyteries have reported collections for the Presbyterial fund, leaving 67 Presbyteries which have not reported—41 Presbyteries have reported for the Education fund, leaving 44 Presbyteries which have not reported; 47 Presbyteries have reported for the missionary fund, leaving 38 which have not reported: and 55 Presbyteries for the Commissioners' fund, leaving 30 which have not reported. 14 Presbyteries have reported collections for one or other of the Theological Seminaries, leaving 71 which have not reported.

The whole number of ministers reported by the above named 68 Presbyteries, is 985; of licentiates, 152; of candidates, 176; of congregations, 1524. Of the ministers, 635 are settled pastors, and 350 are stated supplies or without charge; and of the congregations, 944 are supplied, and 549 vacant. The number of communicants added last year in 720 congregations, is 9557; and the whole number of communicants in 931 congregations, is 99,674. The number of adult baptisms in 457 congregations, is 1983; and of infant baptisms, in 751 congregations, 9397. Seventeen Presbyteries have made no reports on any subject to the present Assembly; but from the last reports received from 15 of these delinquent Presbyteries, it appears that they contained 150 ministers, and had under their care, 32 licentiates, 25 candidates, 251 congregations, and 9995 communicants. So that the whole number of ministers now ascertained to belong to the Presbyterian church in the United States, is 1135; the whole number of congregations returned, is 1775; of communicants, 109,667; of licentiates, 184; and of candidates for the gospel ministry, 201.

It is much to be regretted, that in more than 700 of our churches we are still unable to ascertain even the number of communicants; and that all the Presbyterial reports are more or less imperfect. It is therefore recommended, that all the churches be directed by this Assembly to be careful to make their annual returns to their respective Presbyteries; and that the Presbyteries transmit to the Assembly their reports, in the precise forms published in the minutes of the last year.

The resolution of the last Assembly, requiring the Presbyteries to append to the commissions of their Commissioners, the distance that each will have to travel in coming to the General Assembly, was repealed.

In the first year, every student shall be obliged to produce a written composition on such subjects, at least once in every month; in the second year, once in three weeks; in the third year, once in two weeks. Each student shall also commit to memory, a piece of his own composition, and pronounce it in public, before the professors and students, as frequently as in the judgment of the professors this exercise can properly be performed, when a due regard is had to the number who must engage in it, and to the other duties of the Seminary."

The committee on Mr. M'Crimmon's appeal from a decision of the Presbytery of Fayetteville, confirming his suspension from the communion of the church, for having married his deceased wife's sister, reported, that in their opinion, no relief can be given to the said M'Crimmon without an alteration of the Confession of Faith, Chap. XXIV. Sect. 4, the last clause of which declares, that "The man may not marry any of his wife's kindred nearer in blood than he may of his own, nor the woman of her husband's kindred nearer in blood than of her own;" but inasmuch as a diversity of opinion and practice obtains on this very important subject, your committee beg leave to submit the following resolution, viz.

Resolved, That the Presbyteries be and they are hereby directed to take this matter into serious consideration, and send up in writing to the next General Assembly, an answer to the question, whether the above quoted clause of our Confession shall be erased?

The above report was adopted.

The following protest was presented to the Assembly, and ordered to be entered on the minutes, viz.

The undersigned begs leave to enter his solemn protest against the decision of the General Assembly, by which they postponed the location of the Western Theological Seminary for another year.

1. Because the churches under the care of the Western Synods, have already too long languished for the want of such an Institution under the patronage and direction of the Assembly.

2. Because in his opinion, the decision is virtually setting up the site of the contemplated institution to the highest bidder, which he believes to be contrary to the genius and spirit of christianity, and may have the effect finally to locate the Seminary on a spot, which will neither meet the wants nor wishes of a majority of the western churches.

3. Because the decision, in his opinion, is calculated to divide the attention, distract the counsels, and cut off the hopes of those sections of the western country, which most need such an institution, inasmuch as Alleghany Town appears to him to be too far east, Charlestown too far west; and the proposals from Walnut Hills are clogged and fettered with such conditions as will effectually prevent a co-operation of the western churches in favour of that site, however desirable the spot may be in itself.

4. Because the decision as it now stands, must effectually prevent the city of Cincinnati from making any further proposals for itself, and also prevent the churches in the west, from making any offers in its favour; though all things considered, it is believed by many to be the most eligible site for a school of the prophets in the western country.

5. Because he cannot but indulge a hope that the General Assembly will yet consider this subject, and so alter or modify their decision as to render this protest unnecessary, in which case it shall be most cheerfully withdrawn.

JOSHUA L. WILSON.

The following protest was also offered and ordered to be entered upon the minutes, viz.

The subscribers enter their dissent and protest, against the resolution by which Mr. Josiah Bissell was admitted as a member of this General Assembly for the following reasons:

1. Because he was neither an ordained minister, nor a ruling elder; and consequently he was destitute of the qualifications which the constitution of our church requires in commissioners appointed by Presbyteries, as their representatives in this body.

2. Because he was not even a committee-man, on which ground, some might, in existing circumstances, have been disposed to advocate his admission as a member.

3. Because he had not, either from the Constitution, or from the Conventional agreement, recorded in the Digest, pp. 297—299, the shadow of a claim to a seat in this house.

The committee on the Colonization Society, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

The Assembly having witnessed with high gratification, the progress of the American Colonization Society in a great work of humanity and religion, and believing that the temporal prosperity and moral interests of an extensive section of our country; of a numerous, degraded, and miserable class of men in the midst of us; and of the vast continent of Africa, now uncivilized, and unchristian, are intimately connected with the success of this institution:—Therefore

Resolved, That this Assembly recommend to the churches under their care, to patronize the objects of the American Colonization Society, and particularly that they take up collections in aid of its funds, on the 4th of July next, or on the Sabbath immediately preceding, or succeeding that day, and whenever such course may be thought expedient, to give their assistance, in such manner as may be most conducive to the interest of the general cause.

The committee appointed to consider the petition of Union Presbytery (Overture No. 3,) made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

The petition of the Presbytery states, that the missionaries of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, labouring among the Cherokee Indians, have organized a number of churches according to the order of the Presbyterian church in the United States, that these churches have been for the most part taken under care of the Union Presbytery, although some of the churches are within the territorial limits of other Presbyteries; that this measure was adopted on the presumption that no other judicatory of the church would object to it; especially as the missionaries and their churches, united with the Presbyterian body, on condition that they should be permitted to connect themselves with the Presbyteries that might be most agreeable to the natives, and most convenient to the missionaries. On this statement the Union Presbytery founds a petition that the General Assembly, "would give liberty to the missionaries and churches in the Cherokee nation, to unite to such adjacent Presbyteries as may be most agreeable to themselves:" whereupon

Resolved, That the request herein made, be granted; and the several Presbyteries to which the missionaries and churches aforesaid may unite themselves, are directed to report the names of ministers, and number of communicants thus received, to each future General Assembly: it being understood that in all other respects the said ministers and churches shall submit to the government and order of the Presbyterian church.

The committee appointed to answer the dissent and protest presented yesterday, against the admission of Mr. Josiah Bissell as a member of the Assembly, made the following report, which was adopted and ordered to be entered on the minutes, viz.

"Mr. Bissell was admitted by the Assembly for the following reasons:

1. The commission which Mr. Bissell produced was in due form, and signed by the proper officers of Presbytery.

2. Every Presbytery has a right to judge of the qualifications of its own members; and is amenable to Synod, and not to the General Assembly, except by way of appeal, or reference, or complaint, regularly brought up from the inferior judicatories, which has not been done in the present case.

3. It would be a dangerous precedent, and would lead to the destruction of all order in the church of Christ, to permit unauthorized verbal testimony to set aside an authenticated written document."

Resolved, That the Assembly will this year make no election for Trustees of the General Assembly.

The report of the committee on the alteration of existing rules of the Assembly, was taken up, and being read and amended, was recommitted to the same committee, with the addition of Dr. Ely and Mr. Post.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the report of the committee on the subject of the lay delegates who are entitled to a seat in the General Assembly. After considerable discussion the whole subject was indefinitely postponed.

The committee to whom was referred the Overture respecting the profanation of the Lord's day, presented the following resolutions, which were adopted, viz.

1st. Resolved, That this Assembly regard with pain and deep regret the profanation of the Lord's day, which exists in our country in various forms, and which is calculated in an alarming degree, to create a neglect of public worship, a contempt of the authority of Almighty God, a corruption of morals, and eventually to bring down the judgment of God on our land.

2nd. Resolved, That the Assembly repeat the warnings which have heretofore been frequently given on this subject, and do solemnly and earnestly exhort the churches and individuals in their connexion, to avoid a participation in the guilt of profaning this holy day.

3d. Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to the ministers of the Presbyterian churches who have pastoral charges, frequently and solemnly to address their people on the subject of the sanctification of the Lord's day, and to urge its vital importance to our moral, social, and civil, as well as religious welfare.

4th. Resolved, That it be solemnly enjoined on all the Presbyteries and church sessions in our connexion, to exercise discipline on their respective members whenever guilty of violating the sanctity of the Sabbath; and that an inquiry should be annually instituted in each Presbytery relative to this subject; and that each pastor should at the earliest opportunity practicable, present this subject in all its solemn importance to the session of the church under his pastoral charge, and invite the co-operation of its members in all proper and prudent measures for the suppression of Sabbath breaking:—and further, that it be recommended to all our ministers and church members when travelling, to give preference to such livery establishments, steam boats, canal boats, and other public vehicles, as do not violate the law of God, and of the land, in relation to the Sabbath.

5. Resolved, That one member in each Synod belonging to this body, be appointed a committee to correspond with individuals, or the constituted authorities of other religious denominations, respecting measures which may be taken in concert, to prevent the profanation of the Lord's day; and further, that the commissioners to the several ecclesiastical bodies with which this Assembly has correspondence, be committees for the same purpose.

The following persons were appointed according to the foregoing resolution, viz.

Rev. Norris Bull, Rev. Henry Axtell, D. D. Rev. John Chester, D. D Rev. Joseph M'Elroy, Rev. Samuel Miller, D. D. Rev. Ashbel Green, D. D. Rev. Obadiah Jennings, Rev. James Hoge, Rev. Giles H. The committee to whom was referred the proposal of the Presbytery of Hanover, respecting the Theological Seminary under the care of said Presbytery, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted, viz.

Resolved 1. That the General Assembly will agree to take the Theological Seminary of the Presbytery of Hanover under their care and control. The Plan of the Seminary has been examined by the committee, who are of opinion that it is such as merits the approbation of the General Assembly.

2. That the General Assembly will receive by their Trustees, and manage the permanent funds of the Theological Seminary of the Presbytery of Hanover, which may be put into their hands; which funds shall be kept entirely distinct from all others belonging to the General Assembly. But the General Assembly will not be responsible for any loss or diminution of said funds, which may occur from the change of stocks, or from any other unavoidable cause.

3. That the General Assembly will agree to permit the Presbytery of Hanover to draw annually or quarter-yearly, the avails of their funds, and will give direction to their Trustees to pay any warrants for the same, which may be drawn by the President of the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbytery of Hanover; or by any other person named by the Presbytery.

4. That the General Assembly do also agree, that they will permit the Presbytery of Hanover to draw out, in part or in whole, the funds deposited in the hands of the Trustees of the General Assembly; provided, however, that the proposal to withdraw shall lie before the Presbytery at least one year previously to its being acted upon. The General Assembly shall also be at liberty to resign all charge and superintendence of the said Theological Seminary whenever they shall judge the interests of the Presbyterian church to require it: in which case the General Assembly will direct their Trustees to return to the Presbytery of Hanover, all their funds, which may have been deposited in the hands of said Trustees, or convey them in trust to such individuals as may be named Trustees by the Presbytery of Hanover.

5. That the General Assembly shall have the right to exercise a general control over the Theological Seminary of the Presbytery of Hanover: that is, they shall have a negative on all appointments to the offices of Professors and Trustees in said Seminary; and on all general laws or rules adopted by the Presbytery for its government.

6. That therefore the Presbytery of Hanover shall annually send up to the General Assembly, a detailed report of all their transactions relating to said Theological Seminary: on which report a vote of approbation or of disapprobation shall be taken by the General Assembly, and all appointments or enactments of said Presbytery or of the Board of Trustees acting under their authority, which may be rejected by the General Assembly, shall be null and void. But the authority of the General Assembly over the Seminary shall be merely negative: they shall not originate any measures or give any special directions for the government of the Institution.

7. That if it shall appear to the General Assembly that doctrines contrary to the standards of the Presbyterian church are inculcated in the said Seminary, or that in any other respect it is so managed as to be injurious to the interests of truth, piety, and good order, the General Assembly may appoint visiters to examine into the state of the said Seminary, and to make a full report to them thereon.

8. That if the General Assembly shall be convinced that any professor in said Seminary inculcates doctrines repugnant to the word of God, and to our Confession of Faith, they shall require the Presbytery of Hanover to dismiss such professor, and to appoint another in his place. And if said Presbytery neglect or refuse to comply with such requisition, the General Assembly will withdraw their patronage and superintendence from the Seminary; and will take such other steps as may be deemed necessary in the case.

9. That if the Presbytery of Hanover accede to these terms, then the Theological Seminary at Hampden Sydney College, shall be denominated, the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian church under the care of the Presbytery of Hanover, and the aforesaid articles and conditions shall go into effect.

The appeal of Mr. Pope Bushnell was resumed. The Moderator being a member of the Synod appealed from, Mr. Jennings, the last Moderator present, took the chair.

The duly authenticated documents present, were read. After which the roll was called, that each member might have an opportunity of expressing his opinion. The vote was then taken, and the appeal of Mr. Pope Bushnell was sustained, and the sentence of the Synod reversed.

Dr. Laurie, Dr. Ely, and Dr. M'Dowell, were appointed a committee to prepare a minute to be adopted by the Assembly, in relation to the above decision.

The first appeal of Mr. Josiah B. Andrews, viz. an appeal from a decision of the Synod of New Jersey, affirming a decision of the late Presbytery of Jersey, was taken up.

The decision of the Synod appealed from; the reasons assigned by the appellant for his appeal, which were on record, and the whole record of the proceedings of the inferior judicatories in the case, were read:—After which Mr. Andrews and the Synod were heard, until they were satisfied. Mr. Andrews and the members of the Synod then withdrew. The roll was then called to give each member an opportunity to express his opinion; after which the final vote was taken; and the appeal of Mr. Andrews was NOT sustained, but the sentence of the Synod affirmed.

The committee to whom was recommitted their report on the alteration of existing rules reported, and their report was adopted in part, and is as follows, viz. Resolved,

1. That hereafter the reading of the minutes of the preceding year, at the opening of the Assembly, be wholly omitted.

2. That it be the duty of the Stated Clerk to furnish each member of the Assembly, as soon as it shall be formed, with a copy of the printed minutes, and that he perform this duty on a call of the roll for the purpose.

3. That a docket of all the business arising out of the records of the preceding Assembly, carefully and accurately prepared by the Stated Clerk, shall be read immediately after the delivery of copies of the printed minutes to the members.

4. That the Assembly will in future continue to hear the reading of the narratives on the state of religion, sent up by the Presbyteries; but having heard them, will deliver them into the hands of the Stated Clerk, with permission to publish, free of expense to the Assembly, in periodical papers, such extracts, as he may deem proper and edifying.

5. That the Assembly will hereafter prepare no general narrative on the state of religion.

The remainder of the report of the committee, relating to proposed amendments to the Constitution, was recommitted to the same committee.

A motion was made and carried to discharge the Trustees of the General Assembly from the duty assigned them, by a vote of the Assembly to inquire relative to a law of the state of Pennsylvania, which imposes a tax of 2½ per cent. on all bequests to any literary, moral, and religious objects, and to report to this Assembly.

The further consideration of this business was indefinitely postponed.

The second appeal of Mr. Josiah B. Andrews, viz. an appeal from the decision of the Synod of New Jersey, affirming a decision of the Presbytery of Elizabethtown, by which he has been suspended from the gospel ministry, was taken up.

The documents were read in part. Mr. Judd had leave of absence from the remaining sessions of the Assembly; and Mr. Raynsford after this afternoon.

Adjourned till this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Concluded with prayer.

Mr. Curry, Mr. James H. Johnston, Mr. Munson, Mr. Younglove, Mr. Hutton, and Mr. James Wallace, of Troy Presbytery, had leave of absence from the remaining sessions of the Assembly.

The Assembly had a recess until 8 o'clock this evening.

After the recess, the Assembly met, and resumed the appeal of Mr. Andrews, and finished reading the documents, and testimony in the case.

Mr. Belville had leave of absence from the remaining sessions of the Assembly.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock. Concluded with prayer.

June 1, 8 o'clock, A. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

Mr. John Johnston, Mr. Sawtelle, and Mr. Bissell, had leave of absence from the remaining sessions of the Assembly.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the Assembly proceeded to the election of Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, when

The Honorable Jonas Platt was elected in the room of John Condict, Esq. Dr. John T. Woodhull, in the room of Ebenezer Elmer, Esq. Horace Stockton, Esq. in the room of John Beatty, Esq. Rev. James Carnahan, D. D. in the room of the Rev. Alexander M'Clelland, and the Rev. Joseph M'Elroy, in the room of the Rev. Samuel B. How.

Resolved, That the Assembly will make no further change in the Board this year.

The appeal of Mr. Andrews was resumed. The appellant was heard in defence of his appeal, and the Synod in support of their decision, after which, Mr. Andrews was heard in reply.

The appellant and the members of the inferior judicatory then withdrew.

Whereas, the Hon. John Wheelock, L. L. D. of Hanover, in the county of Grafton, and state of New Hampshire, in and by his last will and testament, did give and devise, certain estates therein particularly mentioned, and did direct that they should belong of right, and be transferred to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America, and to their successors and assigns, to be applied at their discretion to the use of the Theological Seminary of said church, now located at Princeton, in the state of New Jersey; and whereas, the Rev. William Allen, D. D. President of Bowdoin College, in the state of Maine, and Maria Mallenville Allen, his wife, who was the only child, the heir at law and residuary devisee of the said John Wheelock, in and by an instrument of writing under their hands and seals, bearing date the 8th day of June, A. D. 1825, duly acknowledged and recorded; to carry into effect the benevolent purposes of the Testator, did release and confirm unto James Carnahan, Samuel Miller, and Archibald Alexander, Doctors of Divinity, of Princeton, in the state of New Jersey, all their interests in the said estates, for the benefit of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, under the provision in said instrument expressed; and whereas, it is considered that it will best promote the intentions of the said Testator, and the objects of his charitable purpose, that the whole interest in said estate should be vested in the same Trustees; now, therefore,

Resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States of America, be requested to assign and transfer to the Rev. Drs. James Carnahan, Samuel Miller, and Archibald Alexander, the said estates so devised to them as aforesaid, by Dr. Wheelock, to be holden upon the Trusts, for the uses, and upon the conditions, and under the restrictions, which are declared and specified in the transfer made to them by the Rev. Dr. Allen, and his wife, of their interests in said estates.

Mr. Hodge obtained leave to resign his seat to Mr. John Mitchelmore, the alternate mentioned in their commission.

The committee appointed to act with a committee of the Trustees of New Jersey College, to dispose of certain monies in the hands of said Trustees, and to inquire into the tenure by which the General Assembly hold said funds, reported that they had not finished the business assigned them.

Resolved, That the committee be continued.

Adjourned till this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Concluded with prayer.

Four o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer. The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee on Overture No. 9, relating to an amendment in the Form of Government, chap. XIII. sect. 20, reported, and their report was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The committee to whom was referred the consideration of the Overture (No. 9) relating to an alteration of that part of the constitution of our church, which gives the right of choosing ruling elders and deacons to the congregation, in the way most approved, and in use in the congregation," reported, that after deliberating on the subject, they find themselves unable to devise any method, by which a uniformity of practice can be established in this interesting concern, throughout the different sections of our church; and believe that any alteration effected in the constitution with a view to relieve the difficulties in one section would produce difficulties in another section of the church. The committee therefore judge it inexpedient to propose any alteration, and recommend that the Assembly dismiss this subject from any further consideration.

The committee appointed to prepare a minute on the decision of the Assembly sustaining the appeal of Mr. Pope Bushnell, from a decision of the Synod of New York, affirming the decree of the Presbytery of Hudson, by which the said Mr. Bushnell, had been suspended from the privileges of the church, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

That the appellant having given due notice that he did appeal, appeared regularly before the Assembly; and that while the Presbytery and Synod have sent up their RECORDS in the case, neither has forwarded to this Assembly an authentic copy of the TESTIMONY taken on the trial. The Assembly did therefore decide, that Mr. Bushnell's appeal be and it hereby is sustained, so that he is restored to all his rights and privileges as a member of the church of Christ.

The Assembly proceeded to the consideration of the appeal of Mr. Josiah B. Andrews. The roll was called to give each member an opportunity to express his opinion; after which, the final vote was taken: when it was resolved, that the decision of the Synod of New Jersey, affirming the decision of the Presbytery of Elizabethtown, whereby Mr. Josiah B. Andrews was suspended from the office of the gospel ministry, be and it hereby is affirmed.

The Assembly had a recess until 8 o'clock this evening.

After the recess the Assembly met. The appeal of Mr. Charles Yale from a sentence of the Presbytery of Bath, deposing him from the gospel ministry, was taken up and dismissed, because it appeared that Mr. Yale gave notice to said Presbytery that he should appeal to the Synod of Geneva, several days before he signified his desire to the Moderator of Presbytery to appeal to the General Assembly.

The Appeal of Harvey Chapin from a decision of the Synod of Genessee, affirming a decision of the Presbytery of Genessee, affirming a decision of the church of Warsaw, was taken up. The records, documents, and testimony in the case, were read; after which, the roll was called, to give each member an opportunity to express his opinion: when the final vote was taken, and the decision of the Synod was affirmed.

Resolved, That the Permanent Clerk be allowed for his services, during the sessions of the present Assembly, and hereafter, three dollars per day.

The Permanent Clerk's account for services and stationary, and the janitor's bill, were presented and allowed; and the Permanent Clerk was directed to liquidate the same, by a draft on the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Assembly.

The committee to whom was recommitted the report on the propriety of making certain alterations in the existing rules which govern the proceedings of the General Assembly, and, if necessary, alterations in the constitution of our church, recommended:

1st, That the Form of Government, chap. xii. sect. 4, be so altered in the first sentence, as to read thus: "The General Assembly shall act upon all cases relating to complaints and appeals, which may be regularly brought before them from inferior judicatories."

2ndly, That the Book of Discipline, chap. vii. sect. 1, article iv. be made to read thus;—"No judicial decision, however, of a judicatory, shall be reversed, unless it be regularly brought up by appeal, or complaint, or order of the General Assembly.

3dly, That the Book of Discipline, chap. vii. sect. 1, receive two new articles, to be numbered vii, and viii, the first of which shall read thus;—"Should it appear to the General Assembly in reviewing the records of a Synod, that a Synod has, in the case of a complaint or appeal, acted unconstitutionally, or done something manifestly unjust or oppressive, the General Assembly may pass a censure on its proceedings; but no judicial decision of a Synod shall be reversed by the General Assembly until due notice has been given to the original parties to appear before the next General Assembly, and to the inferior courts to send up all the documents, papers, and testimony, relative to the case, duly authenticated:" and the second of which shall read thus: viz. "When a case shall be brought up, in the manner prescribed in the foregoing article, the Assembly shall be governed in their proceedings by the rules which regulate appeals before a lower judicature."

4thly, That to the Book of Discipline, chap. vii. sect. 2, shall be added a new article to be numbered x, in these words, viz. "References made by Presbyteries or Synods to the General Assembly shall not be for the trial of any cause, but only for advice."

5thly, That the Book of Discipline, chap. vii, sect. 3, receive an additional article to be numbered xviii, in the following words, viz. "All appeals from any Session or Presbytery shall terminate in the Synod to which those inferior courts belong."

6thly, That to the Book of Discipline, chap. vii, sect. 4, shall be added an article to be numbered viii, in these words, viz. "Complaints, like appeals, shall terminate in the Synods, within whose jurisdiction they shall have originated."

In support of the foregoing propositions for alteration and amendment, the committee remark, That the time which is now consumed by the Assembly in the consideration of complaints and appeals is such, as greatly to interfere with a due attention to other important and more general concerns of the church; and this demand of time for complaints and appeals will, if the existing system remains unaltered, speedily become so great, that the very limited period during which the Assembly can sit, will scarcely suffice for attending to this single object. The foresight of this had, it is believed, a principle influence in the appointment of your committee: and after considering a variety of suggestions, insurmountable objections occurred to the adoption of any one, except that which has now been submitted. But to this every objection, when closely and candidly examined, seemed to your committee to vanish.

The right of complaint and appeal, is indeed one of great importance, and the security of it fully is known to be regarded as among the most attractive features of the whole system of Presbyterian Church government. But this right, it is believed, may be provided for in all its extent, although the change in the Form of Government now contemplated, should be made. It will be recollected, that before the formation of the General Assembly, all appeals were terminated in a Synod—the Synod of New York and Philadelphia; not then more numerous than several of our local Synods now are: and with the final decisions of that Synod the churches were satisfied; quite as much so, as they have ever been with the decisions of the General Assembly. Indeed, it is believed by your committee, that from the greater advantages possessed by Synods, for obtaining an accurate knowledge of the true state and circumstances of the controversies which arise within their bounds, and from having more time for a careful investigation and a full hearing of every thing relating to complaints and appeals that are brought before them, they are more likely than the Assembly, to make an equitable and a satisfactory award. Nor should it be forgotten, that if an inequitable and unsatisfactory award is ever made by the Assembly, the evil consequences are extensive and numerous;—the authority and respect of subordinate judicatures are diminished; litigious individuals are encouraged to persist in an evil course; erroneous principles are established by the supreme tribunal of our church; and eventually attachment to, and respect for, the General Assembly are enfeebled, and the bond of union among our churches is weakened and its dissolution threatened.

Experience has taught us that a considerable part of the complaints and appeals on which the General Assembly has ultimately decided, had their origin from church sessions. In all such cases, if the proposed amendments to the constitution should be adopted, two appeals will still remain—one to the Presbytery and the other to the Synod. If local feelings may be supposed in some cases to influence a Presbytery, they seldom if ever extend to a whole Synod; and as the placing of the last appeal here, will bring controversies to a more speedy issue than if carried farther, the most formidable objection ever made to the discipline of our church—that it occasions delay in settling disputes and ending discord—will, in no inconsiderable degree, be removed.

If, after all, a decision, manifestly unconstitutional or unjust, should be made by a Synod in the case of a complaint or an appeal, this will of course appear on the records, will probably be accompanied by a protest or dissent, will thus attract the notice of the Committee of the Assembly appointed to review the book, will by that committee be reported to the house, and thus a full opportunity will be given to correct the error.

The committee moreover recommend,

7thly, That in the Form of Government, chap. XII, sect. 7, the words "publicly read," should be exchanged for the word "examined." In favour of this amendment, the committee stated, that probably much time, which is now occupied by the whole Assembly in having the commissions publicly read, might be saved, and stricter order be observed, by the adoption of rules of the following import; That immediately after the opening of the General Assembly and the constituting of the house, a committee of commissions be appointed, with instructions; and that the house adjourn till the usual hour in the afternoon: That the committee of commissions be instructed to examine the commissions, and report to the Assembly, immediately after its opening in the afternoon, on those commissions which are unobjectionable, and on those, if such there be, which are materially incorrect, or that are otherwise objectionable: That those whose commissions are unobjectionable, immediately take their seats as members, and proceed to business; and that the first act be the appointment of a committee of elections, to which shall be referred all the informal, or otherwise objectionable commissions, with instructions to report thereon as soon as practicable.

The Committee finally recommended,

8thly, That the Form of Government, chap. xiv. sect. 6, be so altered as to read three years instead of two years.

It is believed by the committee, that since the formation of the constitution of the Presbyterian church in the year 1788, a change has taken place in the state of this church, and society in our country at large, which may render proper a change in the period during which candidates for the gospel ministry should be required to study, previously to their licensure to preach the gospel. Candidates for the gospel ministry now are in general younger than such candidates were 30 years ago; there are more facilities for education; and the diffusion of knowledge and increase of mental improvement, seem to demand a correspondent increase of ministerial furniture, in those who preach the gospel. For these reasons the committee submit that in their apprehension the article of the constitution which directs, that the period of two years of previous study shall be indispensable to license, may advantageously be increased to the period of three years, except in extraordinary cases.

Having considered and approved of the foregoing eight propositions, the Assembly resolved that they be transmitted to the Presbyteries, and said Presbyteries hereby are instructed to report in writing to the next General Assembly, their adoption or rejection of the alterations and additions, thus proposed, to be made in the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church.

It was also resolved, that so soon as the alteration proposed in the 7th item above enumerated, shall appear to have been constitutionally adopted by the Presbyteries, the following RULES of the Assembly shall be in force.

I. Immediately after each Assembly is constituted with prayer, the Moderator shall appoint a Committee of Commissions.

II. The commissions shall then be called for, and delivered to the committee of Commissions; and the person delivering each commission shall state whether the principal or the alternate is present.

III. After the delivery of the commissions the Assembly shall have a recess, until such an hour in the afternoon as will afford sufficient time to the committee to examine the commissions.

IV. That the committee of commissions shall, in the afternoon, report the names of all whose commissions shall appear to be regular and constitutional, and the persons whose names shall be thus reported, shall immediately take their seats and proceed to business.

V. The first act of the Assembly, when thus ready for business, shall be the appointment of a Committee of Elections, whose duty it shall be to examine all informal and unconstitutional commissions, and report on the same as soon as practicable.

The Assembly having completed its business, the roll was called agreeably to a standing rule, to ascertain whether any members had left the Assembly without leave.

Resolved, That this Assembly be dissolved, and that another Assembly, chosen in the same manner, be required to meet in the First Presbyterian Church in this city, on the third Thursday in May, 1827, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Concluded with prayer, singing, and the Apostolical benediction.

APPENDIX.

A NARRATIVE ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

The General Assembly having received reports on the state of religion from 70 Presbyteries, and from the Churches with which it holds correspondence, presents the following condensed abstract of intelligence, to the churches under its care.

Every year brings tidings of the enlargement of our territory, and increase of our ecclesiastical family. God grant that as our cords lengthen, our stakes may be also strengthened, and the bonds of our union be drawn closer and closer. Harmony in doctrine and discipline generally prevails. Differences of a minor sort exist among us, which may occasionally prevent all that fellowship which exists among the spirits of the just made perfect; but we bless the Great Head of the church, that no department of his kingdom on earth, of so large an extent, appears to live in more harmony and brotherly love. Whatever variety of phraseology on doctrinal subjects, or discrepancy of views in government and discipline, may be found existing between individuals or sections of our church, we have yet reason to rejoice that the doctrines of the Bible, as echoed by our Confession of Faith, are substantially taught, and the letter as well as spirit of our ecclesiastical standards generally maintained.

In less than 40 years, through the blessing of the Most High, we have increased from 1 to 16 synods, and from 6 to 86 Presbyteries—5 having been added to our number during the past year.

To enter into minute details, or even to glance at the intelligence received from every Presbytery, would extend this narrative to an unedifying length. A hasty sketch of the prominent features of the church in the respective synods must suffice.

Beginning at the South, in the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia, the state of religion appears on the whole to be favourable. Though a large portion of her territory is yet mournfully destitute of ministers, churches, and even of the bible—though in 20 counties within the bounds of the Presbytery of Hopewell, only 2 ministers of our denomination can be found—though the Presbytery of South Carolina appeal to the General Assembly for missionary help, and call for 20 active and zealous ministers, to supply as many organized and waiting congregations—yet we rejoice that a special blessing has been poured out on the means already enjoyed. In the Presbytery of Charleston Union, several congregations have received a refreshing from the presence of the Lord. Prayer meetings are multiplying, Sabbath schools are recommended in the Presbytery of Alabama, to all her churches; and what is especially interesting, the coloured population are receiving an increase of religious privileges, and the means used for their spiritual edification have been crowned with a visible blessing. Upwards of 30 auxiliary Bible Societies have been formed within the bounds of Hopewell Presbytery, during the last winter. The necessity of educating pious youth for the gospel ministry, is extensively felt; a plan of a Literary and Theological Seminary has been formed, and more than 30,000 dollars already subscribed to its funds.

From the Synod of North Carolina, nothing of very special interest has been communicated. We hear of good outward attention to the means of grace, but accompanied with much lukewarmness and conformity to the spirit and fashions of the world. That instruction in bible classes and Sabbath schools is enjoyed extensively by the rising generation—that the walk of many christians is uncommonly exemplary—that benevolent societies are receiving more liberal patronage than in former years—and that the standards of our church are stated to be steadfastly maintained, are matters of encouragement and consolation.

From the Synod of Virginia, we have heard mingled sounds of joy and lamentation. Three of their congregations have been specially revived, and in several other churches, an unusual attention to divine things has appeared. But on the whole, this part of the vineyard, so often refreshed, seems to languish. Fashionable amusements are seducing professors of religion, and contentions are creeping into some of the churches. No wonder these things should make the friends of Zion mourn! A dearth of spiritual instruction is one ground of their complaint; and measures are in active operation, by the support of the Theological Seminary at Hampden Sydney, to bring forward more labourers into the Lord's vineyard. 25,000 dollars, in addition to former benefactions, have been lately subscribed for the support of that Seminary; and more is now doing for the education of poor and pious youth than ever before. The Bible Society and Domestic Missionary Society within the bounds of this Synod, are in a very flourishing state. Yet they mourn the absence of the Comforter; and blessed are they that mourn.

Mississippi is the only Presbytery out of 5, within the bounds of the Synod of Tennessee, from which the Assembly have been permitted to hear. From this Presbytery no revival of religion is reported. The land is a scene of spiritual desolation. The inhabitants are rapidly increasing, and the ministers of our denomination are to the population as 12 to 230,000! Loud are the calls of our brethren for help. Shall they call in vain? The enemy is overrunning the land and fortifying himself against any future attack; and double the labour will soon be necessary to conquer, and obtain possession, that would now be necessary to take and keep possession of this field. There is no time for delay. New Orleans favours the reception of the gospel. Large congregations assemble there on the Sabbath, and a church for mariners is in contemplation.

The Synod of Kentucky, includes that state, a large part of the state of Indiana, and half the state of Illinois. From this region also the reports are very defective. The cause of Christ, however, appears to be advancing. Truth is prevailing over error, and light is dispersing darkness. The scarcity of faithful preachers is greatly lamented; nearly half the churches being destitute of a stated ministry. Error has still an extensive prevalence, and christians are not yet united as they ought to be, for the support and spread of the gospel. Great efforts, however, have of late been made for the education of their precious youth; and we rejoice to hear that after many struggles they have at last, at Danville in Kentucky, a literary seminary of their own. Revivals of religion have been witnessed in three congregations of Ebenezer Presbytery, in two of which 50 were added to the church.

From the Synod of Ohio no very good news have reached our ears. Complaints of coldness in professors, fondness for fashionable amusements, the increase of error, and general declension in religion.

form the burden of their narrative. "Give us ministers," is the cry of many congregations, and is in fact the cry of all the western country.

The Synod of the Western Reserve reports no general revival of religion. Several congregations, it appears, however, have been specially visited from on high. The congregations in that section of country are generally weak, and though better supplied than many of our Western settlements, are yet deplorably destitute of a stated ministry. In 30 townships, within the Presbytery of Portage, there are only 20 churches, and 10 Presbyterian ministers, while there are many propagators of error. Strenuous efforts, however, are making by our brethren for the increase of the ministry and extension of the means of grace. In the midst of this wilderness we are happy to learn that our brethren live in peace and walk in the order of the gospel, that family worship is extensively observed, and Sabbath schools and bible classes receive increasing attention.

The state of religion in the Synod of Pittsburg is reported, as on the whole, improving. Many churches, however, have none to break to them the bread of life, and "there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed." Six churches are stated to have been revived, to one of which were added 60 persons, to another 77. Other congregations are in a favourable state, but in the majority of their churches, great coldness and forgetfulness of their vows are charged upon the children of God. Vice in some places is on the increase. Good attention, in general, is paid to external means; the standards of our church are stated to be vigilantly maintained, and both ministers and people are active in support of missions, theological seminaries, and in other labours of love.

The loud calls for an increase of ministers in the west, the distance from Princeton, and the inconvenience and expense of an attendance at that institution, have induced the assembly to take measures to establish a Theological Seminary west of the mountains. May the gracious smiles of the Great Head of the church attend these measures, and unite the hearts and the prayers of his people in this great and important enterprise. Soon may it be prosperously founded, ong may it flourish, and abundant be the blessings it shall receive and communicate. May this school of the prophets nourish many a young Elijah, Elisha, and Samuel, to oppose wickedness in high places. Every member of the church will grant to this contemplated Seminary an interest in his prayers.

Within the bounds of the Synod of Philadelphia, nothing of special importance has occurred. In a few instances the spirit of the Lord has been poured out, and considerable additions made to the hurch. In the Presbytery of Lewes, the churches appear to be ousing, after a long slumber, and an unusual blessing accompanies he means of grace; and throughout the other Presbyteries, a good ttention to outward ordinances is remarked. But the special influnces of the Holy Spirit seem to have been withheld from most of he churches in this Synod, during the pas year. The mariner's church in Philadelphia, under the labour of the Rev. Joseph Eastburn, is in a flourishing condition.

In the Synod of New Jersey, the Spirit of the Lord, as in former years, has "come down as the rain upon the mown grass, and as showers that water the earth." In the Presbyteries of Elizabethtown, Newark, and Susquehanna, copious effusions of the Spirit have descended on no less than 17 congregations, while unusual ingatherings of souls have given joy to many others. The revival at Elizabethtown, and in some other places, is still going forward with great power. Not less than 450 persons in Elizabethtown alone, are said, by their attendance at the meetings for Inquiry, to manifest an anxious concern for their salvation. In the other Presbyteries connected with this Synod, though no particular excitement on the subject of religion exists, the state of morals is generally good.

In the Synod of New York, the Lord has been seen by his people, though in less stately and triumphant goings than in some of the synods which are yet to be named. Large additions have been made to some churches, and an unusual awakening exists in a few congregations; but the Synod have to regret that the revivals of former years have not been repeated.

But the brightest manifestation of redeeming power which we are permitted to record, has been made in the Synod of Albany. In the Presbyteries of Oswego, Ogdensburg, and particularly in the Presbytery of Oneida, has the glory of the Lord been revealed, to the joy of his friends, and confusion of his foes. In the still small voice, in the whirlwind, and in the earthquake, souls have been arrested, overwhelmed and shaken by this new creation; and the things which might be shaken have been overthrown, that the things which cannot be shaken might remain. In consequence of this display of Divine power, the theatre has been deserted, the tavern sanctified; blasphemy has been silenced, and infidelity confounded. The wise have become fools for Christ's sake, the mighty have been brought low, and the Lord exalted. Twenty-five congregations are reported as sharing more or less liberally these heavenly influences. Indeed, we are told, that not a town in the county of Oneida has been wholly passed by in this visitation of reviving love. In this heavenly work, slumbering professors have been roused; distracted churches have united in peace; Universalists, so far from hoping the salvation of all, have trembled for their own; Deists have forsaken their refuges of lies; Papists have sought absolution from the High Priest above, and little children have filled the temple with Hosannas to the Son of David. The work continues, and long may it continue, till all the dross of error and of sin shall be consumed in the purifying fire of the Holy Ghost.

The Spirit of the Lord has descended also, though in a less copious manner, within the Synod of Geneva, 10 of whose congregations have, during the past year, experienced his extraordinary operations on the heart. In the Presbytery of Geneva, 500 were the last year added to the church, and in the Presbytery of Bath, the churches have been increased by the addition of 200 more. This Synod, also, complains of a dearth of ministers in the southern parts of its bounds; but rejoices on the whole, that the chariot of the Lord is rolling forward.

It remains to notice the Synod of Genessee.

Such is the feeble state of the churches in the Presbytery of Niagara, that but one in all their bounds is able of itself to support the gospel. In the Presbytery of Genessee, there are appearances of revivals in two or three congregations; and in the Presbytery of Ontario, a special blessing has been poured out on one. In the Presbytery of Rochester, an example has been set of Christian activity, which all the church would do well to imitate. The Bible Society have provided 2700 Bibles and Testaments, and determined that every family in the county of Monroe, (which forms the bounds of that Presbytery) shall possess a copy of the word of God. 6000 tracts, entitled "to every Mother in Monroe county," on the duty of praying for her children, have also been distributed. Every town in the county has a minister, either of the Presbyterian or Congregational order. In one of their congregations, a revival has lately added 40 to the church.

From various parts of the country, we have heard, as usual, the lamentations of our brethren, over the ruinous vices of profane swearing, intemperance, and Sabbath breaking. Particularly from the State of New York, have we heard complaints of the breach of the holy Sabbath, by travelling in stages and steam boats, and on the grand canal. And, what was especially grievous, it was stated, that this pernicious example had sometimes been set by ministers of the gospel. Against all these things, the Assembly would lift up its warning voice.

We have thus glanced at the history of the year, from which it evidently appears, that the Lord has not withdrawn from us the tokens of his favour, but is still waiting to be gracious. The whole number of congregations, reported as enjoying a revival of religion, since the last Assembly, is 81; while more than usual blessings appear to have descended upon many more.

Nurseries ever lie near a parent's heart. As such, our Theological Seminary lies near the heart of the Assembly. The Institution at Princeton, still enjoys the smiles of the great head of the church. In her bosom have been nourished, during the past year, 118 of our candidates; about two-thirds of whom, have been, either wholly or in part, supported by the bounties of the church. Two new Scholarships have been endowed, making the whole number of Scholarships 16. Still, however, her treasury is comparatively empty, her wants increase faster than her supplies. When will the church, as a body, come up to her help! How long shall we "charge them that are rich, not to trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God; to do good, to be ready to communicate, and thus lay up a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life." From the seminaries of Auburn and Hampden Sydney, we rejoice to hear that their funds continue to increase, and their influence is likely to be widely extended. Under the care of our Presbyteries, we have about 200 students, on whom are expended not far from 14,000 dollars. While, however, there is such a call for ministers, the efforts in the cause of education are far too limited.

We lament the apathy of our churches, in regard to Domestic Missions, and particularly the want of united and vigorous efforts to supply the waste places of the west and south: considerable has indeed been done to cultivate and sanctify those regions, but more, much more, must be attempted and accomplished, or millions of our countrymen will sit in darkness, and their children grow up in ignorance and vice. There is a loud call from Heaven, for a union of hearts and of hands in this mighty work.

From the Associations, with which we as a body hold Christian correspondence, much has been received to gladden our hearts.

From the General Association of Connecticut, we learn, that more than 20 congregations within their bounds, have enjoyed, during the past year, or are enjoying at this time, an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Their churches are generally well supplied with pastors, and their Domestic Missionary Society still flourishes.

From the General Association of Massachusetts, we rejoice to learn, that there probably never was a period in the history of Maine and Massachusetts, in which the presence of God was more signally manifested to his churches. The cause of error is declining. In Williams' College, there is a powerful revival of religion; and in Amherst, according to latest information, there are hopeful appearances of a similar work. In the 10 colleges of New England, among 1400 students, 500 are hopefully pious, and 200 belonging to Massachusetts, are in different stages of preparation for the ministry. All their Benevolent Societies are in a prosperous condition, and 23 towns in Massachusetts, and 20 in Maine, are at this time under the influence of revivals, in which are already numbered, according to the report of the delegates, more than 1200 converts. The Seminary at Andover, is in a flourishing condition. Its number of students is 122.

From New Hampshire we learn, that there is a revival of religion in Dartmouth college, in which, about 50 of the students have become hopeful subjects of grace ; and in 7 or 8 towns in that state, the people are enjoying a refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

In Vermont, during the year 1825, we are informed, there were outpourings of the Spirit upon 20 towns, in which about 900, in the estimation of Christian charity, were introduced into the kingdom of Christ. At this time, there is said to be a great work of grace in 30 or 35 townships of that state, which is increasing rapidly. Unusual numbers of the young are subjects of this work. And we here remark it as a favourable sign of the times, that the grace of God, in nearly all the revivals which have been reported to the Assembly, has so signally descended on the rising generation. The special blessing of God, has unquestionably rested on the means of instruction, used with the young in Bible classes and Sabbath schools. In more than one instance, when a revival of religion was reported, was it stated, that every member of a Bible class, who had attended regularly, became a hopeful subject of grace. And the unusual number of teachers and pupils in Sabbath schools, which has the last year been added to the church, seems to set the seal of heaven to these blessed institutions.

From the Reformed Dutch Church, and from the German Reformed Churches, communications were also received, from which it appeared, that with them, religion is evidently gaining ground. Their Theological Seminaries receive the liberal patronage of their churches.

As in former years, death hath invaded our ranks, and removed some of our dear fathers and brethren from the imperfect service of this lower sanctuary, as we trust, to a higher, holier, and happier service in the heavens. Their names we here record, but we hope they have a better record in the book of life."*

In conclusion; from all these details, dear brethren, let us learn a lesson of praise and gratitude to the Giver of every good and perfect gift, that our Israel has lived another year before him; that in the midst of merited wrath, he has remembered mercy; and that while Paul has planted and Apollos watered, he has not left us without a goodly increase.

Let us go forward with cheerfulness and courage in our future work, seeing God is with us. His Spirit accompanies our labours, and difficulties shall vanish before us;—the mountains shall sink, the vallies shall rise, to prepare the way of the Lord,—" not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

And, finally, let us learn to be fervent and importunate in prayer, giving the Hearer of prayer no rest, until the sprinklings of grace on some parts of our land, shall become one universal shower,—until the springs that now rise and water some sections of our Zion, shall swell to rivers, yea, to seas, and the knowledge of the Lord spread over our land, as the waters cover the great deep. Amen.

Mr. Thomas W. Irwin, one of the students of the second class, departed this life in the month of February last.

The highest number of students in the Seminary at one time through the year, has been one hundred and eighteen. The number still remaining in connexion with it, is one hundred and fourteen.

At the close of the summer session, certificates that they had completed the whole course prescribed in the Plan, were given to the following six young men, viz. Lewis Bond, William Brearly, Edward N. Kirk, Samuel V. Marshall, Amos Savage, and M'Knight Williamson.

The Board are constrained to repeat the regret, that they have frequently had occasion to express in former reports, that so few of the students continue in the Seminary the time prescribed in the Plan to complete the full course of study.

While on this subject the Board beg leave to lay before the Assembly the following extract, from the minutes of their late meeting at Princeton, viz.

"In the opinion of the Board, it would contribute to the future usefulness of the students, as well as to the reputation of the Seminary, if all could be induced to enter so as to begin at the commencement of the course of instruction, and continue their studies under the direction of the Professors for three years, that they might become entitled to certificates of approbation. They think also that the practice which has too frequently prevailed, of young men entering the Seminary, and then after spending not more than a year, or six or three months, going away into the churches with the name of students of the Theological Seminary of Princeton, is very injurious to its reputation."

On this subject the Board have adopted the following resolutions:

"1. That the certificates of approbation awarded to students, who, after having remained three years, shall have sustained a satisfactory examination, be formally and publicly delivered to them, in the oratory, by the acting president of the Board, immediately after the address made at the close of the session.

2. That the General Assembly be requested to renew their recommendation, that the pupils should avail themselves of the great advantage to be derived from attending upon a full course of theological instruction in this Seminary; and that the Assembly adopt any additional means, which to their wisdom may appear proper to secure to the youth of the Seminary, the benefit of attending on a full course of the instruction communicated in the Institution."

The semi-annual examinations of the students have been as heretofore entirely satisfactory to the Board.

On the subject of benefactions for the assistance of necessitous students, the Professors have reported the following sums, viz.

The Board have the pleasure to inform the Assembly, that since the meeting of the last Assembly, two new scholarships have been reported to the Board.

Mr. Othniel Smith, of Jamaica, Long Island, who lately deceased, bequeathed in his will the sum of $2500, to found a scholarship. The whole of this sum has already been paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly. Mr. Smith has in his will, vested the right of naming the student who may have the benefit of his scholarship, in the Rev. Henry R. Weed of Albany, during his life, and after his decease, in the Professors of the Seminary.

Miss H. Smith of Carmel, near Natchez, Mississippi, lately deceased, has also left in her will the sum of $3000, to endow a scholarship. This bequest the Board were informed will shortly be paid. The surviving relatives of Miss Smith request that the right of nominating the student, who may have the benefit of this endowment, may be vested in the Presbytery of Mississippi.

The Board would further report, that they have received from the founders of the Augusta Female Scholarship, the following official communication.

"At a meeting of the founders of the Augusta Female Scholarship, held in the city of Augusta, (Georg.) on the 6th of March, 1826; the Revd. Samuel S. Davis, having resigned the right vested in him, of nominating the beneficiaries of this fund—it was resolved, that this right be vested forever in the Professors of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church at Princeton, (N. J.) subject however to the following restrictions, viz.: That whenever a vacancy in this Scholarship is to be filled, the preference shall always be given to a candidate from the state of Georgia, if at the time there shall be applications from that state; and in the absence of such, then to a candidate from some other southern section of the church."

FIRST REPORT of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church, at Princeton.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church are required by their charter, "once in a year to exhibit to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, an exact state of the accounts and funds of said corporation." Agreeably to this requisition of the charter, the Board beg leave to lay before the Assembly, the following statement.

The Trustees own and possess eight acres of land, situate in the borough of Princeton, state of New Jersey, upon which are erected the following Buildings, viz.

1. A large stone building, four stories high; one hundred and fifty feet in length, and fifty feet in breadth. In this building the students generally room, and the Professors lecture.

2. A Professors' House, built of brick, two stories high; forty-six feet in length, and forty-four feet in breadth. On the premises is also a stable.

3. Another Professors' house of brick, two stories high, forty-six feet in length, and forty-one feet in breadth. This house was built by professor Hodge; and the house and lot are mortgaged to him agreeably to the directions of the General Assembly, to secure to him or his heirs, at a certain period the cost of building, not exceeding $5000.

The Trustees also own and possess two libraries, called the Green and Mason libraries. These libraries jointly consist of about 4600 volumes, besides pamphlets.

The Trustees would further report that they have appointed James S. Green, Esq. of Princeton, the Treasurer of the Corporation, and that he has given a bond for $4000, with two sufficient securities for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

The following is a statement of his receipts and expenditures, through the past year, and of the balances still in his hands, according to the report of the committee appointed by the Board to audit his accounts.

He has received from the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly for the payment of Professors' salaries, $4800, which, added to a balance of $13 32½, previously in his hands, makes $4813 32½; of this he has paid out $4800, leaving a balance in his hands on this fund, of $13 32½.

The balance in his hands on the Professors' House fund, at the beginning of the year, was $57 85¼; of this he has paid out $49, leaving a balance in his hands on this fund, of $8 85¼. Report of the BOARD OF EDUCATION to the General Assembly of 1826.

Since the publication of the Minutes of the Assembly for the last year, this Board has received the following funds, viz. From annual subscribers, $140: from interest on stock, $63: from a friend, a donation of $10, by the hand of Dr. Ely: from another friend, a donation of $4: from Mrs. Margaret Carswell, a donation of $25: from Isaac Snowden, Esq. Treasurer of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, $108 63: from the collection in the third Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, after the annual sermon, by Dr. Blackburn, $147 60: from the Education Society of Newtown, Bucks county, Penn. by the hands of Jonathan Wynkoop, Esq. $13 50: from the balance due on the sale of the property of William Neil, a beneficiary of this Board, $63 60: from the Female Auxiliary Society in the First Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, $53: from the Female Auxiliary Society in the Second Church, Philadelphia, $35: from a collection in the same church, in November last, $56 95: from the Female Auxiliary Society in the Third Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, $70: from the Female Education Society of Harrisburgh, $100: from the church in Salem, N. J. $4 19: from the church in Fairfield, N. J. $7 06: from the church in Bridgeton, N. J. $4: from the church in Great Valley, Penn. $8 57: from the churches under the pastoral care of the Rev. John Smith, Delaware county, Penn. $19 63: from a member of the church in Northumberland, $30, as a life subscription for the Rev. William R. Smith: from the Female Auxiliary Society in the Second Church in Wilmington, Del. $40: from Dr. Ely, a set of chairs for the use of some beneficiaries of this Board, at Princeton, which cost $5: from Mrs. Margaret Carswell, $5; and from Mr. M. W. Carswell, $5, to purchase a mattress for the use of the same students: from the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, $7 18: and from the 2nd Church in Baltimore, $10.

The whole income of the Board thus stated, amounts to $1035 91.

During the last year, nineteen beneficiaries have been aided by this Board; which has expended for them, prior to the 10th instant, $1392 02.

From the Bethany Education Society, auxiliary to this Board, we learn, that they have five young men under their patronage; three of whom are entirely supported by their own labour on the farm belonging to this institution, or by its funds. This society have nearly completed a building for the use of its students; and during the last year estimate their receipts at $372 84½, of which $223 97½ were in money, and $148 87 in provisions, clothing and books. This society has expended in the same time, $202 21¾. The Directors remark in their communication to us, that "the prospects of the institution are increasingly encouraging. We have now, by the blessing of God, struggled through the difficulties connected with a beginning, and we are cheered by the approbation of some of the wisest and best men in our country, as well as by a conviction of the practicability and importance of our plan. We consider it now as being fairly in operation. The routine of labour and study, and recitation, has, during the past winter, been generally observed with regularity and system, and the progress of the young men is satisfactory to the Directors of the Institution, by whom they have been examined. The plainness and even roughness of the fare, together with a sufficiency of bodily labour, have a fine effect upon the health and spirits of the young men, and appear to be as well adapted as any thing can be to guard against those diseases which have ever been the bane of sedentary men, and which are now carrying off the stage of life, many of our most valuable ministers, and preparing for a premature grave many of our most promising students of Divinity."

The Auxiliary Education Society of Carlisle, have two beneficiaries, one of whom is prosecuting his academical studies, and the other is a member of the Seminary at Princeton.

The Presbyterian Education Society, auxiliary to this Board, have received, during the last year, $1371 13, and expended $1400 28. Directly, or by its auxiliaries, and executive committees, this society is ascertained to have aided 84 beneficiaries during the year.

The following Presbyteries have obeyed the instructions of the Assembly, in reporting to this Board their exertions for the education of poor and pious youth, viz.

1. The Presbytery of Genessee, who have collected since the last report, for their education fund, $65 27½: and expended the same on a student in Hamilton College.

2. The Presbytery of Ogdensburg, have appropriated $50 for the support of a beneficiary in Hamilton College; and are now taking measures to assist young men of approved talents in St. Lawrence Academy, in studies preparatory to admission into College. The Presbytery are induced to pursue this course, by a conviction that it will be most useful in their new country, which is, in a great measure, a wilderness; and will excite a more lively interest in their churches, than attempts to support students at a distance from them.

3. The Presbytery of North River, have one beneficiary, and take up annual collections in their congregations for the education fund

4. The Presbytery of Oneida, have raised and expended for education purposes, in the last year, $850; and have 18 beneficiaries supported in whole or in part, by their funds.

5. The Presbytery of Orange, have four beneficiaries; have received last year, $186 88, and have expended $149 95. In this Presbytery an increasing interest is felt and manifested among their people, on this important subject.

6. The Presbytery of Newark have two beneficiaries under their care, and have expended, last year, $124 25.

7. The Presbytery of Elizabethtown have three beneficiaries, and have collected $94 15.

8. The Presbytery of Newton have two beneficiaries, and have collected $154.

9. The Presbytery of Philadelphia has directed all the congregations under its care, to continue their annual collections, and to pay all monies collected for the education of poor and pious youth, directly to John Stillé, Esq. Treasurer of the Board of Education. The statistical reports will show the sums collected; and the Board of Education will, in future, account for their appropriation.

10. The Presbytery of Carlisle have one beneficiary, now at the Seminary at Princeton; for whose use they have collected, the last year, $65.

11. The Presbytery of Huntingdon has one beneficiary.

12. The Presbytery of the District of Columbia take up collections in all their churches annually, for the education of poor and pious young men. The amount collected last year, was $117 20, of which $106 34 is now in hand. The Presbytery has no beneficiary, and is, therefore, with all our Presbyteries, in a similar situation, earnestly and respectfully urged to transmit their surplus funds to this Board.

13. The Presbytery of Northumberland has two beneficiaries, one of which is chiefly supported by the congregation of Northumberland, and the other by that of Mahoning. The sum of $30 has been collected in money.

14. The Education Society of the Presbytery of Redstone have three beneficiaries; and have appropriated last year, $129 95, towards their support in Jefferson College.

15. The Presbytery of Lancaster have one beneficiary in the University of Ohio, and have paid towards his support, about $30.

16. The Presbytery of Columbus have appropriated in aid of one pious young man, $20.

17. The Presbytery of Portage collected last year, $30 50, and aided two young men.

18. The Presbytery of Miami have collected $71 44, and aided two beneficiaries.

19. The Education Society of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, have aided one candidate, under the care of that Presbytery, by the appropriation of more than $100.

20. The Education Society of the Presbytery of Chillicothe have collected $147, and extinguished the debt reported last year; but have no beneficiary.

21. The Presbytery of Transylvania have aided three beneficiaries to the amount of $338.

22. The Presbytery of Winchester have two candidates in the Theological Seminary, on whom they expended last year, $186 04. They have also two beneficiaries, pursuing classical studies, on whom they have expended $75. The education of pious youth for the work of the ministry, is gaining friends, in the bounds of this Presbytery, which has pleasure in stating that William Wilson, Esq. has given to said Presbytery, $2500, as a perpetual fund to advance this object; and that the churches within their bounds have raised $1100, towards the endowment of a scholarship.

23. The Presbytery of Lexington support four young men.

24. The Presbytery of Alabama supports in part, one young man.

25. The Presbytery of South Carolina in their report say, " our Presbytery has long felt the necessity of some systematic exertions to prepare young men for the ministry. Under this impression, in April, 1824, the Presbytery resolved to establish and endow a Seminary, embracing literature, science, and theology. During the autumn of the same year, Presbytery offered on certain conditions, to place the contemplated Seminary under the care of the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia. After mature and prayerful deliberation, the Synod received said Institution under their patronage, and appointed a committee to prepare a constitution, and manage the whole concern of the Seminary until their sessions of 1825: at which time a constitution was adopted, trustees were chosen, and agents were appointed to solicit donations and contributions for the purpose of creating a permanent fund, for the support of our contemplated Seminary. We are fully persuaded that the efforts of Synod will, through the blessing of God, be crowned with success. The prayer and the patronage of every well-wisher to the spread of the Redeemer's kingdom in the south and west, are requested in behalf of our infant Seminary." The sum of nearly $30,000 has been subscribed for this object.

26. The Presbytery of St. Lawrence have no beneficiary, but have collected funds which they have transferred to the Board.

27. The Presbyteries of Geneva, Ontario, and Hudson act as auxiliaries to the Presbyterian Education Society, which is auxiliary to this Board.

28. The Presbytery of Albany have supported in whole or in part, eighteen beneficiaries.

29. The Presbytery of Grand River have assisted two beneficiaries during the last year.

30. The Presbytery of Champlain, as such, have done nothing on the subject of education; but the individual members of the Presbytery have done something for local education societies in their part of the country.

31. The Presbytery of Washington are assisting several students in Washington College.

32. The Presbytery of Concord has aided two beneficiaries.

33. The Presbytery of Susquehanna have one beneficiary in Hamilton College, for whose support they pay annually $30.

34. The 2nd Presbytery of New York have contributed $107, towards the support of a student in the Seminary at Princeton.

35. The Presbytery of Alleghany have one beneficiary.

36. The Presbytery of Buffalo have assisted two beneficiaries last year, to the amount of $87.

37. The Presbytery of Hanover have collected nearly $600, and aided five beneficiaries.

38. The Presbytery of Cayuga, as an executive committee of the Presbyterian Education Society, have reported to that Institution their exertions on the subject of education.

39. The Presbytery of Richland having no beneficiary of their own, and feeling the poverty of the churches under their care, have not thought themselves able to do any thing.

40. The Presbytery of Troy have collected last year, $122 11, and have supported in whole or in part, five candidates.

41. The Presbytery of Union have within their bounds, twenty-eight beneficiaries, for whose support $1000 has been collected and expended.

42. The Presbytery of Erie have expended $42 in aid of two young men.

43. The Presbytery of Ohio acts as an Education Society; and in the 1st and 2nd churches of Pittsburgh, there are two auxiliary education societies, each of which supports a beneficiary.

44. The Presbytery of Bath have one beneficiary in the Seminary at Auburn.

45. The Presbytery of Hopewell report three Education Societies within their bounds, which support four beneficiaries at Athens in Georgia.

46. The Presbytery of Steubenville, as an Education Society, have aided one beneficiary to the amount of $43 35¼.

47. The Presbytery of New Castle have aided more or less ten beneficiaries, to the amount of at least $500.

Thirty-six Presbyteries have failed to comply with the requisitions of former Assemblies, that they should annually report to the Board of Education their efforts on the subject of the education of pious youth for the gospel ministry, or should assign reasons for not acting, if such be the case, in this important business.

The whole number of beneficiaries aided by this Board and its auxiliaries, during the last year, is two hundred and fifty-one; the whole amount of monies reported, as having been collected or secured in the same time, is $46,740 12. If to this sum we add $25,000 given in addition to former benefactions to the Theological Seminary at Hampden Sydney, in Virginia; the sum of $5500 given for the establishment of two scholarships in the Seminary at Princeton; the sum of $1178 93, given in aid of students at the same Seminary; the sum of $6000 collected for a professorship and a scholarship in the Seminary at Auburn; and the sum of $3940 50, secured in the city of New York, by the Rev. Joshua T. Russell, for a professorship in the Seminary at Princeton, we shall have an amount of $88,359 55, obtained last year in the Presbyterian church, to aid in the education of her future ministers. In the same cause, we learn from the public prints, that The American Education Society, (which is supported chiefly by the congregational Churches of New England, that maintain a fraternal intercourse with the Presbyterian Church,) has in one year and eight months, antecedent to the 29th of May, A. D. 1826, expended $16,000, and received 78 new beneficiaries.

The contribution of the Presbyterian Church, and of the Congregational Churches in the United States, to the different funds which are sacredly appropriated to the education of evangelical ministers, has during the last year, amounted to ONE HUNDRED AND FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS. Three hundred and twenty-nine young men have been aided, either in their academical or theological studies. We rejoice, and will rejoice, that so much has been done; while we are compelled to say, that all the efforts which have hitherto been made to supply our country with a learned and pious ministry, bear but a small proportion to the wants of our rapidly increasing population, and to the numerous congregations which are springing up in the wilderness.

By order of the Board of Education,

EZRA STILES ELY, Cor. Sec'ry.

In the following Table, the churches which have a Pastor, are distinguished by P. after their names; the churches which have a stated supply, by S. S.; and the vacant churches by V.

When the reports of the present year have not given the communicants in any church, I have inserted the number reported to the Synod to which that church belongs, at the last meeting; or in case of no report last fall to Synod, the last number reported to the Assembly. In some few instances this may produce a trifling inaccuracy; but it is fairly presumable, that the number of communicants is not, on an average, less than it was in 1825.

In recounting the monies collected for different funds, I have wholly omitted the fractions of cents; not because they do not amount in the aggregate to a considerable sum, but lest they should render the tables troublesome to the printer, and expensive to the Assembly.

If any of the Pastors and churches find that they are not credited with every thing above the fractions of cents, which they have collected for the five funds named in the following pages, they ought to impute it to the negligence of those who should have made accurate Reports to the Assembly.
